150 Americans Reach Freedom; One Claims 45 Who were Jailed Will Be Freed

Panmunjom, Aug. 27 (AP)—One hundred fifty Americans rode eagerly from Red captivity today —three of them their buddies feared would be kept behind in North Korea after they disappeared mysteriously from their prison camps.

One returning prisoner said 45 more Americans sentenced only a month ago to prison terms were in the Red grouping center at nearby Kaeson, awaiting release.

Freed Americans have told of prisoners jailed by the Reds in late July when the armistice was signed on such charges as "instigating against peace." Their sentences ranged from 1 to 3 years.

However, three who said the Reds called them "convicts" came back in Thursday's group of 250 South Koreans and 150 Americans.

Cpl. Charles G. Guidetti, 32, Philadelphia; Cpl. Eugene R. Reilly, 21 New York city; and Sgt. Guy T. Vadala, 23, Stoneham, Mass.

Reilly and Vadala said they and 43 other men in Camp 1 were told they were going to a "readjustment camp" because the Reds "were afraid we would be a bad influence on the others."

They were taken to a separate camp, near main camp 3.

Finally, on Aug. 16, about three weeks after the truce was signed, they were told they would be repatriated.

Are Last On List

Cpl. Gerard A. Francois, 23, of Jersey City, N. J., said 30 U. S. enlisted men and 15 officers have arrived in Kaeson after previously being sentenced by the Reds and told they would not be repatriated.

He said the 45 were told in Kaeson they will be freed—but only after everyone else.

However, Francois said the 45 were not all of the Americans being held back by the Communists. He said he believed a few still remain in Camp 5 at Pyoktong, serving their terms.

The Reds had claimed a right to hold some prisoners on trouble-making charges, but U. S. and UN officials sharply warned them to free all allied POWs who want to return—jail sentences or none.

Thursday's delivery brought the number of released U. S. prisoners past the two-thirds mark with only one week of the POW exchange remaining.

10 Officers in Group

Ten were officers and 140 were enlisted men.

The exchange, limited to 30 days by the truce agreement, begins its last week Friday, with 144 more Americans scheduled for freedom. The Reds said they also would hand over 250 South Koreans, four British and two South Koreans.

They now have returned 2,278

Appraiser for VA Indicted for Bribe

Gilhooly Is Charged With Taking $1,500 From Fishkill Builders

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—James H. Gilhooly, 51-year-old fee appraiser and compliance inspector for the Veterans Administration, was under indictment today on bribery charges.

He was accused of receiving $1,500 in bribes from two builders in Fishkill, N. Y.

Gilhooly, a resident of Fishkill, works out of the Albany district office of the Veterans Administration.

The indictment, returned Monday, charged that Gilhooly received the bribes between May 20 and May 25, 1952 "with intent to have his decision and action on a matter at that time pending before him in his official capacity influenced thereby."

Charge He Got Checks

The federal indictment charged that Gilhooly received the alleged bribes in the form of two $750 checks from the builders, who had applied to the VA for certification making them eligible to sell property to veterans.

Maximum penalty for conviction on the charges is three years in prison and fines twice the amount of the alleged bribe.

Gilhooly, who was not arrested, is scheduled to plead to the indictment on September 2 in Federal Court.

Property involved in the case was the Frog Brook Meadows housing project, in Fishkill.

200 Spectators Present to See Big Craft Take to Creek Successfully

A new type canal barge specially designated to carry long steel was successfully launched in the Rondout Creek Wednesday afternoon by the Reliance Marine Transportation and Construction Corporation.

An estimated 200 persons witnessed the launching, including representatives of firms and organizations interested in the newly developed craft, which is 115 feet in length, 42 feet six inches in beam and 14 feet high.

The barge, which is not self-propelled, has a capacity of 1,250 gross tons.

Directs From Wheelchair

Thomas Feeney, 82-year-old president and founder of the company, was on hand to personally supervise the launching, although he was confined to a wheelchair with a foot fracture suffered about a month ago. Feeney began the marine transportation and construction firm in 1917, and although he has not been active recently is usually present for launchings and maintains a personal interest in the firm's progress.

Among those present to witness the launching were William E. Cleary and Thomas J. Horan of the Harbor Carriers Association of New York city; Frank Mason and Harry Edenbach, admiralty lawyers; Joe Scotto, builder, and Representative Foley of the American Bureau of Shipping.

For Own Use

Bernard A. Feeney of the Reliance firm said the barge was built for the firm's own use and will operate on the Hudson, New York State Barge Canal, the Great Lakes and Long Island Sound.

It is expected to be the first of a number of such barges planned by the company, and work began immediately on a second barge of its type.

Construction of the barge launched Wednesday began in March of this year. Finishing touches were being completed today and the craft is expected to be placed in service immediately.

India Fails to Win Votes To Talk on Korea Peace

Loses on Two-Thirds Majority in Bid to Take Part in Conference

United Nations, Aug. 27 (AP)—India failed today to win sufficient UN support to give her a seat at the Korean Peace Conference.

She received a majority of the votes cast in the 60-nation political committee, but fell short of the two-third majority required for approval by the General Assembly which acts tomorrow.

The vote was 27 for, 21 against, 11 abstaining and India not participating.

Victory for U. S.

It was a victory for the United States, who had split with Britain and other western allies over the issue and fought vigorously against India's inclusion.

The committee also:

1. Recommended seats at the conference for all the 16 countries who fought under the UN banner —if they desire to do so. The vote was 42-7, with 10 abstaining and India not voting.

2. Rejected a Soviet proposal that the conference be made up of six belligerent countries and nine "neutrals." The vote: 5-41, with 13 abstaining and India not voting.

3. Voted to include Russia in the parley "provided the other side desires it." The vote was 55-2 with two abstaining.

Work Near Empire Market on Building Awaits Chief's Approval

Plans for construction of a one-story building 85 by 106 feet on the property next to the Empire Market on Albany avenue were indicated in an application made recently to the State Labor Department, Division of Engineering.

The application was made by Kinton Realty Inc., and it was indicated that the structure would house at least three stores.

Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy said he has received no application, to date, for a building permit, and one must be obtained before work is permitted to start. The chief did receive a copy of the application made in Albany. It was addressed to A. L. Lewis, 84 Sycamore street, Albany.

Chief Must Approve

Such applications are made to the engineering division of the labor department in compliance with laws governing exits and other building details. Copies of such applications made for local building are forwarded to Chief Murphy, who issues all local building permits.

The grounds next to the Empire Market parking lot have been graded and gravel was being trucked there today. A sign placed there said a shopping center would be opened there in the near future.

Zoning Hearing Tonight

A public hearing on the application of Dominick Perry for a business zone designation on a Lindsley avenue property, scheduled for last night, was recessed until 7:30 p. m., today in the Common Council chamber, city hall. It is understood that Perry, who has a garage on the property, seeks to use it to house trucks used for his milk business. Alderman Abram D. Relyea, chairman of the council's laws and rules committee, will conduct the hearing.

Carpenters' Union Return To AFL Fold Expected Soon

Washington, Aug. 27 (AP)—A Two-week-old secession of the powerful Carpenters Union from the AFL may soon come to an end now that William (Big Bill) Hutcheson, long the union's top man, is suing for peace.

It was learned that "Big Bill" already has conferred with AFL President George Meany about bringing the 822,000-member union back into the AFL fold . . . perhaps before the AFL's annual convention opens in St. Louis Sept. 21.

Committees representing the carpenters and the AFL's executive council also are scheduled to confer within two weeks. Meanwhile, the 69-year-old Hutcheson, one of the AFL's patriarchs, has reportedly called his union's leaders to his Indianapolis headquarters for talks.

Bill's son Maurice, who became cappenters union president early last year, suddenly pulled the union out of the AFL at the AFL Executive Council's meeting in Chicago two weeks ago.

Maurice Hutcheson said in Indianapolis yesterday he had met with Meany Tuesday and agreed to the committee talks. He said the meeting was arranged through a neutral party.

The stated reason for the secession was a protest against the AFL agreeing to a "no raiding" pact with the CIO. Maurice Hutcheson said the AFL itself hadn't yet set up a system for settling disputes between its own unions.

Meany said at the time he didn't believe this was the real

Russian Proposal on Conference Rejected by UN Political Group

Committee Acts After American Delegate Lodge Declares Soviet Makes Peace Impossible; U. S. Plan on 16 Nations Approved

United Nations, N. Y., Aug. 27 (AP) — The UN Political Committee today rejected a Russian proposal that the Korean peace conference be made up of six belligerent countries and nine "neutrals."

The vote was five in favor, 41 against and 13 abstaining. India did not participate.

The 60-nation committee acted after U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. had declared that Russia's attitude on the Korean parley, if persisted in, would "make peace impossible."

Called Threat

Lodge said Soviet delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky yesterday had made a thinly veiled threat that the Communists would boycott the conference unless they got their way in naming the participating countries. Vishinsky denied he had made any such threat.

The committee went on to adopt an American-backed proposal recommending that all the 16 countries who fought under the UN banner should take part in the conference if they desire.

The vote on this was 42-7, with 10 abstaining and India not participating.

Lodge also struck back at Vishinsky's charge that the United States was acting like a "master race" and was trying to force others to accept its views by ultimatums.

Points to Red Plan

He pointed out that the American population was made up of many races and religions, but behind the Iron Curtain the Communists have tried to wipe out "religion, Christianity, Judaism."

"The representative of the Soviet Union, when he talked about a master race in America, missed one of the great opportunities in his life to keep quiet," Lodge said.

Takes Two, Lodge Says

On the question of the Korean conference, Lodge said:

"If the Communist side does not want a peace, there won't be any. It takes two to make a peace. If they do not want a conference they can wreck it."

British delegate Sir Gladwyn Jebb agreed with Lodge and said that, when he heard Vishinsky speak, he asked himself whether Russia actualy wanted a Conference.

Vishinsky denied that he had made a veiled threat about Communist participation in the peace parley. He said all he was saying was that the assembly should communicate its views to the Chinese Communists and North Korea and then consider their views.

This flurry delayed the voting temporarily.

The committee had before it the following major proposals:

Petition Move Ousted

New York, Aug. 27 (AP) — A move seeking to invalidate petitions designating Robert F. Wagner, Jr., in the Democratic primaries for a mayoral candidate was tossed out of court today. State Supreme Court Justice Edgar J. Nathan said only "tenuous grounds" were offered for invalidating the petitions, which also designate two Wagner running mates in the primaries. They are Lawrence E. Gerosa, for comptroller and Abe Stark, for president of the City Council.

Retailers Go Back to Fall Hours

Kingston retail stores which have been closing Saturday afternoons for the summer will resume regular hours this week, remaining open all day Saturday, it was announced today.

A spokesman for the group of stores—which includes many of the city's largest retail outlets—said today the last week in August was chosen as the time to resume regular hours because of the fact that Labor Day comes later in September than usual (Sept. 7).

The Saturday afternoon business hours will be accompanied by back-to-school promotions in many cases and the showing of fall and winter merchandise.

A large group of merchants agreed after much discussion early in July to close at noon or 12:30 p. m. on Saturday for the months of July and August. The agreement came after an earlier movement to close all day Mondays during those summer months was tabled.

New York Woman Spans Atlantic In Sports Plane

Shannon Airport, Ireland, Aug. 27 (AP)—Mrs. Marian Hart, 61-year-old American sportswoman, flew a single-engined sports plane nonstop across the Atlantic today in 13½ hours.

It was the first direct crossing in a small, single engined plane from Newfoundland to Ireland since the pioneering days of trans-Atlantic flight.

Mrs. Hart, from (11 East 73rd St.) New York, said she planned the flight to save the cost of taking the wings off her Beechcraft and sending it across by ship.

The project wound up costing her three times as much as it would have to ship the plane but it was worth it, she said, because "it was such a beautiful crossing in bright moonlight." she declined to say how much she spent.

A quiet observance of her birthday was planned.

East Approach Bids May Come in Sept.

Authority Expected to Get Plans From Engineer Within Few Days

A state source today foresaw the possibility of the advertising for bids for the clearing and rough grading on the eastern approach of the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge in September.

It is expected that the plans, prepared by the office of B. D. Steinman, bridge designer, and consulting engineer, of New York, will be in the hands of the New York State Bridge Authority within the next few days.

If the plans are approved, it is expected, that the authority, as it did with the western approach project, will authorize the state public works department as its agent to advertise for bids and award a contract.

May Start in Spring

It is expected that work on the piers and abutments will start next spring.

The bridge authority, headed by James F. Loughran, of this city, on Aug. 12 authorized a contract between the state and Philip Totonelly Inc., of Newburgh, who bid $156,452 to clear and rough grade the western approach.

Heavy Flow Of Traffic Considered

Travel Survey Stresses Need of Arterial Road Eastward of Broadway to Meet Thruway

State engineers are working on a plan that is expected to give the city a connection with the New York State Thruway and divert the heaviest flow of traffic away from the Washington avenue viaduct and Esopus creek bridge, J. S. Bixby, district engineer at Poughkeepsie said today.

"We are working on a plan that we hope will lead to a supplementary route" to take thruway traffic away from the narrow viaduct and bridge, Bixby said.

The engineer indicated that much work has been completed on the arterial route study in the city but said "we have not yet agreed on a final plan." It is proposed generally, he said, to build the connecting route at some point eastward from Broadway, but no definite location has been chosen to date.

Traffic Checked

A traffic count was taken here recently as an initial step in the arterial route survey and this apparently stressed the need of diverting traffic away from the bridge and viaduct bottleneck.

When first asked what the state intended to do about the viaduct, Bixby said, "We can't do anything about the viaduct, but the department is working on a plan for an arterial highway for the City of Kingston to connect with the thruway."

Meanwhile, work is progressing rapidly on the thruway in the area.

A. R. Erskine, thruway authority engineer, at Poughkeepsie, said that maps were filed with the secretary of state preparatory to start on the Whiteport-Ohioville section, and it is possible that work will start there within the next week or ten days.

To Finish Strip Today

John Arborio Inc., of Poughkeepsie, contractor for the Kingston-Sawkill section said the pouring of concrete will be finished today on that strip which soon is expected to open the way for through traffic between Kingston and Catskill.

The detour route along Route 28 where work is progressing on the traffic interchange is also being prepared for traffic and the bridge which brings the Sawkill road over the express highway is being finished.

Erskine said copies of maps are being delivered to property owners along the Whiteport-Ohioville section. Under state law, he said, work there may start at any time now because of the filing of the maps with the secretary of state.

Will Lose Homes

It was indicated that nine families in the Ohioville area are in the path of the route there. Some will lose their homes and others will lose sections of property, barns and other buildings near the point where the express highway will intersect Route 299 (the Highland-New Paltz road).

It is estimated that at least

Ives Says U.S. Faces Disaster If President's Plan Is Ignored

Washington, Aug. 27 (AP)—Sen. Ives (R.-N. Y.) told complaining Republicans today that if they and the American people generally don't support the Eisenhower Administration the nation may be "faced with complete disaster."

Ives' observation was made in letters in which he is replying to Republicans dissatisfied with high taxes and critical of the administration. It followed a blast by Rep. Hugh D. Scott (R.-Pa.) former GOP national chairman, against GOP "obstructionists" in Congress.

Scott named Sen. Malone (R.-Nev.) as one of these and Malone had this to say in reply:

"Time always determines who is right and who is wrong. I remember that Mr. Scott was a fine young man who was running the Republican Party at one time. I hope he will settle down and protect the interests of his country and I think he will."

Ives, one of the early supporters of President Eisenhower for the nomination last year, said in letters to constituents he believes "the President is doing a far better job than is generally realized."

"The cost of government in our country has been turned definitely downward," the New York senator said. "Our appropriations this year amounted to almost 21 billion dollars less than they were last year. . . .

"The fact remains that the New Deal administrations have gotten our country into a mess . . .

"To solve the mess we are in will require time and, unless the American people are patient and support the administration in the efforts we are making, the nation is faced with complete disaster."

Ives said that despite com-

Cpl. Gerard A. Francois, 23, of Jersey City, N. J., said 30 U. S. enlisted men and 15 officers have arrived in Kaeson after previously being sentenced by the Reds and told they would not be repatriated.

He said the 45 were told in Kaeson they will be freed—but only after everyone else.

Gilhooly Is Charged With Taking $1,500 From Fishkill Builders

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—James H. Gilhooly, 51-year-old fee appraiser and compliance inspector for the Veterans Administration, was under indictment today on bribery charges.

He was accused of receiving $1,500 in bribes from two builders in Fishkill, N. Y.

Gilhooly, a resident of Fishkill, works out of the Albany district office of the Veterans Administration.

The indictment, returned Monday, charged that Gilhooly received the bribes between May 20 and May 25, 1952 "with intent to have his decision and action on a matter at that time pending before him in his official capacity influenced thereby."

Charge He Got Checks

The federal indictment charged that Gilhooly received the alleged bribes in the form of two $750 checks from the builders, who had applied to the VA for certification making them eligible to sell property to veterans.

Maximum penalty for conviction on the charges is three years in prison and fines twice the amount of the alleged bribe.

Committee Acts After American Delegate Lodge Declares Soviet Makes Peace Impossible; U. S. Plan on 16 Nations Approved

United Nations, N. Y., Aug. 27 (AP) — The UN Political Committee today rejected a Russian proposal that the Korean peace conference be made up of six belligerent countries and nine "neutrals."

The vote was five in favor, 41 against and 13 abstaining. India did not participate.

The 60-nation committee acted after U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. had declared that Russia's attitude on the Korean parley, if persisted in, would "make peace impossible."

Called Threat

Lodge said Soviet delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky yesterday had made a thinly veiled threat that the Communists would boycott the conference unless they got their way in naming the participating countries. Vishinsky denied he had made any such threat.

The committee went on to adopt an American-backed proposal recommending that all the 16 countries who fought under the UN banner should take part in the conference if they desire.

On the question of the Korean conference, Lodge said:

"If the Communist side does not want a peace, there won't be any. It takes two to make a peace. If they do not want a conference they can wreck it."

British delegate Sir Gladwyn Jebb agreed with Lodge and said that, when he heard Vishinsky speak, he asked himself whether Russia actualy wanted a Conference.

Vishinsky denied that he had made a veiled threat about Communist participation in the peace parley. He said all he was saying was that the assembly should communicate its views to the Chinese Communists and North Korea and then consider their views.

This flurry delayed the voting temporarily.

The committee had before it the following major proposals:

Petition Move Ousted

New York, Aug. 27 (AP) — A move seeking to invalidate petitions designating Robert F. Wagner, Jr., in the Democratic primaries for a mayoral candidate was tossed out of court today. State Supreme Court Justice Edgar J. Nathan said only "tenuous grounds" were offered for invalidating the petitions, which also designate two Wagner running mates in the primaries. They are Lawrence E. Gerosa, for comptroller and Abe Stark, for president of the City Council.

Retailers Go Back to Fall Hours

Kingston retail stores which have been closing Saturday afternoons for the summer will resume regular hours this week, remaining open all day Saturday, it was announced today.

A spokesman for the group of stores—which includes many of the city's largest retail outlets—said today the last week in August was chosen as the time to resume regular hours because of the fact that Labor Day comes later in September than usual (Sept. 7).

The Saturday afternoon business hours will be accompanied by back-to-school promotions in many cases and the showing of fall and winter merchandise.

A large group of merchants agreed after much discussion early in July to close at noon or 12:30 p. m. on Saturday for the months of July and August. The agreement came after an earlier movement to close all day Mondays during those summer months was tabled.

New York Woman Spans Atlantic In Sports Plane

Shannon Airport, Ireland, Aug. 27 (AP)—Mrs. Marian Hart, 61-year-old American sportswoman, flew a single-engined sports plane nonstop across the Atlantic today in 13½ hours.

It was the first direct crossing in a small, single engined plane from Newfoundland to Ireland since the pioneering days of trans-Atlantic flight.

Mrs. Hart, from (11 East 73rd St.) New York, said she planned the flight to save the cost of taking the wings off her Beechcraft and sending it across by ship.

The project wound up costing her three times as much as it would have to ship the plane but it was worth it, she said, because "it was such a beautiful crossing in bright moonlight." she declined to say how much she spent.

A quiet observance of her birthday was planned.

East Approach Bids May Come in Sept.

Authority Expected to Get Plans From Engineer Within Few Days

A state source today foresaw the possibility of the advertising for bids for the clearing and rough grading on the eastern approach of the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge in September.

It is expected that the plans, prepared by the office of B. D. Steinman, bridge designer, and consulting engineer, of New York, will be in the hands of the New York State Bridge Authority within the next few days.

If the plans are approved, it is expected, that the authority, as it did with the western approach project, will authorize the state public works department as its agent to advertise for bids and award a contract.

May Start in Spring

It is expected that work on the piers and abutments will start next spring.

The bridge authority, headed by James F. Loughran, of this city, on Aug. 12 authorized a contract between the state and Philip Totonelly Inc., of Newburgh, who bid $156,452 to clear and rough grade the western approach.

Heavy Flow Of Traffic Considered

Travel Survey Stresses Need of Arterial Road Eastward of Broadway to Meet Thruway

State engineers are working on a plan that is expected to give the city a connection with the New York State Thruway and divert the heaviest flow of traffic away from the Washington avenue viaduct and Esopus creek bridge, J. S. Bixby, district engineer at Poughkeepsie said today.

"We are working on a plan that we hope will lead to a supplementary route" to take thruway traffic away from the narrow viaduct and bridge, Bixby said.

The engineer indicated that much work has been completed on the arterial route study in the city but said "we have not yet agreed on a final plan." It is proposed generally, he said, to build the connecting route at some point eastward from Broadway, but no definite location has been chosen to date.

Traffic Checked

A traffic count was taken here recently as an initial step in the arterial route survey and this apparently stressed the need of diverting traffic away from the bridge and viaduct bottleneck.

When first asked what the state intended to do about the viaduct, Bixby said, "We can't do anything about the viaduct, but the department is working on a plan for an arterial highway for the City of Kingston to connect with the thruway."

Meanwhile, work is progressing rapidly on the thruway in the area.

A. R. Erskine, thruway authority engineer, at Poughkeepsie, said that maps were filed with the secretary of state preparatory to start on the Whiteport-Ohioville section, and it is possible that work will start there within the next week or ten days.

To Finish Strip Today

John Arborio Inc., of Poughkeepsie, contractor for the Kingston-Sawkill section said the pouring of concrete will be finished today on that strip which soon is expected to open the way for through traffic between Kingston and Catskill.

The detour route along Route 28 where work is progressing on the traffic interchange is also being prepared for traffic and the bridge which brings the Sawkill road over the express highway is being finished.

Erskine said copies of maps are being delivered to property owners along the Whiteport-Ohioville section. Under state law, he said, work there may start at any time now because of the filing of the maps with the secretary of state.

Will Lose Homes

It was indicated that nine families in the Ohioville area are in the path of the route there. Some will lose their homes and others will lose sections of property, barns and other buildings near the point where the express highway will intersect Route 299 (the Highland-New Paltz road).

It is estimated that at least

Ives Says U.S. Faces Disaster If President's Plan Is Ignored

Washington, Aug. 27 (AP)—Sen. Ives (R.-N. Y.) told complaining Republicans today that if they and the American people generally don't support the Eisenhower Administration the nation may be "faced with complete disaster."

Ives' observation was made in letters in which he is replying to Republicans dissatisfied with high taxes and critical of the administration. It followed a blast by Rep. Hugh D. Scott (R.-Pa.) former GOP national chairman, against GOP "obstructionists" in Congress.

Scott named Sen. Malone (R.-Nev.) as one of these and Malone had this to say in reply:

"Time always determines who is right and who is wrong. I remember that Mr. Scott was a fine young man who was running the Republican Party at one time. I hope he will settle down and protect the interests of his country and I think he will."

Ives, one of the early supporters of President Eisenhower for the nomination last year, said in letters to constituents he believes "the President is doing a far better job than is generally realized."

"The cost of government in our country has been turned definitely downward," the New York senator said. "Our appropriations this year amounted to almost 21 billion dollars less than they were last year. . . .

"The fact remains that the New Deal administrations have gotten our country into a mess . . .

"To solve the mess we are in will require time and, unless the American people are patient and support the administration in the efforts we are making, the nation is faced with complete disaster."

Ives said that despite com-

Would Use Courts In Support Cases

Albany, Aug. 27 (AP)—The State Social Welfare Department proposes that local officials be required to seek court action against financially able persons who refuse to support close relatives on relief.

The department said today it was asking comment from local welfare commissioners on more than 40 proposed recommendations for changes in the social public welfare law.

One would require law enforcement officials to start proceedings against those who refuse to help relatives receiving or applying for relief. If no action were taken, the enforcement arm would be required to explain in writing to welfare officials.

The department also recommended that any applicant or prospective applicant for relief be permitted to start proceedings to force legally liable relatives to contribute to his or her support.

The department defined legally responsible relatives as husband, wife, father, mother, grandparent, son or daughter. It said stepparents were responsible for the support of minors.

While he was still a cardinal, Pope Pius X climbed Europe's mighty Matterhorn.

Calls Rift on India MalenkovTriumph

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt says the United Nations dispute over seating India at the Korean peace conference means "a substantial victory for Malenkov in his drive to split apart the free world."

Mrs. Roosevelt, speaking as honorary chairman of the pro-New Deal Americans for Democratic Action (ADA), said last night in a statement that the India dispute—no matter how it it decided—dramatizes "the self-isolation of the United States from its closest and most important friends and allies."

"American self-isolation in this particular instance," she said, "is due to the stubbornness of our spokesmen and inflexibility of our policy."

Parents Receive Globulin After 27-Hour Demand

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—Parents of 80 children received gamma globulin late yesterday to innnoculate their youngsters against polio, after a 27-hour demonstration.

The parents had demanded the whole-blood compound because a woman in a summer colony in Far Rockaway, Queens, was stricken with the disease.

They were turned down at first by city and state officials who said the supplies of gamma globulin must be held for more serious emergency needs.

On Tuesday the parents invaded the city health office and stayed their overnight to continue their demand for GG.

Late yesterday, vials of gamma globulin were passed out to the parents, with injections to be made by their own doctors.

Later, the health department announced new rules pertaining to distribution of GG. When a polio case occurs in a summer camp or boarding house, the department said, only those living in the same room with the patient for 24 hours or more would get gamma globulin.

Under the regulations, the department said, some boys at Camp Mann, the Boy Scout reservation near Narrowsburg, N. Y., would get gamma globulin inoculations.

Fred Rosen, 15, of (2713 Cold Springs road, Far Rockaway) Queens, was stricken with polio at the camp and brought to a New York Hospital.

Will Provide Injections

A department official said GG injections will be provided for the boys who were in the camp infirmary while Rosen was a patient and for those who had been his tentmates before he went to the infirmary.

The official added that the camp, with an enrollment of about 1,500 boys, would remain open until its scheduled closing later this week.

Another delegation, of five parents, appeared yesterday seeking gamma globulin for 400 children in the summer day camp of the Jewish Community House in Brooklyn. The parents reported that a 16-year-old junior counsellor at the camp was stricken with polio last Sunday.

Under the new regulations, the parents were told, day camp children were not eligible to get GG. After an hour and a quarter, the parents left the health office.

Decision Reserved On Poll Petitions

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Edgar J. Nathan Jr., reserved decision yesterday on a motion to invalidate the Democratic primary designating petitions of Robert F. Wagner Jr., for mayor, Lawrence E. Gerosa, for comptroller and Abe Stark, for president of the City Council.

Original basis of the action, brought by Sidney Wolchok, Bronx attorney, was the contention that the petitions bearing some 114,000 names were invalid because the late Edward J. Flynn, Bronx Democratic leader, who is listed as a member of the committee on vacancies, had failed to enroll in 1952.

The affidavits charged further that Flynn's given address of 2728 Spuyten Duyvil Parkway, the Bronx, does not exist.

However, at yesterday's hearing Jacob Markowitz, chairman of the Tammany law committee, conceded that Flynn had not registered in 1952 because of illness.

He also stated that for the past several years Spuyten Duyvil Parkway had been known as Henry Hudson Parkway.

The petitioner's attorney, Daniel M. Kelly, then argued to support his contention that on these admitted facts the designating petitions should be thrown out since they violated a section of the election law.

Owner Stolen With Car

Crookston, Minn. (AP)—Simon Ceballos, 55-year-old farm laborer, had his car stolen while he was in it. Ceballos was asleep in the back seat when a thief drove away with it. Some time later, the brazen thief awakened him and asked him to help fix a flat tire. Ceballos ran to a nearby farmhouse for help, but the thief drove away without changing the flat tire.

Memories Revived by Stalag 17

The movie Stalag 17, now playing at Reade's Kingston Theatre, revives memories of veterans, who were confined in German prison camps, among them these two World War 2 veterans, employed by the Kingston Glass Company, Ernest Dousharm, left, and Sam Donato. Dousharm, a sergeant in the 28th Infantry spent six months as a POW and Donato, who was with the Rainbow Division, four months, living on a bowl of soup and slice of bread a day. Stalag 17, which ran as a stage play on Broadway for three solid seasons, is brimming with such humorous incidents that kept up the spirits of Americans in the barbed wire pens. Starring in the comedy melodrama, dealing with an informer among the POWs, are Bill Holden, Don Taylor, Neville Brand and other well-known screen personalities. (Freeman Photo)

Decision Reserved On Poll Petitions

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Edgar J. Nathan Jr., reserved decision yesterday on a motion to invalidate the Democratic primary designating petitions of Robert F. Wagner Jr., for mayor, Lawrence E. Gerosa, for comptroller and Abe Stark, for president of the City Council.

Original basis of the action, brought by Sidney Wolchok, Bronx attorney, was the contention that the petitions bearing some 114,000 names were invalid because the late Edward J. Flynn, Bronx Democratic leader, who is listed as a member of the committee on vacancies, had failed to enroll in 1952.

The affidavits charged further that Flynn's given address of 2728 Spuyten Duyvil Parkway, the Bronx, does not exist.

However, at yesterday's hearing Jacob Markowitz, chairman of the Tammany law committee, conceded that Flynn had not registered in 1952 because of illness.

He also stated that for the past several years Spuyten Duyvil Parkway had been known as Henry Hudson Parkway.

The petitioner's attorney, Daniel M. Kelly, then argued to support his contention that on these admitted facts the designating petitions should be thrown out since they violated a section of the election law.

Owner Stolen With Car

Crookston, Minn. (AP)—Simon Ceballos, 55-year-old farm laborer, had his car stolen while he was in it. Ceballos was asleep in the back seat when a thief drove away with it. Some time later, the brazen thief awakened him and asked him to help fix a flat tire. Ceballos ran to a nearby farmhouse for help, but the thief drove away without changing the flat tire.

Memories Revived by Stalag 17

The movie Stalag 17, now playing at Reade's Kingston Theatre, revives memories of veterans, who were confined in German prison camps, among them these two World War 2 veterans, employed by the Kingston Glass Company, Ernest Dousharm, left, and Sam Donato. Dousharm, a sergeant in the 28th Infantry spent six months as a POW and Donato, who was with the Rainbow Division, four months, living on a bowl of soup and slice of bread a day. Stalag 17, which ran as a stage play on Broadway for three solid seasons, is brimming with such humorous incidents that kept up the spirits of Americans in the barbed wire pens. Starring in the comedy melodrama, dealing with an informer among the POWs, are Bill Holden, Don Taylor, Neville Brand and other well-known screen personalities. (Freeman Photo)

NEW PALTZ STONE HOUSES

Many visitors from the surrounding area will journey Saturday to New Paltz to view the famous stone houses built by the original Huguenot settlers more than 200 years ago. Residents of the town, many of them direct descendants of the Huguenot refugees, will help visitors turn back the clock and see the village as it was at the beginning of the eighteenth century.

Residents, dressed in treasured family heirlooms, will conduct guided tours down Huguenot street, known as the oldest Main street in North America. They will open the doors of the historic stone houses, six of which remain in the same sturdy condition as when constructed by the Huguenot settlers more than two centuries ago. Of special interest to this year's stone house enthusiasts is the recently opened Hasbrouck-Innis-Young room in the Jean Hasbrouck House, built in 1712. The eighteen-foot-square bedroom, whose chestnut beams were cut from nearby native forests, still has the furnishings brought through nine generations from early colonial days. The bedroom is said to be the most authentic antique room of its kind in North America.

The tour also will include a visit to the famous Bevier-Elting House, built in 1698, where visitors will be welcomed by a seventh generation Huguenot descendant, 90-year-old Mrs. Lanetta Elting Dubois. Her house, built by patentee Louis Bevier, is exactly as it was more than 250 years ago.

Visitors will see the famous New Paltz Fort, built in 1705, and the first frame house built in 1800 and now known as the Margaret A. Jamison Memorial, a community center for the youth of the village.

Ulster county residents, who have an awareness of an admiration for our background, will take advantage of this opportunity to visit these old stone houses.

REDS TRY SLEIGHT OF HAND

The world over, Communists try to practice this slick trick: They agree to do something in exchange of performance on the other side. But they don't deliver all they promised. And then they try to bargain anew and get something more merely for making good on their original promise.

That little tactic may be in the back of their minds now as they deliberately withhold certain American and Allied prisoners from repatriation. They promised to give up all prisoners. But they may believe they will be able to bargain at the coming political conference on this point, getting us to give more than we have so far.

The agenda of that conference is important, not only to a final Korean settlement, but perhaps to a wider Asian peace. Yet we should flatly refuse to take up a single item on the list until the Reds have delivered to us every prisoner they hold. We cannot be placed in the position of conceding something new to them in order to win back men they pledged to return at armistice time. There can be no discussion of new terms until the old terms are honored.

POOR PARTICIPATION

Fewer than 10,000 inhabitants of New York, one in every thousand of the city's inhabitants, constitute the entire membership of the half-dozen major city-wide civic bodies. The League of Women Voters, known in many communities for its helpfulness in keeping serious citizens informed, has but 3,144 members. The Citizens' Union, which ever since the 19th century has been watching New York's government and showing what is right with it and what is wrong, does little better, with 3,500 members. Less than 1,000 each belong to similar organizations such as the Citizens' Housing and Planning Council, the Regional Plan Association, the Women's City Club and the City Budget Committee.

New York City has 8,130,000 inhabitants, many of whom are rich. Yet less than 10,000 have enough civic spirit to join worth-while organizations like the above. This is a miserable showing. Other communities might well ask, "Do we do better?"

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE FOREIGN AID PROGRAM

When foreign aid was sold to the American people, it was to "promote the general welfare, national interest, and foreign policy of the United States." These are the phrases which appeared in the report of the Committee on Foreign Relations presided over by Senator Arthur Vandenberg. He asked Congress to authorize an expenditure of $5,300,000,000 for the first of a four-year operation. The object was "to help European nations to help themselves to recovery in such a way as to become independent of outside assistance."

This was in 1948 and the foreign aid program is still with us, amounting in this year's budget to $6,800,000,000 and totaling altogether approximately $60,000,000,000 for the short period of five years. The end is not yet in sight. In fact, the Foreign Operations Administration, headed by Harold Stassen, has been separated from the State Department and seems to have been put on a permanent basis. Maybe foreign aid is permanent, too.

When the American people first agreed to a $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program, they never could conceive that this would be such a monstrous growth, in time consuming so large a share of their earnings. But there it is for us to live with.

Senator Vandenberg's report included these statements:

"This kind of assistance, in peacetime, is without precedent in the history of mankind. This assistance is not, and cannot be, a permanent feature of American foreign policy. For Americans, the approval of this act represents a major decision. If Europeans fully understand this decision, they will realize that the United States is making adjustments almost as severe as they are likely to call upon each other to make. Above the details of the legislation, the debates, the statistics, and the work sheets, it is the expression of a great ideal of common welfare and peace. . . ."

The Europeans disappointed Senator Vandenberg's postulates. They have not assumed that we placed severe strains upon ourselves to aid them. Instead, they say that had we not required them to take great quantities of our goods, we should have had an economic disaster of great dimensions. Therefore, they did us a favor by taking our money; otherwise, we should have had unemployment of a least 10,000,000. I have listened to that argument ad nauseum.

The assumption that the foreign aid program would bring us friendship and allies has proved to be without foundation. Where are those friends? True, we lost the Korean War, but does that mean that the winner takes all? The conduct of Great Britain and Canada in the United Nations over the seating of Soviet Russia on "our side" gives the impression that it does. It gives an American the impression that Great Britain is vying with India to be Malenkov's broker in the United Nations.

The anti-American development in France and Italy could have been anticipated. In those countries, the Communist Party is enormous. The recent Italian elections make any government unstable and Togliatti, the Communist leader, is again speaking his mind freely on issues, because what he says counts. In France, Thorez, having returned from Soviet Russia after a 29-month absence, has achieved the goal of political strikes. In France, into which we have poured billions of dollars, little of our money percolated to the people whose standard of living is steadily falling.

In Japan, the situation is now very bad and it would be correct to expect much deterioration. The defeat of the United States in Korea imperils Japan. Certainly, when American troops are withdrawn from Korea, Japan must come to some agreement with Communist China and Soviet Russia. Otherwise Japan will be in danger of starvation, if not of invasion.

The Japanese want to trade with Communist China because it is important for them to get their food from that country, particularly rice and soy beans. Should Indo-China and Thailand fall to the Communists, Japan will have no alternative but to join them unless we accept the proposition that the United States will permanently make up Japanese deficits.

A report of this nature is not pessimism. It is precise reporting of developments which are taking place and which cannot be ignored. It is not enough that some top officials in Washington evaluate the situation accurately, if they do. The people of this country ought also to know the facts and realize that the foreign aid program has, from the American standpoint, proved to be a dud.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

EMPLOYMENT OF THE OLDER WORKER

It is only natural in these days when so many workers can look forward to the day when they can retire on pension that they should do much thinking or dreaming of the days of their retirement.

While most of us will agree that the idea of retirement is excellent, there are naturally many older men and women who can do their work as well as when they were younger. The added experience that comes with age enables them to turn out perhaps better work than when younger. The thought then is that while the general idea of retiring at a certain age in certain industries is good, it is hardly fair to a large number who are not old physically, mentally and emotionally.

In "Public Health Reports," Washington, D. C., Dr. T. G. Klumpp states that society has been quite illogical and inconsistent in its attitude toward the older worker. On the one hand, we have not objected to electing or appointing older persons to positions of greatest responsibility whereas on the other hand, we maintain unselective compulsory rules for the rank and file of workers; they must retire at a certain age irrespective of their condition mentally, physically and emotionally.

From an economic point of view it would be sound policy to permit older persons to work as long as they desire to work and are productive. Since a country's national wealth, purchasing power and standard of living depend on productivity, our economical situation is strongest when we have the largest number of active producer-consumers. The unemployed contribute nothing to the economy and place a burden on the active wokers who must support them either by direct contribution or taxes.

Generally speaking, the majority of men and women would sooner work than be idle. This was shown when, during the giving of the dole in Great Britain, most workers would sooner work a whole week for 30 shillings than remain idle and receive 25 shillings on the dole. This meant working a whole week for five shillings.

The suggestion is that methods must be devised of determining which persons are capable of working at 65 or 70 years of age. "A man is not fit one day and unfit the next because a page of the calendar has turned." A social rule that drops from work the fit with the unfit, which destroys the good with the bad, or which punishes the innocent with the wicked, is not a good rule.

Selective ability, not age, should guide employers.

A person of any age is better physically, mentally and emotionally as long as he produces something useful and mixes with fellow workers, sharing their sorrows and griefs. He knows and feels that he is an asset, not a liability, to his community.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

Washington (NEA) — One of the key sections of the mutual security pact which U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles negotiated with Republic of Korea President Syngman Rhee was the last paragraph. It says:

"There are no other agreements or understandings stated or implied resulting from these consultations other than those herein contained."

The purpose of this section, which lawyer Dulles put in, was twofold. It was to prevent criticism in the United States that some secret agreements were made with President Rhee. Also, it was to prevent President Rhee's government from claiming later on that the United States had promised other guarantees and then welched on them.

The text of this Rhee-Dulles pact was announced in Korea as soon as it was initiated by the two men for their governments. The job of making copies of the text for the press was then given to U. S. Army.

After they had been run through the duplicating machine, Assistant Secretary of State Carl W. McCardle looked one over to see if it was all right. Everything was in order up to the last paragraph. And there he found that the third word—that all-important "no" had been left out.

McCardle let out a yell. All the copies were called back and corrected by hand.

Colombian Freedom

The government of Colombia, South America corner, republic which went through a liberal revolution last June, has been arranging a tour for a group of American newspaper correspondents to show freedom of thought in the country.

The Colombian president, Gustavo Rojas Pinilla, first commander of Colombian troops in the Korean war, seized power to end the ultra-conservative program of former President Laureano Gomez. Pinilla promised democratic elections under complete freedom and an end to government censorship.

Because Colombia had been criticized in the United States for persecution of Protestant missionaries, the visit of American newspapermen was considered a good public relations move to show the new administration practicing full civil liberties.

Then, just as the tour was being organized, President Pinilla suspended publication of the newspaper El Siglo. Several of the correspondents decided if that was a kind of freedom of the press practiced in Colombia, they wanted no part of the trip, and cancelled out.

St. Genevieve Medals

For the first time since World War 2, there are a number of St. Genevieve medals jingling alongside the identification "dog tags" worn by members of the Women's Army Corps.

The idea for naming a patron saint for the WAC is attributed to Capt. Louise Godeon of Milwaukee. During the early days of World War 2, she took her idea to two artists who submitted several designs. From these Col. Oveta Culp Hobby—first commander of the WAC and now Secretary of Health Education and Welfare in the Eisenhower cabinet—chose one. With the approval of Cardinal Spellman, Catholic vicar of the military forces, the medal was struck.

It was St. Genevieve who saved the city of Paris from capture by Attila the Hun. This story appealed to the Army women. The slogan of the fifth century saint was also chosen as a motto for the WAC: "That which I have promised I will do."

Pope Pius and Colonel Hobby were among the first to be presented with a medal. Following the war, the medals became almost a collector's item. In response to many requests, however, the medals were reordered this year. They are available to any WAC who wants one through Army chaplains.

Getting Rid of Beria

Communist agents in Paris have gone on a book-buying spree, according to reports from correspondents of National Committee for a Free Europe. Object of the drive has been to buy up all existing copies of three works. They are "History of the October Revolution," in three volumes, "Minutes of the 19th Congress of the Communist Party in Russia, November, 1952," and volume five of the "Great Soviet Encyclopedia."

The reason for this search was something of a mystery until it was pointed out that all three works contained articles by or about Lavrenti Beria. The Soviet Encyclopedia, for instance, contained a long biography of Beria. It described him as one of the most eminent leaders of the Communist party.

By buying up and then burning all books like this, the Commies apparently hope to remove from history all evidence that Beria ever lived.

Manning the VA

Finding the man to head the Veterans' Administration caused the White House more headaches than any other personnel problem it has had since Defense Secretary C. E. Wilson was forced to sell his stocks.

After consulting all interested veterans' organizations right after inauguration, the White House finally came up with a list of 11 possibilities for veterans' administrator. But this list was quickly whittled down because of political unacceptability, lack of experience to handle this big job, or unwillingness to tackle it.

The list finally had one name left on it. This was another general. The White House didn't want any more generals appointed to civilian jobs. So another list had to be started.

The choice finally centered on Harvey Higley—Wisconsin manufacturer, Republican politician and American Legion official. Postmaster General Summerfield had tried to hire Mr. Higley, but when it was found his firm was selling fire extinguishers to the P. O. Dept., he had to be ruled out because he refused to sell his stock.

This didn't disqualify him for the VA job, however, and he was finally cleared. The appointment didn't go through until Mr. Higley and his wife were vacationing in Europe. He flew back from London to accept the post.

Fag Trouble

Just before Senator and Mrs. A. S. (Mike) Monroney of Oklahoma left Washington for their vacation, they were observed at a party passing out single cigarets—the senator in bulk from his pocket and Mrs. Monroney from her purse.

Noticing no pack was involved in this sample give-away, a friend asked what went on here, and got Mike's explanation:

The Monroney maid, finding a carton of cigarets which had been purchased for the vacation trip, had proceeded to open it up and fill every cigaret box in the house full, throwing away the packs. The Monroneys were just trying to use up the supply before they left town.

The God That Floats to His Temple

The temple of Tarakeswar in Benares, India, was deliberately so constructed that it would be under water for six months of the year. During the rainy season, the swollen Ganges river invades the temple and keeps it immersed. The temple is dedicated to the god Taraka, but the idol does not reside within the temple. Its abode is in a sacred pool outside. When the Ganges overflows the temple, it causes the idol to float into the structure, and they say that — Taraka is home at last. As the waters subside, the idol leaves the temple to return to its own pool.

Judge Picard Opinion Expresses Doubt About Constitution Protecting Silent Witnesses

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Aug. 27—Mail is piling high in the office of the Internal Security Committee of the Senate as the public asks for copies of its latest report, which for the first time pieces together the story of the Communist conspiracy in the United States.

It was mentioned the other day in these dispatches that copies of the new report could be obtained by writing to the Internal Security subcommittee but, through a telegraphic error, the room number was given as 413 instead of the correct address: Room 423, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C. As a consequence, the office staff of a senator who wasn't on the committee at all was unnecessarily bothered, for which this correspondent expresses regret.

It is significant, however, that the public is taking such a wide interest in the story of Communist infiltration. It is unfortunate that all the information necessary for a judgment of the devices used by Communists to deceive American citizens isn't immediately available.

Thus, for example, in recent weeks the Communists have undertaken to distribute copies of articles appearing in so-called "liberal" publications which attempt to advise individuals how to avoid testing before congressional committees by claiming immunity under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution.

Up to now it has been taken for granted that a mere refusal of a person to testify on the ground that to do so would tend to incriminate him would relieve him of the necessity of giving testimony. Federal Judge Frank A. Picard of Michigan is the first jurist to express a doubt whether the Constitution was intended to give such immunity to persons who were lying and could be proved to be liars. His comment was given in the case of Guss Polites, who admitted being a member of the Communist party until 1938, when he says he resigned. The issue was whether he had sworn falsely when he said he had not been for ten years before he asked for naturalization a member of an organization advocating the overthrow of the United States government by force. So the court naturally asked him if he was still "a member of the Communist party today." But he refused to answer on the ground that he didn't have to do so under the Fifth Amendment and that to answer would tend to incriminate him.

Judge Picard ordered the citizenship revoked, but he said he did not rule on the basis of the defendant's refusal to answer but solely on the evidence furnished by competent witnesses that Polites was in fact a member during the ten years and knew its purpose was to seek the overthrow of the American government by violence. But Judge Picard felt the occasion justified a comment as to the possible limitations which courts might consider some day with respect to the Fifth Amendment's immunity. He wrote in his formal opinion:

"There are those in this country who undoubtedly believe that the Fifth Amendment should justifiably be utilized whenever the occation presents This court does not impugn their sincerity. We only question the rationale of their conclusions. For the ordinary crimes prohibited by our Constitution or Acts of Congress —Yes. But we are not fully convinced it was the intention of the founding fathers that the Fifth Amendment should be available where one's loyalty to that constitution becomes suspect by refusal to answer a question of this nature. As stated in Brown vs. Walker, 161 U. S. 591, the amendment should not be construed 'to protect witnesses against every possible detriment which might happen to them from their testimony, nor to unduly impede, hinder or obstruct the administration of criminal justice.' So while this court permitted defendant the cloak provided by the Fifth Amendment, we did so with many misgivings. The shield may easily become a sword . . . .

"It must be remembered that the very oath which this defendant took at the time he became an American citizen required that he would 'support and defend the constitution and laws of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic.' Still he insisted at this trial upon exemption from testifying as to whether or not he is a Communist, even in the ligh of what we know about that party today . . .

"New conditions alter cases. The situation in the world is not normal. Security at home today demands trust in each other. As in times gone by, Cicero gave emphasis to pride of country by shouting 'I am a Roman', it is our opinion that all true Americans should be even more anxious to cry out, 'I am an American,' at every opportunity, and if denying membership in a certain organization is deemed the slightest aid to promoting our security, denunciation of membership therein should be considered a supreme privilege if not a duty, particularly when you have taken the oath which our Supreme Court has said 'relates to a state of mind and is a promise of future conduct.'

"In the case at bar, it is a paradox that this defendant seeks protection of the flag in an American court but evidently only long enough so that the party or philosophy in which he will not deny membership can destroy that constitution and trample upon that flag, robbing everybody else of the very liberties and freedoms of which he now takes advantage. His current refusal to testify is in our opinion more evidence of his fraud at the time he took the oath."

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

The so-called sick-chicken case, once famous but now almost forgotten, was a criminal prosecution of some petty New York live poultry dealers by the United States of America for claimed violations of the "code of fair competition" established under the National Recovery Administration. Hugh S. Johnson, the administrator of this reckless venture into absolute fascism, called it the sick-chicken case because one count of the indictment would have punished the defendants, by name Schechter, for selling a bird which was said to be "unfit." This was not the only type of crime alleged against the Schechters, but it was grotesque in proportion to its historic majesty. Thus it dramatized the noisy collapse of the Fascist structure. In an opinion delivered by the late Chief Justice Hughes, the Supreme Court held that even if the chicken in question was indisposed, the sale of this fowl in New York for consumption in New York was beyond President Roosevelt's power to forbid.

We have heard much about "liberals" and "liberalism" and "progressives" in the last few years. Recently, I thought I would refresh my own knowledge of this attempt to repeal our constitutional liberties by a sly, indirect action of the very plotters who now lay claim to these discredited titles. A "liberal" or a "progressive" is now a Fascist or Socialist whose political language is casuistry.

The NRA was passed by Congress in a hysterical mood at a time when Roosevelt's melodious voice held the population in a spell. As we have since learned to our reluctant amazement, Harry Hopkins, David K. Niles and Felix Frankfurter were planting their devotees in the bureaucracy, some of whom, notably Alger Hiss, among others, have since turned out to have been Communists and traitors. Hiss was a Frankfurter plant as he admitted with a show of anguish when Robert Stripling, of the House committee, insisted that he state for the record who his sponsor was.

There were actually public parades to hail the NRA as a grand economic and social cure-all. The mountebank Roosevelt waved his flagon of magic tiger-marrow-fat from the tail-gate of his wagon, and enchanted yokels in editorial offices, classrooms and pulpits scuffled to get theirs. Will Rogers produced a movie called "Stand Up and Cheer," in which little Shirley Temple, until then unknown but at her very best, did some dancing with Bill Robinson. This movie was sidelong ballyhoo for the fatuous proposition that we could git saved by hollering hallelujah.

The preamble to the law was a clumsy attempt to justify a surrender of the legislative power by Congress to Roosevelt, Johnson and the "code authorities." It said Congress hereby declared the existence of a national emergency," which burdens interstate and foreign commerce and affects the welfare of the people." Such inventions of the "commerce" and "welfare" clauses of the Constitution were to become a familiar trick. The author of the so-called Wagner Act, whoever he really was, knew the bill was unconstitutional of itself and therefore avowed a purpose to promote interstate commerce by abating "labor disputes," which was neither its intention

NEW PALTZ STONE HOUSES

Many visitors from the surrounding area will journey Saturday to New Paltz to view the famous stone houses built by the original Huguenot settlers more than 200 years ago. Residents of the town, many of them direct descendants of the Huguenot refugees, will help visitors turn back the clock and see the village as it was at the beginning of the eighteenth century.

Residents, dressed in treasured family heirlooms, will conduct guided tours down Huguenot street, known as the oldest Main street in North America. They will open the doors of the historic stone houses, six of which remain in the same sturdy condition as when constructed by the Huguenot settlers more than two centuries ago. Of special interest to this year's stone house enthusiasts is the recently opened Hasbrouck-Innis-Young room in the Jean Hasbrouck House, built in 1712. The eighteen-foot-square bedroom, whose chestnut beams were cut from nearby native forests, still has the furnishings brought through nine generations from early colonial days. The bedroom is said to be the most authentic antique room of its kind in North America.

The tour also will include a visit to the famous Bevier-Elting House, built in 1698, where visitors will be welcomed by a seventh generation Huguenot descendant, 90-year-old Mrs. Lanetta Elting Dubois. Her house, built by patentee Louis Bevier, is exactly as it was more than 250 years ago.

Visitors will see the famous New Paltz Fort, built in 1705, and the first frame house built in 1800 and now known as the Margaret A. Jamison Memorial, a community center for the youth of the village.

Ulster county residents, who have an awareness of an admiration for our background, will take advantage of this opportunity to visit these old stone houses.

REDS TRY SLEIGHT OF HAND

The world over, Communists try to practice this slick trick: They agree to do something in exchange of performance on the other side. But they don't deliver all they promised. And then they try to bargain anew and get something more merely for making good on their original promise.

That little tactic may be in the back of their minds now as they deliberately withhold certain American and Allied prisoners from repatriation. They promised to give up all prisoners. But they may believe they will be able to bargain at the coming political conference on this point, getting us to give more than we have so far.

The agenda of that conference is important, not only to a final Korean settlement, but perhaps to a wider Asian peace. Yet we should flatly refuse to take up a single item on the list until the Reds have delivered to us every prisoner they hold. We cannot be placed in the position of conceding something new to them in order to win back men they pledged to return at armistice time. There can be no discussion of new terms until the old terms are honored.

POOR PARTICIPATION

Fewer than 10,000 inhabitants of New York, one in every thousand of the city's inhabitants, constitute the entire membership of the half-dozen major city-wide civic bodies. The League of Women Voters, known in many communities for its helpfulness in keeping serious citizens informed, has but 3,144 members. The Citizens' Union, which ever since the 19th century has been watching New York's government and showing what is right with it and what is wrong, does little better, with 3,500 members. Less than 1,000 each belong to similar organizations such as the Citizens' Housing and Planning Council, the Regional Plan Association, the Women's City Club and the City Budget Committee.

New York City has 8,130,000 inhabitants, many of whom are rich. Yet less than 10,000 have enough civic spirit to join worth-while organizations like the above. This is a miserable showing. Other communities might well ask, "Do we do better?"

THE FOREIGN AID PROGRAM

When foreign aid was sold to the American people, it was to "promote the general welfare, national interest, and foreign policy of the United States." These are the phrases which appeared in the report of the Committee on Foreign Relations presided over by Senator Arthur Vandenberg. He asked Congress to authorize an expenditure of $5,300,000,000 for the first of a four-year operation. The object was "to help European nations to help themselves to recovery in such a way as to become independent of outside assistance."

This was in 1948 and the foreign aid program is still with us, amounting in this year's budget to $6,800,000,000 and totaling altogether approximately $60,000,000,000 for the short period of five years. The end is not yet in sight. In fact, the Foreign Operations Administration, headed by Harold Stassen, has been separated from the State Department and seems to have been put on a permanent basis. Maybe foreign aid is permanent, too.

When the American people first agreed to a $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program, they never could conceive that this would be such a monstrous growth, in time consuming so large a share of their earnings. But there it is for us to live with.

Senator Vandenberg's report included these statements:

"This kind of assistance, in peacetime, is without precedent in the history of mankind. This assistance is not, and cannot be, a permanent feature of American foreign policy. For Americans, the approval of this act represents a major decision. If Europeans fully understand this decision, they will realize that the United States is making adjustments almost as severe as they are likely to call upon each other to make. Above the details of the legislation, the debates, the statistics, and the work sheets, it is the expression of a great ideal of common welfare and peace. . . ."

The Europeans disappointed Senator Vandenberg's postulates. They have not assumed that we placed severe strains upon ourselves to aid them. Instead, they say that had we not required them to take great quantities of our goods, we should have had an economic disaster of great dimensions. Therefore, they did us a favor by taking our money; otherwise, we should have had unemployment of a least 10,000,000. I have listened to that argument ad nauseum.

The assumption that the foreign aid program would bring us friendship and allies has proved to be without foundation. Where are those friends? True, we lost the Korean War, but does that mean that the winner takes all? The conduct of Great Britain and Canada in the United Nations over the seating of Soviet Russia on "our side" gives the impression that it does. It gives an American the impression that Great Britain is vying with India to be Malenkov's broker in the United Nations.

The anti-American development in France and Italy could have been anticipated. In those countries, the Communist Party is enormous. The recent Italian elections make any government unstable and Togliatti, the Communist leader, is again speaking his mind freely on issues, because what he says counts. In France, Thorez, having returned from Soviet Russia after a 29-month absence, has achieved the goal of political strikes. In France, into which we have poured billions of dollars, little of our money percolated to the people whose standard of living is steadily falling.

In Japan, the situation is now very bad and it would be correct to expect much deterioration. The defeat of the United States in Korea imperils Japan. Certainly, when American troops are withdrawn from Korea, Japan must come to some agreement with Communist China and Soviet Russia. Otherwise Japan will be in danger of starvation, if not of invasion.

The Japanese want to trade with Communist China because it is important for them to get their food from that country, particularly rice and soy beans. Should Indo-China and Thailand fall to the Communists, Japan will have no alternative but to join them unless we accept the proposition that the United States will permanently make up Japanese deficits.

A report of this nature is not pessimism. It is precise reporting of developments which are taking place and which cannot be ignored. It is not enough that some top officials in Washington evaluate the situation accurately, if they do. The people of this country ought also to know the facts and realize that the foreign aid program has, from the American standpoint, proved to be a dud.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

EMPLOYMENT OF THE OLDER WORKER

It is only natural in these days when so many workers can look forward to the day when they can retire on pension that they should do much thinking or dreaming of the days of their retirement.

While most of us will agree that the idea of retirement is excellent, there are naturally many older men and women who can do their work as well as when they were younger. The added experience that comes with age enables them to turn out perhaps better work than when younger. The thought then is that while the general idea of retiring at a certain age in certain industries is good, it is hardly fair to a large number who are not old physically, mentally and emotionally.

In "Public Health Reports," Washington, D. C., Dr. T. G. Klumpp states that society has been quite illogical and inconsistent in its attitude toward the older worker. On the one hand, we have not objected to electing or appointing older persons to positions of greatest responsibility whereas on the other hand, we maintain unselective compulsory rules for the rank and file of workers; they must retire at a certain age irrespective of their condition mentally, physically and emotionally.

From an economic point of view it would be sound policy to permit older persons to work as long as they desire to work and are productive. Since a country's national wealth, purchasing power and standard of living depend on productivity, our economical situation is strongest when we have the largest number of active producer-consumers. The unemployed contribute nothing to the economy and place a burden on the active wokers who must support them either by direct contribution or taxes.

Generally speaking, the majority of men and women would sooner work than be idle. This was shown when, during the giving of the dole in Great Britain, most workers would sooner work a whole week for 30 shillings than remain idle and receive 25 shillings on the dole. This meant working a whole week for five shillings.

The suggestion is that methods must be devised of determining which persons are capable of working at 65 or 70 years of age. "A man is not fit one day and unfit the next because a page of the calendar has turned." A social rule that drops from work the fit with the unfit, which destroys the good with the bad, or which punishes the innocent with the wicked, is not a good rule.

Selective ability, not age, should guide employers.

A person of any age is better physically, mentally and emotionally as long as he produces something useful and mixes with fellow workers, sharing their sorrows and griefs. He knows and feels that he is an asset, not a liability, to his community.

Deeply Rooted for Centuries

Edson's Washington News Notebook

Washington (NEA) — One of the key sections of the mutual security pact which U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles negotiated with Republic of Korea President Syngman Rhee was the last paragraph. It says:

"There are no other agreements or understandings stated or implied resulting from these consultations other than those herein contained."

The purpose of this section, which lawyer Dulles put in, was twofold. It was to prevent criticism in the United States that some secret agreements were made with President Rhee. Also, it was to prevent President Rhee's government from claiming later on that the United States had promised other guarantees and then welched on them.

The text of this Rhee-Dulles pact was announced in Korea as soon as it was initiated by the two men for their governments. The job of making copies of the text for the press was then given to U. S. Army.

After they had been run through the duplicating machine, Assistant Secretary of State Carl W. McCardle looked one over to see if it was all right. Everything was in order up to the last paragraph. And there he found that the third word—that all-important "no" had been left out.

McCardle let out a yell. All the copies were called back and corrected by hand.

Colombian Freedom

The government of Colombia, South America corner, republic which went through a liberal revolution last June, has been arranging a tour for a group of American newspaper correspondents to show freedom of thought in the country.

The Colombian president, Gustavo Rojas Pinilla, first commander of Colombian troops in the Korean war, seized power to end the ultra-conservative program of former President Laureano Gomez. Pinilla promised democratic elections under complete freedom and an end to government censorship.

Because Colombia had been criticized in the United States for persecution of Protestant missionaries, the visit of American newspapermen was considered a good public relations move to show the new administration practicing full civil liberties.

Then, just as the tour was being organized, President Pinilla suspended publication of the newspaper El Siglo. Several of the correspondents decided if that was a kind of freedom of the press practiced in Colombia, they wanted no part of the trip, and cancelled out.

St. Genevieve Medals

For the first time since World War 2, there are a number of St. Genevieve medals jingling alongside the identification "dog tags" worn by members of the Women's Army Corps.

The idea for naming a patron saint for the WAC is attributed to Capt. Louise Godeon of Milwaukee. During the early days of World War 2, she took her idea to two artists who submitted several designs. From these Col. Oveta Culp Hobby—first commander of the WAC and now Secretary of Health Education and Welfare in the Eisenhower cabinet—chose one. With the approval of Cardinal Spellman, Catholic vicar of the military forces, the medal was struck.

It was St. Genevieve who saved the city of Paris from capture by Attila the Hun. This story appealed to the Army women. The slogan of the fifth century saint was also chosen as a motto for the WAC: "That which I have promised I will do."

Pope Pius and Colonel Hobby were among the first to be presented with a medal. Following the war, the medals became almost a collector's item. In response to many requests, however, the medals were reordered this year. They are available to any WAC who wants one through Army chaplains.

Getting Rid of Beria

Communist agents in Paris have gone on a book-buying spree, according to reports from correspondents of National Committee for a Free Europe. Object of the drive has been to buy up all existing copies of three works. They are "History of the October Revolution," in three volumes, "Minutes of the 19th Congress of the Communist Party in Russia, November, 1952," and volume five of the "Great Soviet Encyclopedia."

The reason for this search was something of a mystery until it was pointed out that all three works contained articles by or about Lavrenti Beria. The Soviet Encyclopedia, for instance, contained a long biography of Beria. It described him as one of the most eminent leaders of the Communist party.

By buying up and then burning all books like this, the Commies apparently hope to remove from history all evidence that Beria ever lived.

Manning the VA

Finding the man to head the Veterans' Administration caused the White House more headaches than any other personnel problem it has had since Defense Secretary C. E. Wilson was forced to sell his stocks.

After consulting all interested veterans' organizations right after inauguration, the White House finally came up with a list of 11 possibilities for veterans' administrator. But this list was quickly whittled down because of political unacceptability, lack of experience to handle this big job, or unwillingness to tackle it.

The list finally had one name left on it. This was another general. The White House didn't want any more generals appointed to civilian jobs. So another list had to be started.

The choice finally centered on Harvey Higley—Wisconsin manufacturer, Republican politician and American Legion official. Postmaster General Summerfield had tried to hire Mr. Higley, but when it was found his firm was selling fire extinguishers to the P. O. Dept., he had to be ruled out because he refused to sell his stock.

This didn't disqualify him for the VA job, however, and he was finally cleared. The appointment didn't go through until Mr. Higley and his wife were vacationing in Europe. He flew back from London to accept the post.

Judge Picard Opinion Expresses Doubt About Constitution Protecting Silent Witnesses

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Aug. 27—Mail is piling high in the office of the Internal Security Committee of the Senate as the public asks for copies of its latest report, which for the first time pieces together the story of the Communist conspiracy in the United States.

It was mentioned the other day in these dispatches that copies of the new report could be obtained by writing to the Internal Security subcommittee but, through a telegraphic error, the room number was given as 413 instead of the correct address: Room 423, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C. As a consequence, the office staff of a senator who wasn't on the committee at all was unnecessarily bothered, for which this correspondent expresses regret.

It is significant, however, that the public is taking such a wide interest in the story of Communist infiltration. It is unfortunate that all the information necessary for a judgment of the devices used by Communists to deceive American citizens isn't immediately available.

Thus, for example, in recent weeks the Communists have undertaken to distribute copies of articles appearing in so-called "liberal" publications which attempt to advise individuals how to avoid testing before congressional committees by claiming immunity under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution.

Up to now it has been taken for granted that a mere refusal of a person to testify on the ground that to do so would tend to incriminate him would relieve him of the necessity of giving testimony. Federal Judge Frank A. Picard of Michigan is the first jurist to express a doubt whether the Constitution was intended to give such immunity to persons who were lying and could be proved to be liars. His comment was given in the case of Guss Polites, who admitted being a member of the Communist party until 1938, when he says he resigned. The issue was whether he had sworn falsely when he said he had not been for ten years before he asked for naturalization a member of an organization advocating the overthrow of the United States government by force. So the court naturally asked him if he was still "a member of the Communist party today." But he refused to answer on the ground that he didn't have to do so under the Fifth Amendment and that to answer would tend to incriminate him.

Judge Picard ordered the citizenship revoked, but he said he did not rule on the basis of the defendant's refusal to answer but solely on the evidence furnished by competent witnesses that Polites was in fact a member during the ten years and knew its purpose was to seek the overthrow of the American government by violence. But Judge Picard felt the occasion justified a comment as to the possible limitations which courts might consider some day with respect to the Fifth Amendment's immunity. He wrote in his formal opinion:

"There are those in this country who undoubtedly believe that the Fifth Amendment should justifiably be utilized whenever the occation presents This court does not impugn their sincerity. We only question the rationale of their conclusions. For the ordinary crimes prohibited by our Constitution or Acts of Congress —Yes. But we are not fully convinced it was the intention of the founding fathers that the Fifth Amendment should be available where one's loyalty to that constitution becomes suspect by refusal to answer a question of this nature. As stated in Brown vs. Walker, 161 U. S. 591, the amendment should not be construed 'to protect witnesses against every possible detriment which might happen to them from their testimony, nor to unduly impede, hinder or obstruct the administration of criminal justice.' So while this court permitted defendant the cloak provided by the Fifth Amendment, we did so with many misgivings. The shield may easily become a sword . . . .

"It must be remembered that the very oath which this defendant took at the time he became an American citizen required that he would 'support and defend the constitution and laws of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic.' Still he insisted at this trial upon exemption from testifying as to whether or not he is a Communist, even in the ligh of what we know about that party today . . .

"New conditions alter cases. The situation in the world is not normal. Security at home today demands trust in each other. As in times gone by, Cicero gave emphasis to pride of country by shouting 'I am a Roman', it is our opinion that all true Americans should be even more anxious to cry out, 'I am an American,' at every opportunity, and if denying membership in a certain organization is deemed the slightest aid to promoting our security, denunciation of membership therein should be considered a supreme privilege if not a duty, particularly when you have taken the oath which our Supreme Court has said 'relates to a state of mind and is a promise of future conduct.'

"In the case at bar, it is a paradox that this defendant seeks protection of the flag in an American court but evidently only long enough so that the party or philosophy in which he will not deny membership can destroy that constitution and trample upon that flag, robbing everybody else of the very liberties and freedoms of which he now takes advantage. His current refusal to testify is in our opinion more evidence of his fraud at the time he took the oath."

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

The so-called sick-chicken case, once famous but now almost forgotten, was a criminal prosecution of some petty New York live poultry dealers by the United States of America for claimed violations of the "code of fair competition" established under the National Recovery Administration. Hugh S. Johnson, the administrator of this reckless venture into absolute fascism, called it the sick-chicken case because one count of the indictment would have punished the defendants, by name Schechter, for selling a bird which was said to be "unfit." This was not the only type of crime alleged against the Schechters, but it was grotesque in proportion to its historic majesty. Thus it dramatized the noisy collapse of the Fascist structure. In an opinion delivered by the late Chief Justice Hughes, the Supreme Court held that even if the chicken in question was indisposed, the sale of this fowl in New York for consumption in New York was beyond President Roosevelt's power to forbid.

We have heard much about "liberals" and "liberalism" and "progressives" in the last few years. Recently, I thought I would refresh my own knowledge of this attempt to repeal our constitutional liberties by a sly, indirect action of the very plotters who now lay claim to these discredited titles. A "liberal" or a "progressive" is now a Fascist or Socialist whose political language is casuistry.

The NRA was passed by Congress in a hysterical mood at a time when Roosevelt's melodious voice held the population in a spell. As we have since learned to our reluctant amazement, Harry Hopkins, David K. Niles and Felix Frankfurter were planting their devotees in the bureaucracy, some of whom, notably Alger Hiss, among others, have since turned out to have been Communists and traitors. Hiss was a Frankfurter plant as he admitted with a show of anguish when Robert Stripling, of the House committee, insisted that he state for the record who his sponsor was.

There were actually public parades to hail the NRA as a grand economic and social cure-all. The mountebank Roosevelt waved his flagon of magic tiger-marrow-fat from the tail-gate of his wagon, and enchanted yokels in editorial offices, classrooms and pulpits scuffled to get theirs. Will Rogers produced a movie called "Stand Up and Cheer," in which little Shirley Temple, until then unknown but at her very best, did some dancing with Bill Robinson. This movie was sidelong ballyhoo for the fatuous proposition that we could git saved by hollering hallelujah.

The preamble to the law was a clumsy attempt to justify a surrender of the legislative power by Congress to Roosevelt, Johnson and the "code authorities." It said Congress hereby declared the existence of a "national emergency," which burdens interstate and foreign commerce and affects the welfare of the people." Such invocations of the "commerce" and "welfare" clauses of the Constitution were to become a familiar trick. The author of the so-called Wagner Act, whoever he really was, knew the bill was unconstitutional of itself and therefore avowed a purpose to promote interstate commerce by abating "labor disputes," which was neither its intention

Be Moderate in Giving Signals

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

It is a well-known fact that the average inexperienced player makes too many defensive signals. This gives declarer too much information as to the location of the high cards.

A certain type of experienced player commits the opposite error. He tries to deceive declarer by making misleading signals. If the declarer in a good enough player, however, these signals are just as informative.

When today's hand was played in a recent tournament, West had two chances to hold Smith to the minimum. West could hardly be blamed for opening the clubs instead of hearts, but his later "misleading" signal was a serious error.

West opened the queen of clubs and declarer took the ace and ruffed a club at once. Declarer got back to dummy with a trump, ruffed another club, returned to dummy with a second trump, and ruffed a club for the third time. This established dummy's last club and left South with only one trump.

South had to lead out his last trump to draw the trump held by East. East had already discarded a heart on the fourth round of clubs, and since East was surely discarding from length, it was surely safe for West to discard the seven of hearts at this turn. Instead, West discarded the deuce of diamonds in the hope of giving declarer the impression that West's diamonds were worthless.

South might have gone astray without this message, but West's discard made the situation clear. South lead a low diamond from his hand and promptly put up dummy's queen when West played low. He could next cash dummy's last club, discarding a heart from his hand. His next step was to let the opponents win a diamond trick.

The defenders naturally returned hearts to dummy's ace, whereupon declarer could take the eight of diamonds for his 12th trick.

If West had saved all of his diamonds. South would have made only 11 tricks even if he had guessed the diamonds correctly. Moreover, if South had then misguessed the diamonds he would have been held to 10 tricks. The difference was quite important in tournament play.

YMCA News

All Kingston boys who wish to go on the YMCA's Catskill Game Trip Monday, Aug. 31, should register now with the YMCA youth director. This must be done not later than Saturday, Aug. 29. It will be held weather permitting and will be a YMCA supervised trip. Boys who are going will leave the YMCA at 9 a. m. by chartered bus and will return to the "Y" by 5 p. m. This will be the last chartered YMCA trip for this season and should be an interesting one for the boys who go. On all YMCA trips boys are advised to take their own lunches and money to cover any extra costs.

On Thursday at 3:30 p. m., there will be another YMCA educational tour for boy members. This tour will be through the Universal Road Machinery Corporation of Kingston and will be conducted by members of the firm. This tour should appeal primarily to boys who have an interest in mechanics or who plan to make the industrial field their future.

Last Monday boys from the YMCA went to DeWitt Lake with boating and swimming included.

12 Pass Pool Test

The YMCA's summer swimming program continues in the YMCA swimming pool. Many new Kingston boys have signed for swimming instructions. Recently John Chick, Robert Fisher, Thomas Riggins, Cornelius Kidney, George Dawkins, Jerry Proper, Albert Gruner, Dick Hoffman, Tom Peterson, Richard Treacy, Emery Vassak and John Cole all passed the YMCA swimming pool test. Boys who wish to sign for swimming instruction may do so as members of the Kingston YMCA which will give them swimming privileges for a 12-month period.

Voice Blasts Russia on PWs

New York, Aug. 27 (AP) — The Voice of America says the Soviet Union still holds more than three million prisoners of World War 2 and is using them for political blackmail. In its overseas broadcast to Iron Curtain countries yesterday, the Voice said: "The Soviet regime hopes to barter the lives of prisoners of war in return for political and economic concessions.  The North Koreans and Red Chinese Communists have lately taken a page out of the Soviet book."

Fourth Tour of Duty

Tokyo, Aug. 27 (AP)—The navy announced today the return of the cruiser Helena for her fourth tour of duty in Far Eastern waters since the start of the Korean war. At the end of the third tour last December, the Helena carried then President-elect Eisenhower and his party from Guam to Pearl Harbor following Eisenhower's visit to Korea.

Continuing, the NRA law said it was the purpose of Congress to promote the free flow of commerce and "provide for the general welfare by promoting the organization of industry for the purpose of cooperative action among trade groups." Congress also wanted to maintain united action of labor and management under governmental supervision. Congress had no right to "maintain united action of labor and management under governmental supervision." This was a Fascist innovation but this was 1933 and our people, always slow on the uptake, had not yet parsed and analyzed fascism, if, indeed, they ever have. Roosevelt and his cabal knew the true inwards of fascism, however, and they stole it from Mussolini with no fundamental change. As long as NRA refrained from choking castor oil and kerosene down the gullets of the schechters, it wasn't fascism to us.

The NRA provided that if one or more groups of businessmen in a given business applied to Roosevelt for a "code of fair competition," Roosevelt could approve such a code provided he did not "think" it promoted monopoly. He was to impose very complex and onerous provisions concerning "reports" and accounts to the NRA but he could also grant exceptions and exemptions "at his discretion." Remembering now the exploits of Elliott and Jimmy and of Truman's gang even without this tempting provision of NRA, my imagination falters at the splendor of the deals which could have been pulled under this presidential power to favor their friends or clients.

Once a "code" was approved by Roosevelt, its provisions became actual law for the industry concerned. In the end, this was the downfall of NRA. The Supreme Court held that Congress had a constitutional duty to legislate and was explicitly forbidden to delegate that duty to anyone. Actually, Roosevelt was not the one to whom the duty was delegated. The so-called code authorities were to perform that duty and Roosevelt was merely to ratify their suggestions. Already, by the time the thing blew up, profiteers had felt out the weak spots and defects and were muscling in to become grand Fascists. The union racket was expressly declared in on the deal and would have taken the same position here that the Fascist labor syndicates enjoyed under Mussolini.

I doubt that the present corrupt mentality of our higher education permits our young people to study this narrow escape from fascism which occurred when they were babies or yet unborn. They can find it in the papers and magazines and in the Supreme Court's unanimous decision but they won't bother to.

London, Aug. 27 (AP)—Employment in Britain went up last month—and so did wages. The Ministry of Labor reported that only 272,000 persons were out of work in Mid-July, 25,100 less than the previous month. Weekly pay increases totaling 207,000 pounds ($579,600) were handed out to 1,134,000 workers during July.

Aerial Aircraft Carrier

The Air Force announced in Washington that the giant B-36 bomber has been successfully converted into a flying aircraft carrier, which can launch and recover a jet fighter in flight. Shown above during tests, an F-84F Thunderstreak fighter makes a "landing" in the belly of the bomber miles above the earth. The F-84F is capable of carrying an atomic bomb. If necessary, the B-36 could haul the fighter some 4000 miles from base, then launch it for an atomic attack 850 miles away at a speed the lumbering bomber never could match. The bomber could remain in relatively safe territory to recover its fighter and take it home. (NEA Telephoto).

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

Sam Scudder loaned me some interesting items. Two of which are the Academy News put out by the Literary Society of Kingston Academy and printed at The Kingston Daily Freeman in Rondout. One is dated April 1884, and priced at five cents. It is Vol. L. No. 1. The other is November 1885, Vol. II, No. 6. They have two pages of advertisements. There was Nelson H. Souser, who dealt in fish, oysters, clams, fruits and vegetables at 43 John street. Geo. B. Merritt & Co. had his store of dry goods and carpets at 13 Wall street and 161 Strand, Rondout. L. S. Winne had his hardware store at 10 Wall street. R. H. Weeks had a boots, shoes and rubber establishment at 21½ Wall street. Clarke's Drug Store was on Wall street, no number given.

With fire escapes on private residences over a certain number of floors soon becoming a law it is interesting to see how they went about it back in 1884. There is an advertisement which reads "$2.50 complete fire escape, 50 feet, nine thread manila rope wound on reel, with staple fastening. Packed in neat box, 6½ by 6 inches. Weight three pouds. Heavier or longer rope and expressage, cost extra. James B. Robertson, patentee and manufacturer, 665 Union avenue, Kingston, New York." Folks who remember the famous old and large United States Hotel which was open for the racing season at Saratoga say that in each room there was a large rope, just in case of fire. Some people go through a long life without ever having to experience the fear of escaping from a burning house or going down a rope. I think it takes real experience and practice to be able to go down a rope, but no doubt in an emergency one can do most anything. Anyway, a rope in each room above the second floor is never a bad idea especially with many folks smoking and having oil stoves which sometimes take off suddenly. If the hallway is on fire, a fire escape down the hall doesn't help much, but a rope out of a window may aid one to get out of the burning building in time to be taken down by a ladder. At least it would give one a chance to reach the ladder. No doubt many Kingstonians owned Robertson's $2.50 fire escape ladder or rope. Perhaps some are still left in someone's attic around here.

In this little paper, under "Personal" I see "R. Randall Hoes has been for several years chaplain in the U. S. Navy, Class of '67." "H. W. Connelly is now taking French and German at the Academy, under Professor Resser, Class of '79." Also there is a little item under Salmagundi which tells about little mice that were becoming bolder and bolder and entering the school rooms when lessons were in progress, "much to the terror of the young ladies." They wind up the story by saying that one of the Latin students taking Cicero, found a tiny mouse-hole and stood before it making a long speech in Latin, since then the mice never came back in the school rooms. My Latin is not advanced enough to be able to translate the speech as given in Academy News, but it must have been good. It is now some 70 years since that paper came out, and to think, that at the time most of the writers on the staff, were in their teens. The written word certainly lasts a long time.

U. S. Marine Band Will Visit Here

Band Will Give Concert Sept. 26 At Field House

The 155-year-old United States Marine Band, the oldest military symphonic musical organization in the country, will visit Kingston Sept. 26 at the new Kate Walton Field House under the auspices of Ulster Detachment Marine Corps League and Joyce-Schirick Post Veterans of Foreign Wars as part of its presidentially approved tour of 12 states.

Sgt. Charles Awkerman, chairman of the committee, has announced that matinee and evening concerts will be presented, with musical works by the world's finest composers and stirring marches which have brought the Marine Band acclaim from visiting dignitaries of almost every country in the world.

The 1953 tour will carry the Marine Band 5,5000 miles through the northeastern and north-central sections of the country. It will open at Kennett Square, Pa., on Sept. 13 and conclude at Wallingford, Pa., Nov. 7.

Conducted by Lt. Col. William F. Santelmann, the Marine Band is known to millions of Americans through its two weekly coast-to-coast radio broadcasts, its frequent television appearances and its concert series in the nation's capital. The annual tours, which started under the direction of John Philip Sousa in 1891, have afforded Americans living outside the Washington area, an opportunity to see and hear the world-famous Marine Band, whose history goes back further than that of the capital city itself.

Familiarly known as "The Presidents' Own," the Marine Band has played for every inauguration since Thomas Jefferson's. Founded in 1798 by an Act of Congress, the band has played for all official functions in the nation's capital and all important history-making events in this country since that date.

The personnel of the Marine Band includes musicians carefully screened and selected from some of the nations leading symphony orchestras, high school and college bands. To be accepted into the band, an applicant must pass strenuous auditions on two instruments and undergo a rigid physical examination.

When the band apears here on Sept. 26, it will mark the first concert appearance of the colorful Marine musical organization in this community.

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Here's the meat situation this week, as summed up by an official of one of the country's large food chains:

"Lamb is a little lower, beef has started up again, and pork is still sky-high."

This sad state of affairs doesn't rule out weekend specials, of course. And while items like rib roasts have edged up a couple of cents in some stores, fair-sized reductions will be posted in others. Pork chops also show a mixed picture: they're up as much as 10 cents a pound in some sections of the country and down about four cents in others.

Prices Unchanged on Lamb

Leg of lamb prices are unchanged from a week ago to down around four cents a pound.

A number of food merchants have chosen smoked picnic hams and roasting and frying chickens as weekend specials, with price cuts of several cents a pound.

One meat specialist observed that beef prices ordinarily hold up pretty well until late September or early October, when a decline usually occurs, at least in the "good" grade. Choice grade beef may remain high, he added.

Egg prices continued to increase in many parts of the country, with boosts of one to two cents a dozen. Butter prices generally were left unchanged.

Most grocers gave prominent display to California seedless grapes and pronounced them an excellent buy. Also featured in the fruit department were peaches. Canteloupes and honeydews were other specials, although it was conceded that they were not in the class with grapes and peaches.

There were plenty of good buys in vegetables. Produce men named green beans, eggplant, onions, potatoes and peppers as good values. Cabbage, one market man said, "is really a bargain." Tomatoes were described as "an extra-good buy."

Lettuce, high in price in recent weeks, is getting into a more reasonable range, produce men added.

Unread Story

Norton, Kan. (AP)—How closely do people read their newspapers? The Norton Daily Telegram ran the same small story, on Charles Lindbergh, in seven consecutive issues, before a reader piped up. The editors noted wryly they'd have liked to describe the whole business as a readers' test—but admitted they hadn't noticed the repetition themselves.

There probably is no life, animal or vegetable, on the moon.

Band Will Give Concert Sept. 26 At Field House

The 155-year-old United States Marine Band, the oldest military symphonic musical organization in the country, will visit Kingston Sept. 26 at the new Kate Walton Field House under the auspices of Ulster Detachment Marine Corps League and Joyce-Schirick Post Veterans of Foreign Wars as part of its presidentially approved tour of 12 states.

Sgt. Charles Awkerman, chairman of the committee, has announced that matinee and evening concerts will be presented, with musical works by the world's finest composers and stirring marches which have brought the Marine Band acclaim from visiting dignitaries of almost every country in the world.

The 1953 tour will carry the Marine Band 5,5000 miles through the northeastern and north-central sections of the country. It will open at Kennett Square, Pa., on Sept. 13 and conclude at Wallingford, Pa., Nov. 7.

Panama hats, oddly enough, are not made in abundance in Panama. They are produced mainly in Ecuador where the particular type of straw used in their manufacture grows. The name "Panama" was applied because that was the original distributing center of the hats.

OFFICE CAT

(Trade Mark Reg.)

By Junius

Wife—Darling, would you like some tender chops, nice browned potatoes, string beans, and then some delicious apple pie with cheese?

Hubby—No dear, let's save money and eat at home.

Coat of Arms in Flag

Stars and stripes in the American flag were suggested by the coat of arms of the Washington family.

The irate judge asked the criminal.

Judge—Just what good have you ever done for humanity?

Criminal—Well, I keep three of four detectives working regularly.

Believe in what you undertake to do, for that is always the first step to achieve success.

Martin Drew, five, the fifth child in the Drew family, has a number five clearly visible on his left cheek. — Jerrine Drew, Somersworth, N. H.

Friend—Your wife drives like lightning, doesn't she?

Man — Yes — always striking trees.

We hear so much about billions and millions, it's hard to realize the relation is the same as between a thousand dollars and a million dollars.

Man—But why did you buy a dachshund for the children?

Friend—So that they can all pet him at once.

James McNeill Whistler and Oscar Wilde, the two best wits of their day—and neither above borrowing a good joke on occasion—were both attending a fashionable reception.

Tourist—Hey, uncle! How far is it to Lexington?

Native—I dunno, Mister; hit used to be 'bout 25 miles; but th' way things has gone up around here, may be near 40 by now.

Feeding a hungry world is wonderful; but shouldn't charity begin with a square meal apiece for models in the high fashion magazines?

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Smith, of Paris, Tenn., have 16 children and five grandchildren — all girls.— Mrs. Josephine Burton, Burlison, Tenn.

A person seldom repents talking too little, but very often talking too much.

Tim—What was the cause of the collision at the corner today?

Jim—Two motorists after the same pedestrian.

Mother and daughter were very busy with the wedding plans.

Bride-to-be—We have so much to do, we mustn't forget the most insignificent detail.

Mother—Oh, don't worry about him; he'll be there.

Leaves License Plate

The driver who struck the parked car of Albert Kish, of 201 Abeel street probably knows now that the police will catch up with him. The offending car, said a police report at 8:30 p. m., yesterday, knocked off a license plate. Police made a check on the plate number, however, and found that it was "not listed, to date." It was apparently not an Ulster county number. Kish said his car was parked at the curb on Abeel street near German street when it was struck.

Leaves License Plate

The driver who struck the parked car of Albert Kish, of 201 Abeel street probably knows now that the police will catch up with him. The offending car, said a police report at 8:30 p. m., yesterday, knocked off a license plate. Police made a check on the plate number, however, and found that it was "not listed, to date." It was apparently not an Ulster county number. Kish said his car was parked at the curb on Abeel street near German street when it was struck.

Ninth Polio Case Listed in Ulster

Ulster county's ninth polio case of the year was reported by the county health department Wednesday afternoon.

The patient, a 24-year-old New York city woman, is hospitalized in New York, the health department reported. She experienced her first symptoms while vacationing in Ulster county, but was not diagnosed as a polio victim until she had gone to a Sullivan county physician for treatment.

Investigation by Dr. Dudley W. Hargrave disclosed that she, her husband and child had been vacationing together in this county and had not had direct contact with other persons.

The new case brings the county's total since January 1 to five non-resident cases, with the number of resident cases remaining at four.

East Kingston Brush Fire Is Quenched

The East Kingston Fire Department yesterday quenched a brush fire that burned dangerously near a building owned by the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp., on Route 32 north of East Kingston yesterday.

Fire Chief James Costello, of the East Kingston department, said the brush started burning on the property of Herbert Wheelwright. The volunteer firemen used 500 gallons of water, Indian pumps and brooms in checking the blaze. They were notified at 4:25 p. m.

Tire Strike

Cleveland, Aug. 27 (AP)—The CIO United Rubber Workers Union struck the big Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. throughout the nation today. Negotiators failed to reach a new wage agreement before a midnight deadline.

Federal Income Discussed

Washington, Aug. 27 (AP)—Revised estimates of federal income and outgo for the current fiscal year ending June 30, 1954, were discussed at a cabinet meting today. Pending release of the figures for publication tomorrow there was no official comment. The cabinet session was the first since President Eisenhower left on his Colorado vacation Aug. 8. It was presided over by Vice President Nixon and lasted nearly two hours.

Workers End Strikes

Paris, Aug. 27 (AP) — French gas and electricity workers and coal miners ended their strikes and resumed work today. Scattered walkouts in private industries were left as practically the only remaining signs of the big strike movement. Both Communist and non-Communist unions told the miners and gas and electricity workers to go back. These were the last two big nationalized areas affected and the unions apparently felt that nothing was to be gained by the isolated action.

Agreement Is Signed

Vatican City, Aug. 27 (AP) — A new concordat was signed today at the Vatican between the Holy See and Spain, which have been without a full formal agreement since the Spanish Civil War. The concordat was signed in the Hall of Congregations at the apostolic palace by plenipotentiary representatives of Pope Pius XII and the Spanish chief of state, Gen. Francisco Franco. It heals a breach opened between the Holy See and Catholic Spain in 1931. 1931.

Wicks Committee Would Build Track In New York Area

Saratoga Springs, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Wicks committee today delivered a virtual ultimatum to New York Horse Racing Association to build a new, modern track in the metropolitan area.

Arthur H. Wicks, Republican leader of the state Senate and chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee investigating racing, said in a statement that the committee would "make one final effort to induce the existing associations to provide a new track, and, if that fails, other means of getting the track will be given immediate consideration.

The statement was issued after an executive session of the committee here.

Didn't Elaborate

Wicks did not say what "other means" would be employed to force compliance with its wishes.

For two years the committee has been urging the metropolitan racing associations to get together to finance and build a huge, modern thoroughbred horse racing plant near New York city.

The committee contends that two of the three New York city area tracks — Aqueduct and Jamaica—are definitely outmoded.

Reports have been published that the associations involved are reluctant to build a new plant unless assured of a greater take of the parimutuel betting handle. Their take in the New York city area now is 4 per cent. They are said to want 5.

Wicks' Statement

In his statement, Wicks said:

"Modern race track, in the view of the committee, is long overdue. As a possible means of accomplishing the committee's objective, the committee suggested that several of the existing associations consider merging or consolidating their interests and pooling their financial resources.

"In line with the committee's suggestions, three of the operating associations about a year ago appointed committees from their respective associations. While this group of track representatives has spent considerable time and money in an endeavor to formulate plans for a new, modern race track, it has not been able, despite a year's consideration of the problem, to produce any tangible results.

He's Disappointed

"The failure of the track associations to come forward with any definite, concrete plan for building a modern race course is a matter of great disappointment to our committee.

"For the protection of the State's interest in racing revenue and to assure the continuance of racing as a sport in New York state, it is imperative that our committee consider other alternative methods of getting a new track built. Accordingly, the committee will make one final effort to induce the existing associations to provide a new track, and if that fails, other means of getting the track will be given immediate consideration."

Wicks announced the committee had received a four-page telegram from Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri of New York city, urging that the city's right to impose a 5 per cent tax on parimutuel betting at Metropolitan tracks be restored by the state.

Wicks said the plea would be given "consideration" by the committee.

The committee said nothing about its investigation of the feasibility of off-track betting.

Opium Trade Heavy

Kuala Lumpur (AP)—Millions of dollars worth of opium is smuggled into Malaya by large, well-organized rings. Singapore in the south and Penang Island in the north are the "reservoirs" piping the contraband into Malayan towns, the Customs Central Information Office, set up to gather intelligence about the trade, has found. A. W. S. Sim, chief of the new office, said a blacklist of more than 8,000 persons believed engaged directly or indirectly in opium smuggling has been compiled. Sim said customsmen seized five tons of opium worth $2,250,000 in 1952.

Climb Is Foiled

Karachi, Pakistan, Aug. 27 (AP)—Death and injuries have foiled a nine-man American mountain-climbing expedition in its attempt to scale Mt. Godwin Austen (K2), the world's highest unconquered peak. Delayed reports from Kashmir yesterday said Arthur K. Gilkey, a 26-year old New York geologist, gave his life in the attempt.

Study Plan . . .

nine other buildings are in the path of the route between Whiteport and Ohioville.

John Arborio, Inc., of Poughkeepsie, and the Corbetta Construction Co., Inc., of New York on a joint bid of $11,487,197.65 were low in the bidding Aug. 6 at Albany for the Whiteport-Ohioville section of 10.21 miles.

Arborio, now completing the Sawkill-Kingston strip, also is the contractor for the Ohioville-Newburgh section, which is now under way.

Two Bridges in Plans

Two bridges are to be built on the Whiteport-Ohioville section; one over the Rondout creek in the Rosendale area and one over the Wallkill river near Perrine's bridge.

The new Esopus creek channel in the vicinity of Teetsel's Barn is nearing completion and footing is in for the bridge there. That section will also bridge two railroads and Hurley avenue.

The interchange system at Route 28 will be built by A. E. Ottaviano, of Croton, contractor for the Kingston-Whiteport section. Working with the contractor is the Brewster Construction Co.

Secret Ballots Start On Truckers Strike

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—Secret balloting on a contract proposal that might settle the 55-day-old truck drivers' strike which has crippled 600 million dollars in construction in the metropolitan area, started this morning in Beethoven hall, 210 East Fifth street.

Thomas L. Hickey, vice-president of the AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters in charge of the New York area, said shortly after 11 a. m. he thought about one-third of the 1,200 to 1,500 members of IBT Local 282 involved had voted.

Hickey was directed to conduct the balloting with a committee representing Joint Council 16 of the IBT and the local. Counting of the ballots was expected to be undertaken immediately upon closing of the polls at 4 p. m. today.

Births

The city registrar recently recorded the following births:

Aug. 18—Karen Ann to Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas William Kachura, Lake Katrine, and Sondra Jo to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Joseph Loeffler, 113 Fair street.

Aug. 20 — Michael Francis to Mr. and Mrs. John J. Naccarato, Colonial Gardens, and Linda to Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Scott, 479 Wilbur avenue.

Aug. 21—Kathleen to Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. O'Neill, 6 Hillsworth avenue, and Donald Chester to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Donald Freer, 14 Apple street.

Aug. 22—William Joseph to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Leonard Hoffay, 160 Tremper avenue, and Wayne Thomas to Mr. and Mrs. James T. Freer, Esopus.

Aug. 23 — Roger Paul to Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Adels, Boiceville, and Thomas Charles to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Goss, Tillson.

Aug. 24 — Lawrence Elbert to Mr. and Mrs. David Langston Dodge, New Paltz.

Cullum May Leave

Sgt. James Cullum of the local police department, who has been on a six months' leave of absence is not expected to return, it was learned today. Police Chief Raymond Van Buren indicated that he does not expect Cullum to return and that will leave a vacancy on the department. The former sergeant is now employed as an investigator for a state department and works out of Albany.

No Mail Call

Mildenhall, England (AP) — Mail call is a thing of the past at the modern American air force supply base here. Instead of lining up for letters from home each man now looks in at his own personal mailbox, complete with a four-combination lock. The men can now pick up their mail at any hour of the day or night, without having to shuffle off from work early to be first in line for the handout.

In Army Now

Indianapolis, Aug. 27 (AP)—John V. Beamer, Jr., 24, whose draft board resigned with a charge that his congressman father used influence to get him deferred, is in the army now. Beamer was inducted yesterday, along with seven other young men from Wabash county, in a group of 35. The young man's father, Rep. Beamer, a Republican, insisted the charge of influence was nothing but a political attack.

More POWs . . .

of 3,313 U. S. prisoners promised.

Americans remaining in North Korean stockades include a large number of officers, headed by the Communists' prize captive—Maj. Gen. William F. Dean.

There still was no official word where Dean was being held or when he would be repatriated.

The Reds obviously are holding most U. S. officers until the final days of the exchange. Relatively few have been repatriated in the first 23 days of swapping at this wayside village.

The 10 officers who returned Thursday included two air force men, all presumably from the mysterious Camp 2 for officers and airmen.

Red Cross Is Barred

The Communists barred Red Cross teams from the camp on inspection tours, raising allied concern for the 470 allied officers —391 of them Americans — the Reds reported there.

The fears grew as repatriates told a barbarous treatment given the airmen and the phony jail sentences.

The 150 Americans delivered Thursday rode down from the Red grouping center at Kaesong subdued but smiling brightly. Most of them appeared healthy after their long trips that began at Camps 1, 2 and 3 near the Yalu river border of Manchuria.

One red-haired American let out a rebel yell as he scrambled from a truck.

Going the other way, 2,400 North Koreans sang and answered with their own yells.

See Release for All

The three repatriated Americans who had been feared left behind—Guidetti, Reilly and Vadala —said they believed all prisoners would be repatriated.

"All of those guys are in Kaeson in a special place where we were held," Reilly said.

One added:

"We were eight balls. We wouldn't go along with the Commies."

Another American freed Thursday, Sgt. James H. Shartzer, Jr., 21, of St. Louis, said he and 15 other Americans captured in late 1950 were taken at Antung, Manchuria, for three days. He said several officers in the group were questioned by Russians.

Three Rob Bank Employes

East Rutherford, N. J., Aug. 27 (AP) — Three fast-working bandits snatched an undetermined amount of cash from two Rutherford National Bank employes today and wounded one of them who tried to block their escape. Bank officials indicated the loot might run as high as five figures. There was one unconfirmed report it might run to $37,000. The holdup took place in front of the bank's branch office at the busy intersection of Paterson avenue and Park street around 10:30 a. m.

Vetterlein made the trip on a busman's holiday basis, while taking a few days off from his regular job as co-pilot with Pan American Airways.

"The boss told me to go off on my globe trotting but to be back in New York for my flight next Tuesday," he said.

Delicious With Cold Cuts

Whipped potatoes taste so delicious with cold cuts. It's handy to remember that you'll need from one-third to one-half cup of milk and a quarter cup of butter or margarine for eight medium-size potatoes. Heat the milk and butter and slowly beat into the cooked mashed spuds. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Ninth Polio Case Listed in Ulster

Ulster county's ninth polio case of the year was reported by the county health department Wednesday afternoon.

The patient, a 24-year-old New York city woman, is hospitalized in New York, the health department reported. She experienced her first symptoms while vacationing in Ulster county, but was not diagnosed as a polio victim until she had gone to a Sullivan county physician for treatment.

Investigation by Dr. Dudley W. Hargrave disclosed that she, her husband and child had been vacationing together in this county and had not had direct contact with other persons.

The new case brings the county's total since January 1 to five non-resident cases, with the number of resident cases remaining at four.

East Kingston Brush Fire Is Quenched

The East Kingston Fire Department yesterday quenched a brush fire that burned dangerously near a building owned by the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp., on Route 32 north of East Kingston yesterday.

Fire Chief James Costello, of the East Kingston department, said the brush started burning on the property of Herbert Wheelwright. The volunteer firemen used 500 gallons of water, Indian pumps and brooms in checking the blaze. They were notified at 4:25 p. m.

Federal Income Discussed

Washington, Aug. 27 (AP)—Revised estimates of federal income and outgo for the current fiscal year ending June 30, 1954, were discussed at a cabinet meting today. Pending release of the figures for publication tomorrow there was no official comment. The cabinet session was the first since President Eisenhower left on his Colorado vacation Aug. 8. It was presided over by Vice President Nixon and lasted nearly two hours.

Workers End Strikes

Paris, Aug. 27 (AP) — French gas and electricity workers and coal miners ended their strikes and resumed work today. Scattered walkouts in private industries were left as practically the only remaining signs of the big strike movement. Both Communist and non-Communist unions told the miners and gas and electricity workers to go back. These were the last two big nationalized areas affected and the unions apparently felt that nothing was to be gained by the isolated action.

Agreement Is Signed

Vatican City, Aug. 27 (AP) — A new concordat was signed today at the Vatican between the Holy See and Spain, which have been without a full formal agreement since the Spanish Civil War. The concordat was signed in the Hall of Congregations at the apostolic palace by plenipotentiary representatives of Pope Pius XII and the Spanish chief of state, Gen. Francisco Franco. It heals a breach opened between the Holy See and Catholic Spain in 1931. 1931.

Wicks Committee Would Build Track In New York Area

Saratoga Springs, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Wicks committee today delivered a virtual ultimatum to New York Horse Racing Association to build a new, modern track in the metropolitan area.

Arthur H. Wicks, Republican leader of the state Senate and chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee investigating racing, said in a statement that the committee would "make one final effort to induce the existing associations to provide a new track, and, if that fails, other means of getting the track will be given immediate consideration.

The statement was issued after an executive session of the committee here.

Didn't Elaborate

Wicks did not say what "other means" would be employed to force compliance with its wishes.

For two years the committee has been urging the metropolitan racing associations to get together to finance and build a huge, modern thoroughbred horse racing plant near New York city.

The committee contends that two of the three New York city area tracks — Aqueduct and Jamaica—are definitely outmoded.

Reports have been published that the associations involved are reluctant to build a new plant unless assured of a greater take of the parimutuel betting handle. Their take in the New York city area now is 4 per cent. They are said to want 5.

Wicks' Statement

In his statement, Wicks said:

"Modern race track, in the view of the committee, is long overdue. As a possible means of accomplishing the committee's objective, the committee suggested that several of the existing associations consider merging or consolidating their interests and pooling their financial resources.

"In line with the committee's suggestions, three of the operating associations about a year ago appointed committees from their respective associations. While this group of track representatives has spent considerable time and money in an endeavor to formulate plans for a new, modern race track, it has not been able, despite a year's consideration of the problem, to produce any tangible results.

He's Disappointed

"The failure of the track associations to come forward with any definite, concrete plan for building a modern race course is a matter of great disappointment to our committee.

"For the protection of the State's interest in racing revenue and to assure the continuance of racing as a sport in New York state, it is imperative that our committee consider other alternative methods of getting a new track built. Accordingly, the committee will make one final effort to induce the existing associations to provide a new track, and if that fails, other means of getting the track will be given immediate consideration."

Wicks announced the committee had received a four-page telegram from Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri of New York city, urging that the city's right to impose a 5 per cent tax on parimutuel betting at Metropolitan tracks be restored by the state.

Wicks said the plea would be given "consideration" by the committee.

The committee said nothing about its investigation of the feasibility of off-track betting.

Opium Trade Heavy

Kuala Lumpur (AP)—Millions of dollars worth of opium is smuggled into Malaya by large, well-organized rings. Singapore in the south and Penang Island in the north are the "reservoirs" piping the contraband into Malayan towns, the Customs Central Information Office, set up to gather intelligence about the trade, has found. A. W. S. Sim, chief of the new office, said a blacklist of more than 8,000 persons believed engaged directly or indirectly in opium smuggling has been compiled. Sim said customsmen seized five tons of opium worth $2,250,000 in 1952.

Climb Is Foiled

Karachi, Pakistan, Aug. 27 (AP) —Death and injuries have foiled a nine-man American mountain-climbing expedition in its attempt to scale Mt. Godwin Austen (K2), the world's highest unconquered peak. Delayed reports from Kashmir yesterday said Arthur K. Gilkey, a 26-year old New York geologist, gave his life in the attempt.

nine other buildings are in the path of the route between Whiteport and Ohioville.

John Arborio, Inc., of Poughkeepsie, and the Corbetta Construction Co., Inc., of New York on a joint bid of $11,487,197.65 were low in the bidding Aug. 6 at Albany for the Whiteport-Ohioville section of 10.21 miles.

Arborio, now completing the Sawkill-Kingston strip, also is the contractor for the Ohioville-Newburgh section, which is now under way.

Two Bridges in Plans

Two bridges are to be built on the Whiteport-Ohioville section; one over the Rondout creek in the Rosendale area and one over the Wallkill river near Perrine's bridge.

The new Esopus creek channel in the vicinity of Teetsel's Barn is nearing completion and footing is in for the bridge there. That section will also bridge two railroads and Hurley avenue.

The interchange system at Route 28 will be built by A. E. Ottaviano, of Croton, contractor for the Kingston-Whiteport section. Working with the contractor is the Brewster Construction Co.

Secret Ballots Start On Truckers Strike

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—Secret balloting on a contract proposal that might settle the 55-day-old truck drivers' strike which has crippled 600 million dollars in construction in the metropolitan area, started this morning in Beethoven hall, 210 East Fifth street.

Thomas L. Hickey, vice-president of the AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters in charge of the New York area, said shortly after 11 a. m. he thought about one-third of the 1,200 to 1,500 members of IBT Local 282 involved had voted.

Hickey was directed to conduct the balloting with a committee representing Joint Council 16 of the IBT and the local. Counting of the ballots was expected to be undertaken immediately upon closing of the polls at 4 p. m. today.

Cullum May Leave

Sgt. James Cullum of the local police department, who has been on a six months' leave of absence is not expected to return, it was learned today. Police Chief Raymond Van Buren indicated that he does not expect Cullum to return and that will leave a vacancy on the department. The former sergeant is now employed as an investigator for a state department and works out of Albany.

No Mail Call

Mildenhall, England (AP) — Mail call is a thing of the past at the modern American air force supply base here. Instead of lining up for letters from home each man now looks in at his own personal mailbox, complete with a four-combination lock. The men can now pick up their mail at any hour of the day or night, without having to shuffle off from work early to be first in line for the handout.

In Army Now

Indianapolis, Aug. 27 (AP)—John V. Beamer, Jr., 24, whose draft board resigned with a charge that his congressman father used influence to get him deferred, is in the army now. Beamer was inducted yesterday, along with seven other young men from Wabash county, in a group of 35. The young man's father, Rep. Beamer, a Republican, insisted the charge of influence was nothing but a political attack.

More POWs . . .

of 3,313 U. S. prisoners promised.

Americans remaining in North Korean stockades include a large number of officers, headed by the Communists' prize captive—Maj. Gen. William F. Dean.

There still was no official word where Dean was being held or when he would be repatriated.

The Reds obviously are holding most U. S. officers until the final days of the exchange. Relatively few have been repatriated in the first 23 days of swapping at this wayside village.

The 10 officers who returned Thursday included two air force men, all presumably from the mysterious Camp 2 for officers and airmen.

Red Cross Is Barred

The Communists barred Red Cross teams from the camp on inspection tours, raising allied concern for the 470 allied officers —391 of them Americans — the Reds reported there.

The fears grew as repatriates told a barbarous treatment given the airmen and the phony jail sentences.

The 150 Americans delivered Thursday rode down from the Red grouping center at Kaesong subdued but smiling brightly. Most of them appeared healthy after their long trips that began at Camps 1, 2 and 3 near the Yalu river border of Manchuria.

One red-haired American let out a rebel yell as he scrambled from a truck.

Going the other way, 2,400 North Koreans sang and answered with their own yells.

See Release for All

The three repatriated Americans who had been feared left behind—Guidetti, Reilly and Vadala —said they believed all prisoners would be repatriated.

"All of those guys are in Kaeson in a special place where we were held," Reilly said.

One added:

"We were eight balls. We wouldn't go along with the Commies."

Another American freed Thursday, Sgt. James H. Shartzer, Jr., 21, of St. Louis, said he and 15 other Americans captured in late 1950 were taken at Antung, Manchuria, for three days. He said several officers in the group were questioned by Russians.

Three Rob Bank Employes

East Rutherford, N. J., Aug. 27 (AP) — Three fast-working bandits snatched an undetermined amount of cash from two Rutherford National Bank employes today and wounded one of them who tried to block their escape. Bank officials indicated the loot might run as high as five figures. There was one unconfirmed report it might run to $37,000. The holdup took place in front of the bank's branch office at the busy intersection of Paterson avenue and Park street around 10:30 a. m.

New York Woman

arrived here an hour behind schedule, but still had enough fuel left for 3½ hours of flying.

Vetterlein made the trip on a busman's holiday basis, while taking a few days off from his regular job as co-pilot with Pan American Airways.

"The boss told me to go off on my globe trotting but to be back in New York for my flight next Tuesday," he said.

"I plan to remain here and catch a plane back to the United States tomorrow."

Delicious With Cold Cuts

Whipped potatoes taste so delicious with cold cuts. It's handy to remember that you'll need from one-third to one-half cup of milk and a quarter cup of butter or margarine for eight medium-size potatoes. Heat the milk and butter and slowly beat into the cooked mashed spuds. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Humphrey Says U. S. Studies Tax for Defense

Washington, Aug. 27 (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey says that "if we have to increase defense spending, we can increase taxes to meet these expenditures."

But he added, in an ABC radio interview last night, that he did not think there is yet any need for increased outlays for defense.

Regardless of the expense, he declared, the nation will have adequate defense.

"I hope we don't have to increase taxes," he continued. He said all means of taxation, including sales and manufacturing taxes, were being studied.

Humphrey said he did not think Congress would be called into special session to raise the 275 billion dollar debt, which it refused earlier this year to hike to 290 billion, although the national debt was 2½ billion dollars from the ceiling.

The secretary said the cost of living figures announced yesterday by the Bureau of Labor Statistics—a record high for the second straight month, though by a narrow margin—actually indicated a leveling off. He said there had been "only one-half of one per cent rise . . . in a whole year" and attributed the "leveling off" to what he called the administration's sound money policy.

The Mediterranean cockroach usually lives outdoors, entering houses at night.

Call for Boycott

Beirut, Lebanon, Aug. 27 (AP)—Arab Nationalist leaders have called on the Lebanese government to enforce an economic boycott against France if the Paris government refuses to reinstate the deposed Sultan of Morocco. The demands were voiced at a series of anti-French mass meetings in Beirut and Tripoli last night.

ZionistsOpposeAid To Hostile Arabs

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—The president of the Zionist Organization of America says it opposes U. S. military aid to Arab states until they agree to make peace with Israel.

The ZOA's head, Rabbi Irving Miller, spoke last night at the opening of the organization's 56th annual convention.

"We are unalterably opposed to the supply of arms to any of the Arab states as long as they persist in their refusal to make peace with Israel and continue to threaten renewed warfare," Miller said.

Wallkill

Wallkill, Aug. 26—Mr. and Mrs. George Brach entertained friends at a chicken barbecue recently. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Harris and son, Tommy, Miss Mary Ellen Wendover of Tenafly, N. J., Miss Norma Sanchez of Ecuador, South America and Miss Margaret Brach who were all on the staff at Camp Wendy for two weeks, and Mr. and Mrs. Brach and their two children, Carol and James.

Mrs. Mary Emma Allen of New York enjoyed the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Macy Van Wagenen, visiting otld friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Watson of New York spent the weekend at Wallkill at their summer home here.

Mrs. Sam Woodbridge left Friday from Poughkeepsie for Seattle, Wash., on the first lap of a tour of Alaska. She expects to be gone for a month and will proceed by boat from the West coast to the many points of interest in Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terwilliger and sons, Robert and Edward, spent Thursday at the home of Mr. Terwilliger's aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hill of Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Seeley and son, E. D. are vacationing at Lake Wanasink.

Raymond Playne and granddaughter, Kathy Playne of Port Jervis, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Morris and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dunn and children, Robert and Nancy of Schenectady, were weekend guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Dunn.

Mrs. Hilda Woodbridge, Mrs. Addison Crowell, and Mrs. Benjamin Kreiton enjoyed lunch in Poughkeepsie Friday.

A surprise stork shower was held at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Valenza for Mrs. Marion Wydra recently. Mrs. Valenza and Mrs. Louise Scarzello were the hostesses. Those attending were Mrs. Valenza, Mrs. Scarzello, Mrs. Wydra, Mrs. Agnes Curesky, Mrs. Doris Ross, Mrs. Margaret Mack, Mrs. Anna Popiel, Mrs. Edith Bruhlman, Mrs. Helen Palen, Mrs. Vera Prisco, and Miss Lettie VandeMark, all of Wallkill. Wallkill Reformed Church notes: Choir rehearsal will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m., at the church. At 11 a. m., Sunday, S. Garrett Short, a student of New Brunswick Seminary, will occupy the pulpit at the Wallkill Reformed Church. The choir will present special music under the direction of Mrs. Hubert Hendrie. This will be the last guest minister for the month, and on Sunday, Sept. 6, Walter Van Popering will return from his vacation and deliver the sermon. There will be a meeting of the teachers and officers of the Sunday school at the church hall Friday, Aug. 28, at 8 p. m. All teachers and officers are requested to attend. This will be the re-organization meeting for the fall session of Sunday school. Sunday school will resume at 10 a. m. Sunday, Sept. 6 at the church.

Committees for the annual fair and turkey supper sponsored by the Willing Workers of the Wallkill Reformed Church have been named by Mrs. Macey Van Wagenen, president, as follows: Mrs. E. Lester Mack, general chairman; Mrs. Joseph W. Morris and Miss Mary L. DuBois, dining room; Mrs. Erna Mahlandt and Mrs. Macey Van Wagenen, kitchen and supper; Mrs. Harry W. Dunn, tickets, and Mrs. Daniel DuBois, publicity. Committees for the fair booths are: Mrs. L. C. Edsall and Mrs. William Wager, aprons; Mrs. Herbert DuBois, food; Mrs. Claude L. Decker, Mrs. George Geyer, handkerchiefs; Mrs. George Brach, utility; Mrs. Thomas Bellarosa and Mrs. Russell Hammesfahr, candy; Mrs. Louisa Parliman, miscellaneous; Mrs. Edmund C. Cooper, leather and craft. The fair will be held Wednesday, Oct. 14, at the church hall.

Firemen of the Wallkill Company are reminded that they must be at the firehouse, Sept. 3 and 4, between 6 and 8 p. m. for fitting of uniforms, for the parade and celebration of the 50 years of service to be held Sept. 5. The regular meeting of the fire company has been postponed from Sept. 7 to Sept. 14.

Skunks Tax Cafe

Jonesboro, Tenn. (AP) — Cafe owner Harry Byrd aims to find out how the federal Internal Revenue Department stands on skunks. Some of the critters set up housekeeping under the floor of Byrd's cafe. He called police who routed them with gas grenades. But the cafe was closed for more than a week and customers were reluctant to return for longer than that. Now it's all written down for presentation to the tax collector as a deduction.

ZionistsOpposeAid To Hostile Arabs

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—The president of the Zionist Organization of America says it opposes U. S. military aid to Arab states until they agree to make peace with Israel.

The ZOA's head, Rabbi Irving Miller, spoke last night at the opening of the organization's 56th annual convention.

"We are unalterably opposed to the supply of arms to any of the Arab states as long as they persist in their refusal to make peace with Israel and continue to threaten renewed warfare," Miller said.

Wallkill

Wallkill, Aug. 26—Mr. and Mrs. George Brach entertained friends at a chicken barbecue recently. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Harris and son, Tommy, Miss Mary Ellen Wendover of Tenafly, N. J., Miss Norma Sanchez of Ecuador, South America and Miss Margaret Brach who were all on the staff at Camp Wendy for two weeks, and Mr. and Mrs. Brach and their two children, Carol and James.

Mrs. Mary Emma Allen of New York enjoyed the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Macy Van Wagenen, visiting otid friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Watson of New York spent the weekend at Wallkill at their summer home here.

Mrs. Sam Woodbridge left Friday from Poughkeepsie for Seattle, Wash., on the first lap of a tour of Alaska. She expects to be gone for a month and will proceed by boat from the West coast to the many points of interest in Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terwilliger and sons, Robert and Edward, spent Thursday at the home of Mr. Terwilliger's aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hill of Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Seeley and son, E. D. are vacationing at Lake Wanasink.

Raymond Playne and granddaughter, Kathy Playne of Port Jervis, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Morris and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dunn and children, Robert and Nancy of Schenectady, were weekend guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Dunn.

Mrs. Hilda Woodbridge, Mrs. Addison Crowell, and Mrs. Benjamin Kreiton enjoyed lunch in Poughkeepsie Friday.

A surprise stork shower was held at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Valenza for Mrs. Marion Wydra recently. Mrs. Valenza and Mrs. Louise Scarzello were the hostesses. Those attending were Mrs. Valenza, Mrs. Scarzello, Mrs. Wydra, Mrs. Agnes Curesky, Mrs. Doris Ross, Mrs. Margaret Mack, Mrs. Anna Popiel, Mrs. Edith Bruhlman, Mrs. Helen Palen, Mrs. Vera Prisco, and Miss Lettie VandeMark, all of Wallkill. Also Mrs. Loretta Hogencamp of Newburgh, Mrs. Felix Wydra of Goshen, Mrs. Iris Sincerbox of Wassaic, Mrs. Lottie Yancewicz, Mrs. Mildred Yancewicz, Miss Anna Yancewicz, Mrs. Victoria Worden, Mrs. Florence Kelder, Miss June Kelder, and Mrs. Mabel Pellearts, all of Walden.

Wallkill Reformed Church notes: Choir rehearsal will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m., at the church. At 11 a. m., Sunday, S. Garrett Short, a student of New Brunswick Seminary, will occupy the pulpit at the Wallkill Reformed Church. The choir will present special music under the direction of Mrs. Hubert Hendrie. This will be the last guest minister for the month, and on Sunday, Sept. 6, Walter Van Popering will return from his vacation and deliver the sermon. There will be a meeting of the teachers and officers of the Sunday school at the church hall Friday, Aug. 28, at 8 p. m. All teachers and officers are requested to attend. This will be the re-organization meeting for the fall session of Sunday school. Sunday school will resume at 10 a. m. Sunday, Sept. 6 at the church.

Committees for the annual fair and turkey supper sponsored by the Willing Workers of the Wallkill Reformed Church have been named by Mrs. Macey Van Wagenen, president, as follows: Mrs. E. Lester Mack, general chairman; Mrs. Joseph W. Morris and Miss Mary L. DuBois, dining room; Mrs. Erna Mahlandt and Mrs. Macey Van Wagenen, kitchen and supper; Mrs. Harry W. Dunn, tickets, and Mrs. Daniel DuBois, publicity. Committees for the fair booths are: Mrs. L. C. Edsall and Mrs. William Wager, aprons; Mrs. Herbert DuBois, food; Mrs. Claude L. Decker, Mrs. George Geyer, handkerchiefs; Mrs. George Brach, utility; Mrs. Thomas Bellarosa and Mrs. Russell Hammesfahr, candy; Mrs. Louisa Parliman, miscellaneous; Mrs. Edmund C. Cooper, leather and craft. The fair will be held Wednesday, Oct. 14, at the church hall.

Firemen of the Wallkill Company are reminded that they must be at the firehouse, Sept. 3 and 4, between 6 and 8 p. m. for fitting of uniforms, for the parade and celebration of the 50 years of service to be held Sept. 5. The regular meeting of the fire company has been postponed from Sept. 7 to Sept. 14.

Skunks Tax Cafe

Jonesboro, Tenn. (AP) — Cafe owner Harry Byrd aims to find out how the federal Internal Revenue Department stands on skunks. Some of the critters set up housekeeping under the floor of Byrd's cafe. He called police who routed them with gas grenades. But the cafe was closed for more than a week and customers were reluctant to return for longer than that. Now it's all written down for presentation to the tax collector as a deduction.

If you cream butter and sugar by hand when you are making cakes and cookies, use a slotted wooden spoon.

A letter asks: "Would it be permissible for a young woman in her early twenties to take the same train home from a distant city with a young man she has grown up with but who never was a beau. They were always just good friends. Now he is working in the same city in which she is nursing. The trip would necessitate three days and two nights on the train."

I can't see why he will be in any way different from all of your fellow passengers. You are both going home by public conveyance and continuously surrounded by plenty of chaperoning passengers.

Reception for Daughter

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter and her husband and their new baby plan to spend their vacation here with us. My. daughter was born and brought up in this town. This will be her first trip home since her marriage two years ago. I would like to give a party for them during their visit. Will you please tell me how the invitations should be worded and also what type of party would be best to give?

Answer: An evening reception is the most practical thing to give. The invitations are written: "To meet Mr. and Mrs. John Jones," then followed by the date and the time. (To meet does not mean they are strangers but merely that the party is given for them.)

Clothes for Bridesmaids

Dear Mrs. Post: Would it be possible for my four bridesmaids to be dressed alike in point of style, but each one in a different color? The girls like the idea very much of not having identical dresses because they are all friends and very often go to the same dances and feel they will get more use out of them if they are not exactly the same.

Answer: I'm sorry but four colors would produce a very odd-lot appearance—unless the bridesmaids' number is eight and the two-by-two bridesmaids all wear the same color in four shades.

What should be served for a formal dinner, a buffet lunch or supper? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Her leaflet E-25, "Menus for Every Occasion," will help you. Glamorous Dessert

You can make this glamorous dessert several days before you are having company. Prepare a graham cracker crust and press it against the sides and bottom of a pie plate. Chill the crust for two or three hours, then fill with strawberry ice cream softened to spreading consistency. Sprinkle the top with finely crushed graham cracker crumbs and store in the freezer compartment of your refrigerator. Thaw a package of frozen strawberries and serve as a sauce with the ice-cream pie.

A glass quart measure with a rounded bottom is useful for mixing and pouring batters.

Plan Your Labor Day Supper Around Hearty Party Salads

LABOR DAY PORCH SUPPER includes carrot and macaroni salad, sliced luncheon meat, sliced tomatoes and iced coffee.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Expecting a crowd on Labor Day? Then maybe these hefty salad recipes a friend in Darien, Conn., sent us will be welcome.

Carrot and Macaroni Salad
(4 to 6 servings)

Eight ounces elbow macaroni (cooked), 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms, 1 tablespoon minced onion, ¼ cup seasoned French dressing, ¼ cup sour cream, 2 tablespoons real mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, 1 cup coarsely shredded raw carrot, ¼ cup finely diced green pepper, lettuce.

Place cooked, drained macaroni in suitable container. Drain and add mushrooms, reserving broth for other use. Add onion and French dressing. Mix well, then cover and chill thoroughly.

When ready to serve, blend together the sour cream, mayonnaise, mustard, salt and pepper. Drain off any French dressing that remains on macaroni. Add carrot, green pepper and mayonnaise mixture to the macaroni. Toss together until well mixed. Serve in lettuce cups on cold platter with sliced fresh tomato, cucumber and your favorite luncheon meat.

Kidney Bean Salad
(4 to 6 servings)

Two cups drained cooked kidney beans (No. 2 can), 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms, ½ cup diced Bermuda onion, ¼ cup seasoned French dressing, ½ cup diced green pepper, ½ cup diced celery, 1 cup diced unpeeled cucumber, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, ½ teaspoon salt.

Place beans in suitable container. Drain and add mushrooms, reserving broth for other use. Add mushrooms and onions to beans. Sprinkle with French dressing and toss lightly to coat thoroughly. Chill in refrigerator.

When ready to serve, drain off any excess French dressing. Add green pepper, celery and cucumber to beans. Blend together and add the mustard, mayonnaise and salt. Serve immediately on lettuce.

Tomorrow's Dinner: Cold tuna in hunks or sliced luncheon meat, kidney bean salad, sliced "beefsteak" tomatoes, lettuce, warm rolls, blueberry cup cakes, iced coffee, milk.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, Aug. 26—Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Vozza and sons, James and Judie, of Bergenfield, N. J., are spending a few days with their Shokan relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Carlson, new owners of the one time Ephraim Weeks homestead. Mrs. Vozza and Mrs. Carlson are sisters. Vozza was employed on the New York city sewer project at Pine Hill about 35 years ago.

Callers in the hub of the reservoir country Monday included Joseph Pucino and son of the Benkard avenue section of Newburgh. The elder Pucino is a collector of antiques, specializing in authentic Currier & Ives items.

Justus and Earl North are making repairs to the interior walls of the Shokan Reformed church.

Birthdays falling Saturday Aug. 29, include that of Edwin D. Secor, octogenarian farmer of the Tonche Mountain neighborhood of Ashokan. Ed., 83, was born in Shokan, a son of Robert and Anna Stewart Secor. He was employed as a clerk in the state legislature as a young man and also served the public for several years as postmaster of Ashokan.

The hollow on the telephone company's village center lot between the brick automatic central building and Ebba Andre's lawn has been filled in by the Davis Brother contracting firm. This was quite a job, requiring many truckloads of shale and top-soil.

Kenneth Dudrey of Kingston was a caller here Monday. Kenneth, a native of the High Point section of Olive, is now employed at a Kingston hospital.

The Edward Terhunes, New York family who have been coming to Shokan for many years, have vacation quarters at the Peter Mastrota place on the Onteora Trail.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Deuel of Brooklyn called on local friends Sunday in the course of a weekend stay in Accord. Mrs. Deuel, the former Helen Matland of Shokan, reports that her father, Thomas Matland, is in good health and is making his home in Staten Island.

The auction sale at the Amelia Morris place in Ashokan, now the property of Mrs. Morris' granddaughter, Mrs. Walter Cook, and husband, drew a large crowd to Ashokan Saturday afternoon. Lamont Simpkins, Woodstock auctioneer, disposed of hundreds of items including many antiques during the four-hour sale.

Children's Party Dessert

For a children's party dessert fold quartered mashmallows and small peanut brittle pieces into whipped cream and layer in between vanilla wafers. Arrange in attractive containers and garnish with cherries.

Answer: An evening reception is the most practical thing to give. The invitations are written: "To meet Mr. and Mrs. John Jones," then followed by the date and the time. (To meet does not mean they are strangers but merely that the party is given for them.)

Clothes for Bridesmaids

Dear Mrs. Post: Would it be possible for my four bridesmaids to be dressed alike in point of style, but each one in a different color? The girls like the idea very much of not having identical dresses because they are all friends and very often go to the same dances and feel they will get more use out of them if they are not exactly the same.

Answer: I'm sorry but four colors would produce a very odd-lot appearance—unless the bridesmaids' number is eight and the two-by-two bridesmaids all wear the same color in four shades.

What should be served for a formal dinner, a buffet lunch or supper? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Her leaflet E-25, "Menus for Every Occasion," will help you. Glamorous Dessert

You can make this glamorous dessert several days before you are having company. Prepare a graham cracker crust and press it against the sides and bottom of a pie plate. Chill the crust for two or three hours, then fill with strawberry ice cream softened to spreading consistency. Sprinkle the top with finely crushed graham cracker crumbs and store in the freezer compartment of your refrigerator. Thaw a package of frozen strawberries and serve as a sauce with the ice-cream pie.

A glass quart measure with a rounded bottom is useful for mixing and pouring batters.

Plan Your Labor Day Supper Around Hearty Party Salads

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Expecting a crowd on Labor Day? Then maybe these hefty salad recipes a friend in Darien, Conn., sent us will be welcome.

Carrot and Macaroni Salad
(4 to to 6 servings)

Eight ounces elbow macaroni (cooked), 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms, 1 tablespoon minced onion, ¼ cup seasoned French dressing, ¼ cup sour cream, 2 tablespoons real mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, 1 cup coarsely shredded raw carrot, ¼ cup finely diced green pepper, lettuce.

Place cooked, drained macaroni in suitable container. Drain and add mushrooms, reserving broth for other use. Add onion and French dressing. Mix well, then cover and chill thoroughly.

When ready to serve, blend together the sour cream, mayonnaise, mustard, salt and pepper. Drain off any French dressing that remains on macaroni. Add carrot, green pepper and mayonnaise mixture to the macaroni. Toss together until well mixed. Serve in lettuce cups on cold platter with sliced fresh tomato, cucumber and your favorite luncheon meat.

Kidney Bean Salad
(4 to 6 servings)

Two cups drained cooked kidney beans (No. 2 can), 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms, ½ cup diced Bermuda onion, ¼ cup seasoned French dressing, ½ cup diced green pepper, ½ cup diced celery, 1 cup diced unpeeled cucumber, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, ½ teaspoon salt.

Place beans in suitable container. Drain and add mushrooms, reserving broth for other use. Add mushrooms and onions to beans. Sprinkle with French dressing and toss lightly to coat thoroughly. Chill in refrigerator.

When ready to serve, drain off any excess French dressing. Add green pepper, celery and cucumber to beans. Blend together and add the mustard, mayonnaise and salt. Serve immediately on lettuce.

Tomorrow's Dinner: Cold tuna in hunks or sliced luncheon meat, kidney bean salad, sliced "beefsteak" tomatoes, lettuce, warm rolls, blueberry cup cakes, iced coffee, milk.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, Aug. 26—Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Vozza and sons, James and Judie, of Bergenfield, N. J., are spending a few days with their Shokan relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Carlson, new owners of the one time Ephraim Weeks homestead. Mrs. Vozza and Mrs. Carlson are sisters. Vozza was employed on the New York city sewer project at Pine Hill about 35 years ago.

Callers in the hub of the reservoir country Monday included Joseph Pucino and son of the Benkard avenue section of Newburgh. The elder Pucino is a collector of antiques, specializing in authentic Currier & Ives items.

Justus and Earl North are making repairs to the interior walls of the Shokan Reformed church.

Birthdays falling Saturday Aug. 29, include that of Edwin D. Secor, octogenarian farmer of the Tonche Mountain neighborhood of Ashokan. Ed., 83, was born in Shokan, a son of Robert and Anna Stewart Secor. He was employed as a clerk in the state legislature as a young man and also served the public for several years as postmaster of Ashokan.

The hollow on the telephone company's village center lot between the brick automatic central building and Ebba Andre's lawn has been filled in by the Davis Brother contracting firm. This was quite a job, requiring many truckloads of shale and top-soil.

Kenneth Dudrey of Kingston was a caller here Monday. Kenneth, a native of the High Point section of Olive, is now employed at a Kingston hospital.

The Edward Terhunes, New York family who have been coming to Shokan for many years, have vacation quarters at the Peter Mastrota place on the Onteora Trail.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Deuel of Brooklyn called on local friends Sunday in the course of a weekend stay in Accord. Mrs. Deuel, the former Helen Matland of Shokan, reports that her father, Thomas Matland, is in good health and is making his home in Staten Island.

The auction sale at the Amelia Morris place in Ashokan, now the property of Mrs. Morris' granddaughter, Mrs. Walter Cook, and husband, drew a large crowd to Ashokan Saturday afternoon. Lamont Simpkins, Woodstock auctioneer, disposed of hundreds of items including many antiques during the four-hour sale.

Capitol Librarian Tells About His 60 Years in Albany

ALONG CAPITOL CORRIDORS
BY NAT BOYNTON

Albany, Aug. 27 (AP)—Dwight Goewey says politics hasn't changed much in the 60 years he has been around the State Capitol.

This mirthful, white-haired holdover from the second Cleveland administration says he has been working in the State House longer than anyone else, and none can be found to challence him. Not that he's boasting; he gives forth reluctantly.

He started as a page boy in the old Senate library in 1894 at the age of 13. Now, at 73, he has been legislative librarian for 28 years.

He can look back on three generations of governors, congressmen, United States senators and legislative leaders and on more than half a century of political battles that have boiled through the Capitol.

Less Fellowship Now

Political maneuvers and tactics are old hat to Goewey. The only change the years have made, he says, is that there seems to be less fellowship among members of the Legislature now.

"The sessions used to run to about 5 in the afternoon," he recounted. "Then one of the leaders would ask: 'Who's going down to the Dutchman's?'

"The boys would go down for a few beers, sing some songs and have a good time—Republicans and Democrats. Now they don't do that very often. I think it's just the way the wheel turns—it's more an individual and leadership proposition these days."

The man who has served under 18 governors from Roswell P. Flower to Thomas E. Dewey will tell you they were "all fine men." But he has been on closer terms with legislative leaders, whom he has seen come and go with the political tides.

Needed His Gloves

Goewey tells about the time he and "four or five others" were helping Albany firemen pull a hoseline into the Assembly chamber to fight a fire that gutted part of the Capitol in 1911.

A dignified senator appeared in the chamber, saw the boys toiling over the hose, and joined them.

After two yanks, the senator called time out. Everything stopped but the flames.

The senator pulled a pair of gloves from his pocket, put them on and announced, "all right, boys, now I'm ready."

Miss Anne Beatty and Tony Bannano of New Paltz motored to Lenox, Mass., and heard the Boston Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Charles Munch. It was held at Tanglewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Wright and daughter, Patty, of Gardiner, were callers in this place Sunday night.

Several from here attended the Ulster County Fair at Kingston Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. John Randall and daughter of New Paltz were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Denniston and family Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerow Wilkin, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkin and son, John Ross, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Denniston and family were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Denniston in Walden.

The Missionary Society has received an appeal for funds to send CARE packages to Korea. Mrs. Albert Cronk will accept contributions.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 2, at the home of Mrs. Gerow Wilkin.

Sunday, Sept. 6, will be observed as College Roll Call Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Geerlings of Holland, Mich., Mrs. Mary Van Arendonk, Miss Jeanette Van Arendonk of New Paltz were in this place Friday afternoon.

BOOK REVIEW

WITH A QUIET HEART
By EVA LE GALLIENNE

To establish, in this country, a permanent repertory theatre, similar to the Old Vic; the Abbey players; the Moscow Art Theatre; the Comedie Francaise, and other European national theatres was the author's dream, to which she has devoted nearly a lifetime of time, talent and effort. This is her story about the dream; its disappointments, its failures and its achievements.

Miss Le Gallienne writes about her talented parents with deep affection. Her father, Richard LeGallienne, was a French poet of rare ability, with a poet's mercurial nature; her Danish mother, a vivacious, charming woman of some literary talent. Although her parents were divorced, Miss LeGallienne was never deprived of the companionship of either of them. Her early years were lived in Paris, absorbing, along with her formal education, a great love for the theatre and the allied arts. At the age 16, she had already started work in the theatre in England. From then on the portrayal of roles in great plays by Shakespeare, Rostand, Isben, Chekov, Barry and others became her one absorbing interest in life.

While still quite young, Miss LeGallienne became an outstanding success as an actress in London. Then she came to America. In 1926 when she had acquired stardom on the New York stage and had many successes behind her (notably "The Swan") with more offered to her, she decided to once more turn her back on past achievements and to form her own Civic Repertory Theatre.

Securing financial backing was a tough assignment, but she did it and, with a devoted band of coworkers, working for half-pay, she restored and re-furnished the once beautiful French theatre, on 14th street and presented a series of great plays which were well received.

However, came the crash of 1929, money was harder to obtain, and since Miss Le Gallienne held to her policy of giving good plays at popular prices, funds were low and in 1931 it was decided to close the theatre for a time. That was the summer Miss Le Gallienne suffered her own greatest personal ordeal. An explosion of gas in the cellar of her country home in Weston nearly wrecked the cottage and put her in the hospital for months, suffering agonies from terrible burns. Fortunately she escaped disfigurement and, after a series of operations, her hands, which had received the worst injury, were restored.

As soon as she was able to travel, the author went to Europe for relaxation and to see her mother. In the autumn of 1932 she was back to reopen the Civic Repertory Theatre with Joseph Schildkraut as an added attraction. Next year the company went on the road. While they were in Washington, Mrs. Roosevelt arranged interviews for Miss Le Gallienne with the President and with Harry Hopkins. In describing these conversations, and the results, the author, with no idea of being critical, reveals the fallacious reasoning of the New Deal in coping with unemployment among artists from a humanitarian point of view alone. Reminds one of the famous Hopkins report to the President after he had completed the allocation of a huge sum of money for the relief of the unemployed, "Well, Mr. President, I've spent all of that money, but, for God's sake don't ask me what I've done with it."

From there on the author goes on to tell of her trials and triumphs in building up a great nation-wide Civic Repertory Theatre which would be a permanent institution to present great plays at popular prices for "the forgotten public" who are obliged to give up theatre-going because it is either good and too expensive, or mediocre and not worth anything to them. In the end she seems to be as far from her goal as when she started, but is still undiscouraged about the future.

With joy she tells about the distinguished people of the stage whom she has been privileged to know — Duse, Rejane, Lucien Guitry, Isadora Duncan, Mrs. Fiske, Ethel Barrymore, Mei Ling Fang, the great French clowns — the Fratelli brothers— and many others; of her beloved Weston home with the blue room, filled with stage trophies and with memories of friends who worked and played with her there. And of one night when she had an hour long heated discussion in a taxi about Hedda Gabler with Alexander Woolcott, ending by his handing her out of the cab and kissing her soundly before the astonished taxi driver. For Eva life was not dull.

For a theatrical manager there were many trials. Outstanding ones were the hardships of her tours; the cruel treatment of her colored maid and chauffeur in the southern states; and of the real troubles with theatrical unions who replaced good old-fashioned, faithful stagehands with unscrupulous, lazy workers. A sad commentary upon the times in which we live.

In one paragraph she sums up her idea of what an artist must be guided by to insure any degree of success in this most difficult of careers. It is at once a disappointment to those looking for an easy way to the top, and an inspiration to those who are willing to work hard every step of the way. A rough road, one never travelled by the glamour girls of the stage and screen, but by the lonely few like the author.

Gratitude on the Lawn

Toledo, Ohio (AP)—Robert Radkiewicz, 11-year-old newsboy, is mowing Mrs. L. J. Richardson's lawn free these days. Young Radkiewicz was collecting along his route the other evening, eating a candy bar in between collections. At the end of his route, he found $20 missing. Mrs. Richardson found the money crumpled inside an old candy wrapper. She read of the boy's loss in a newspaper and returned the money. She refused to accept a reward, so the newsboy is mowing her lawn without charge.

Pilgrimage Set To Visit Shrines At Auriesville

Sunday, September 13, Knights of Columbus from all parts of New York state will journey to the shrine of the North American martyrs at Auriesville. Kingston Council will be represented by a delegation of Knights plus members of their families and friends.

Auriesville, situated on the banks of the Mohawk river a few miles west of Amsterdam is the site of the former Indian village of Ossernenon. The Sts. Isaac Jogues, Rene Goupil and John La Lande were put to death for their missionary work. A shrine in their honor is maintained by the Jesuit fathers.

Kingston knights will make the trip by private car and chartered bus, arriving at the shrine in time for Mass at 10, 11 or 12 o'clock. In announcing plans for the pilgrimage, Harold W. O'Connor, chairman of the local council's Catholic affairs committee suggested that picnic lunches be taken and that bus reservations be made early. Reservations may be made at the Council building or through Chairman O'Connor, Charles Trice, or Grand Knight Kenneth Clark.

BOOK REVIEW

To further increase interest in the Kingston Library the following review by Mrs. G. Cramer Dodge is published.

WITH A QUIET HEART
By EVA LE GALLIENNE

To establish, in this country, a permanent repertory theatre, similar to the Old Vic; the Abbey players; the Moscow Art Theatre; the Comedie Francaise, and other European national theatres was the author's dream, to which she has devoted nearly a lifetime of time, talent and effort. This is her story about the dream; its disappointments, its failures and its achievements.

Miss Le Gallienne writes about her talented parents with deep affection. Her father, Richard Le-Gallienne, was a French poet of rare ability, with a poet's mercurial nature; her Danish mother, a vivacious, charming woman of some literary talent. Although her parents were divorced, Miss LeGallienne was never deprived of the companionship of either of them. Her early years were lived in Paris, absorbing, along with her formal education, a great love for the theatre and the allied arts. At the age 16, she had already started work in the theatre in England. From then on the portrayal of roles in great plays by Shakespeare, Rostand, Isben, Chekov, Barry and others became her one absorbing interest in life.

While still quite young, Miss Le-Gallienne became an outstanding success as an actress in London. Then she came to America. In 1926 when she had acquired stardom on the New York stage and had many successes behind her (notably "The Swan") with more offered to her, she decided to once more turn her back on past achievements and to form her own Civic Repertory Theatre.

Securing financial backing was a tough assignment, but she did it and, with a devoted band of coworkers, working for half-pay, she restored and re-furnished the once beautiful French theatre, on 14th street and presented a series of great plays which were well received.

However, came the crash of 1929, money was harder to obtain, and since Miss Le Gallienne held to her policy of giving good plays at popular prices, funds were low and in 1931 it was decided to close the theatre for a time. That was the summer Miss Le Gallienne suffered her own greatest personal ordeal. An explosion of gas in the cellar of her country home in Weston nearly wrecked the cottage and put her in the hospital for months, suffering agonies from terrible burns. Fortunately she escaped disfigurement and, after a series of operations, her hands, which had received the worst injury, were restored.

As soon as she was able to travel, the author went to Europe for relaxation and to see her mother. In the autumn of 1932 she was back to reopen the Civic Repertory Theatre with Joseph Schildkraut as an added attraction. Next year the company went on the road. While they were in Washington, Mrs. Roosevelt arranged interviews for Miss Le Gallienne with the President and with Harry Hopkins. In describing these conversations, and the results, the author, with no idea of being critical, reveals the fallacious reasoning of the New Deal in coping with unemployment among artists from a humanitarian point of view alone. Reminds one of the famous Hopkins report to the President after he had completed the allocation of a huge sum of money for the relief of the unemployed, "Well, Mr. President, I've spent all of that money, but, for God's sake don't ask me what I've done with it."

From there on the author goes on to tell of her trials and triumphs in building up a great nation-wide Civic Repertory Theatre which would be a permanent institution to present great plays at popular prices for "the forgotten public" who are obliged to give up theatre-going because it is either good and too expensive, or mediocre and not worth anything to them. In the end she seems to be as far from her goal as when she started, but is still undiscouraged about the future.

With joy she tells about the distinguished people of the stage whom she has been privileged to know — Duse, Rejane, Lucien Guitry, Isadora Duncan, Mrs. Fiske, Ethel Barrymore, Mei Ling Fang, the great French clowns — the Fratelli brothers— and many others; of her beloved Weston home with the blue room, filled with stage trophies and with memories of friends who worked and played with her there. And of one night when she had an hour long heated discussion in a taxi about Hedda Gabler with Alexander Woolcott, ending by his handing her out of the cab and kissing her soundly before the astonished taxi driver. For Eva life was not dull.

For a theatrical manager there were many trials. Outstanding ones were the hardships of her tours; the cruel treatment of her colored maid and chauffeur in the southern states; and of the real troubles with theatrical unions who replaced good old-fashioned, faithful stagehands with unscrupulous, lazy workers. A sad commentary upon the times in which we live.

In one paragraph she sums up her idea of what an artist must be guided by to insure any degree of success in this most difficult of careers. It is at once a disappointment to those looking for an easy way to the top, and an inspiration to those who are willing to work hard every step of the way. A rough road, one never travelled by the glamour girls of the stage and screen, but by the lonely few like the author.

Gratitude on the Lawn

Toledo, Ohio (AP)—Robert Radkiewicz, 11-year-old newsboy, is mowing Mrs. L. J. Richardson's lawn free these days. Young Radkiewicz was collecting along his route the other evening, eating a candy bar in between collections. At the end of his route, he found $20 missing. Mrs. Richardson found the money crumpled inside an old candy wrapper. She read of the boy's loss in a newspaper and returned the money. She refused to accept a reward, so the newsboy is mowing her lawn without charge.

Beautiful Jail

East Point, Ga. (AP)—The new $200,000 city jail in this Atlanta suburb is so inviting in appearance that tourists sometimes stop and seek accommodations, thinking it is a hotel. Police Chief William H. Taylor helped design the posh calaboose and is mighty proud of it but he wants to scotch one report that's gotten around. It's not air-conditioned. "I wish it was," adds Taylor, whose offices are in the jail.

Bridges Going Strong

Columbus, Ohio (AP)—Ohio has exactly 352½ covered bridges. At the peak of the covered bridge craze there were only 563½. The half bridge is in Preble County, Ohio, in southwestern Ohio. It is on State Line Road near College Corner and spans the Ohio-Indiana line. One half is in Indiana, so Ohio officials count only one-half of the bridge.

Migration Problem

Melbourne (AP)—An Australian Labor leader says Japan will submit claims for migration to New Guinea at the International Labor Organization Asian regional conference in Tokyo in September. Albert E. Monk, president of the Australian Council of Trade Unions, made the statement in an address to the United Nations Association. He recently returned from an I.L.O. conference in Geneva. Monk said Asian countries, except Japan, had changed their postwar clamour for migration because they realized that the limited number of migrants Australia could absorb would not solve their population problems.

Beautiful Jail

East Point, Ga. (AP)—The new $200,000 city jail in this Atlanta suburb is so inviting in appearance that tourists sometimes stop and seek accommodations, thinking it is a hotel. Police Chief William H. Taylor helped design the posh calaboose and is mighty proud of it but he wants to scotch one report that's gotten around. It's not air-conditioned. "I wish it was," adds Taylor, whose offices are in the jail.

Bridges Going Strong

Columbus, Ohio (AP)—Ohio has exactly 352½ covered bridges. At the peak of the covered bridge craze there were only 563½. The half bridge is in Preble County, Ohio, in southwestern Ohio. It is on State Line Road near College Corner and spans the Ohio-Indiana line. One half is in Indiana, so Ohio officials count only one-half of the bridge.

Aromatic, or Turkish, tobacco now is being grown in Virginia.

Migration Problem

Melbourne (AP)—An Australian Labor leader says Japan will submit claims for migration to New Guinea at the International Labor Organization Asian regional conference in Tokyo in September.

Albert E. Monk, president of the Australian Council of Trade Unions, made the statement in an address to the United Nations Association. He recently returned from an I.L.O. conference in Geneva. Monk said Asian countries, except Japan, had changed their postwar clamour for migration because they realized that the limited number of migrants Australia could absorb would not solve their population problems.

Don't Overload Washer

Overloading a washing machine prevents the clothes from circulating freely enough in the water and produces an uneven or spotty washing action. It also produces excess wear due to friction.

57 Escape Hurts In Air Collision

Michigan City, Ind., Aug. 27 (AP)—Two commercial airliners, carrying a total of 57 persons, collided last night at 11,000 feet, but pilots effected safe landings and no one was injured.

The planes, twin-engine Convairs from American Air Lines and United Air Lines, had left Chicago about a minute apart shortly before 9 p. m. E.S.T. The collision over Michigan City, about 60 miles east, occurred about 25 minutes later. Both planes were slightly damaged.

"It was a very lucky situation all around," said William Whittacre, American chief of flight operations for the Chicago region. "We have no idea who did what to whom. We don't say which plane ran the other down, but it will be the subject of an inquiry by the company and by the Civil Aeronautics Administration."

The UAL plane, carrying 27 passengers and 3 crew members and headed for Cleveland, made an emergency landing at South Bend, Ind. The American plane, with 24 passengers and 3 crewmen and bound for Detroit, returned to Chicago's Midway Airport.

The collision ripped a three-foot hole in the tail section of the American plane while the UAL airliner was punctured on top of the fuselage between the pilot's cabin and the passenger area.

No Objection to Coal

New Delhi, India, Aug. 27 (AP)—South Korea, which has threatened to boycott the Korean peace conference if India is invited to attend, has no objection to coal from Indian mines. And India, which has had some harsh things to say herself about South Korean President Syngman Rhee, is glad to have him as a customer. Production Minister K. C. Reddy told a questioner in parliament today that Rhee's government bought 101,296 tons of coal from India during 1952. India welcomes "this new market for our coal," Reddy added.

PlanesReachJapan OnMilitaryMission

Tokyo, Aug. 27 (AP)—A second flight of B36 intercontinental bombers—10-engined planes capable of carrying the atomic bomb on flights up to 10,000 miles—will arrive in Japan tomorrow from the United States, the Far East command said tonight.

An undisclosed number landed Tuesday after a nonstop trip from U. S. bases that was cloaked in military secrecy.

Tonight's announcement said "the Japan landing by the huge B36s is part of the trans-Pacific training exercise being carried out by the Strategic Air Command."

It was not reported whether the new group is coming nonstop from the United States. It was possible they might be planes that started the original flight but put into Okinawa or other Far East bases.

2 More Morals Charges Placed on Bartender

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—Alfred Larsen, 34-year-old unemployed bartender, of 11 Metropolitan Oval, Parkchester, the Bronx, released Sunday in $3,000 bail on two morals charges involving young girls, was taken into custody again yesterday on two more charges.

Previously it had been announced that the August Bronx Grand Jury would be asked to return indictments against him in connection with the earlier charges.

After questioning Larsen briefly in the Bronx county court building, Assistant District Attorney George Tilzer ordered Larsen booked on a morals charge and a charge of second degree assault in connection with an offense the prisoner allegedly committed against an 11-year-old girl in a hallway at 40 Metropolitan Oval on Aug. 14.

Tilzer said he would ask indictments in all three cases. If Larsen is indicted, Tilzer said, he will be arraigned immediately in Bronx County Court.

PLAYING STORE IS BIG BUSINESS—Bobby Ramage, 12-year-old grocery clerk, of Memphis, Tenn., not only pushes the groceries over the counter to his customers—he runs a complete grocery store. Owner Freed Warren is hospitalized, and Bobby, who says he never before had $10 of his own, transacts all the business for Warren. It's fine practice for arithmetic classes when school opens, but Warren fears he'll have to close the store when Bobby returns to school.

Report Shows GG Is Ineffective After Start

Albany, Aug. 27 (AP)—The State Health Department reports one polio death and 18 other polio cases occurred among the 37,000 children inoculated with gamma globulin last month in Steuben and Chemung counties.

The department said today that 10 of the cases, including the one that proved fatal, had developed in the first week after the mass inoculations last July 11-13.

The scarce blood derivative is known to be of little value in preventing the disease in the first week after injection, but is expected to lessen its severity, the department said.

Dr. Hollis S. Ingraham, first deputy health commissioner, said the department was continuing its studies of the effects of the mass injections. He said the studies so far had provided no evidence that gamma globulin had changed the course of the epidemic in the two upstate counties.

Ground Observation Registration Blank

Because of an acute need of aircraft spotters to keep the Kingston Ground Observation post in continuous operation, Mrs. George Dewey Logan, post supervisor, has again requested The Freeman to publish a registration blank which volunteers may use to offer their services to the post.

Needed especially are men for the early morning (midnight to 2 a. m.; 2 to 4 a. m. and 4 to 6 a. m. shifts), and women for the daytime shifts. Reserves are needed to insure continuous operation of the post in event of illness or unavoidable absences.

Volunteers normally serve one two-hour shift a week. "There are 168 hours in a week; all we ask is two of them," Mrs. Logan has said.

Persons returning the blank to Mrs. Logan at 68 Garden street, Kingston, will be contacted and advised when and where to report for fingerprinting.

Membership Hits Record Mark In Van Winkle Scout Council

During the regular monthly meeting of the executive board of the Rip Van Winkle Council, Boy Scouts of America Tuesday night at the Governor Clinton Hotel, George B. Matthews, organization and extension chairman, announced that the membership of the Council has reached an all-time high of 601 Cub Scouts in 20 Packs, 930 Boy Scouts and 379 Explorers in 57 Troops and 31 Explorers in four Posts in the Council. The total membership now stands at 1,941 boys and 863 adults in 81 units. He also announced that an intensive program of organization of new units will be underway this fall throughout the Council to take care of the increased number of available boys and requests for new units that have been received at the council office.

Training Courses Set

William Leehive, leadership training chairman, announced that fall training program would include formal courses for troop leaders and Cub Pack leaders. The basic scoutmasters' training course for all troop scouters will be conducted Thursday nights starting Oct. 1 at the St. James Methodist Church in Kingston with Richard Waltman, Scoutmaster of Troop 11 serving as course director. The Cub Leaders' Training Course will be held at the St. John's Episcopal Church Hall in Kingston Friday nights starting Oct. 2. Henry Eighmey, Cubmaster of Pack 15 will serve as course director with Clement I. Angstrom, Cubmaster of Pack 13 serving as assistant course director. This course is for all adults in the Cub Scouting program—Cubmasters, assistant Cubmasters, Den Mothers and Pack Committeemen. Walter T. Tremper, camp chairman, reported that during the 1953 season at Camp Tri-Mount 209 different boys were in attendance for 395 boy-weeks, a good increase over 1952. He also reported on the dedication of the new Handicraft Lodge which is a memorial to Carl Eric Linden of Woodstock and on the addition of archery, bait casting and mo-skeeto trap shooting to the program this past summer. Plans are now being made for the promotion of the 1954 camp which will be bigger and better than ever.

Reports on Jamboree

William Sherill Keyser reported on the 1953 National Jamboree held in Santa Ana, Calif., last month. This Council was represented by 49 boys and six leaders who traveled 8,521 miles without accident or serious illness together with representatives of 10 other eastern New York Councils. A final factual and financial report will be given at the next board meeting after the national office has given its report.

George V. Dennis, scout executive, reviewed the fall district and Council activities program which will include a trip to the Sampson Air Force Base for a regional explorer program, an Order of the Arrow area conclave at Saratoga, the training courses previously mentioned, and a fall round-up district event in each of the seven districts. He also briefly reviewed the Jamboree trip touching on the sightseeing at the National Glacier Park, steamer trip to Victoria out of Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, Muir Woods and the giant redwood trees, Grand Canyon and Chicago. All districts were urged to complete their solicitations in the current finance campaign and turn the money into the Council Office for tabulation before Sept. 15 so the winning district could be announced and their trophy awarded at the next board meeting.

R. S. Quackenbush, Council president, urged the districts to be fully represented at meetings of the Council operating committees so plans could go ahead to keep pace with the fast expanding membership of the Council. He also complimented the Jamboree committee on the successful completion of their work and the camp committee on a good job done this summer at the Council Camp.

Ruling Favors Workers In Union Store Case

Washington, Aug. 27 (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) ruled 3-2 today that a worker can be fired under a union shop contract for failing to join a union, but that lesser pressure can't be applied against him.

The majority decision held that it was illegal to withhold vacation pay from three employes of the Krambo Food Stores of Milwaukee, Wis., in an effort to compel them to join the union.

It said the three workers could have been fired for not joining under a legal union shop clause in the contract between the company and the Allied Independent Unions, affiliated with the Confederated Unions of America. Such a clause requires workers to join the union within a specified time, usually 30 days.

The board found that the three workers were not fired for not joining the union, but that the employer and union cooperated to withhold vacation pay due them. The NLRB's majority decided that this withholding of vacation pay was "additional discrimination, over and above the threat of discharge," and illegal.

Catches Bass With Arrow

Buffalo, Aug. 27 (AP)—Twelve-year-old Carl H. Ernst, Jr., shot an arrow into the air—and where it landed is another fish story. Carl twanged his bow at a cardboard box in a field in suburban Williamsville yesterday. The arrow came down in a creek and speared a small rock bass.

Mt. Tremper

Mt. Tremper, Aug. 26—Mrs. D. Y. Brink of Scotia called on Mrs. Charles Gustafson recently. Mrs. Brink is the wife of the Rev. D. Y. Brink. The Brinks have a summer cottage in Saugerties.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Quinn left Wednesday on a week's trip to Canada. They planned to visit the doctor's alma mater, Queens University, Kingston, Ont.

Mrs. Norman North and daughters of Long Island and West Shokan are spending some time here with Mrs. North's mother, Mrs. J. Odenwald. Mrs. North is the former Barbara Odenwald.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hudler and daughter Jill are spending a week's vacation in Canada.

Work is progressing rapidly on the Mt. Tremper firehouse. The volunteer firemen worked several hours Sunday pouring the concrete for the footings. The building will be constructed of cement blocks which will be laid by volunteer labor.

The first annual concert of the Onteora Summer Chorus will be held in the Onteora Central School Thursday, Sept. 3, at 8:30 p. m. Charlotte Carle, Carlton Hoyt and William Spanhake are among the local participants in the concert. Because of the concert, the regular meeting of the Community Association of Mt. Tremper and Mt. Pleasant, Inc., has been changed to Wednesday evening, Sept. 2, at 8:30.

Matched Coat-of-Arms

In 1632, the King of England granted to Lord Baltimore a charter to found a colony in Maryland. Settlers in the colony found an oriole that was black and yellow in plumage. These being the colors of Lord Baltimore's coat-of-arms, the settlers gave it the name of Baltimore oriole.

Youth Confesses, Jailed for 30 Days

William Alverson, 17, of R. D. 2, Catskill walked into the Kingston state police barracks Wednesday night and turned himself in for the theft of a camera, shoes, white shirts and a plastic bag with razor and other items from a duffle bag belonging to Raymond Philip of Union College, Schenectady, state police reported.

Arraigned on a petit larceny charge before Justice of the Peace Harold E. Macholdt of the town of Ulster, Alverson pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 30 days in jail.

Philip reported to Kingston police that the items had been taken while he was riding as a hitch-hiker on Route 9W about 10:45 p. m. Tuesday.

Ground Observation Registration Blank

Because of an acute need of aircraft spotters to keep the Kingston Ground Observation post in continuous operation, Mrs. George Dewey Logan, post supervisor, has again requested The Freeman to publish a registration blank which volunteers may use to offer their services to the post.

Needed especially are men for the early morning (midnight to 2 a. m.; 2 to 4 a. m. and 4 to 6 a. m. shifts), and women for the daytime shifts. Reserves are needed to insure continuous operation of the post in event of illness or unavoidable absences.

Volunteers normally serve one two-hour shift a week. "There are 168 hours in a week; all we ask is two of them," Mrs. Logan has said.

Persons returning the blank to Mrs. Logan at 68 Garden street, Kingston, will be contacted and advised when and where to report for fingerprinting.

Membership Hits Record Mark In Van Winkle Scout Council

During the regular monthly meeting of the executive board of the Rip Van Winkle Council, Boy Scouts of America Tuesday night at the Governor Clinton Hotel, George B. Matthews, organization and extension chairman, announced that the membership of the Council has reached an all-time high of 601 Cub Scouts in 20 Packs, 930 Boy Scouts and 379 Explorers in 57 Troops and 31 Explorers in four Posts in the Council. The total membership now stands at 1,941 boys and 863 adults in 81 units. He also announced that an intensive program of organization of new units will be underway this fall throughout the Council to take care of the increased number of available boys and requests for new units that have been received at the council office.

Training Courses Set

William Leehive, leadership training chairman, announced that fall training program would include formal courses for troop leaders and Cub Pack leaders. The basic scoutmasters' training course for all troop scouters will be conducted Thursday nights starting Oct. 1 at the St. James Methodist Church in Kingston with Richard Waltman, Scoutmaster of Troop 11 serving as course director. The Cub Leaders' Training Course will be held at the St. John's Episcopal Church Hall in Kingston Friday nights starting Oct. 2. Henry Eighmey, Cubmaster of Pack 15 will serve as course director with Clement I. Angstrom, Cubmaster of Pack 13 serving as assistant course director. This course is for all adults in the Cub Scouting program—Cubmasters, assistant Cubmasters, Den Mothers and Pack Committeemen. Walter T. Tremper, camp chairman, reported that during the 1953 season at Camp Tri-Mount 209 different boys were in attendance for 395 boy-weeks, a good increase over 1952. He also reported on the dedication of the new Handicraft Lodge which is a memorial to Carl Eric Linden of Woodstock and on the addition of archery, bait casting and moskeeto trap shooting to the program this past summer. Plans are now being made for the promotion of the 1954 camp which will be bigger and better than ever.

Held in Slaying of Girl

Eyes downcast, Mildred McDonald, 25-year-old Somerville, Mass., stenographer, waits behind bars for appearance in the lineup at police headquarters, New York, August 26. Later, on arraignment, she waived extradition and was turned over to Massachusetts authorities. She will be charged in the slaying of Mary Di Rocco in the Di Rocco home at Soverville, August 24. Miss McDonald was arrested in New York's Times Square the night of August 25, and according to police, confessed to the slaying.

Treasurer of Union College Dies at 88

Locust Valley, Aug. 27 (AP)—Frank Bailey, treasurer of Union College, Schenectady for the past 52 years, died yesterday at his Long Island estate here.

Bailey, 88, had presided Tuesday at a meeting of the finance committee of the college at his Manhattan office.

He was a philanthropist and former president of the Title Guarantee and Trust Co., New York ctiy.

A scholarship student at Union, Bailey later repaid the college with gifts totaling $1,500,000 for its $400 grant to him. Bailey made a fortune in real estate and banking, and credited Union College with giving him his start in life. He was graduated as an honor student in 1885.

After graduation, he started as a clerk for the Title Guarantee and Trust Co. at $10 a week at the age of 20. He retired as president in 1924.

As a banker, Bailey approved and sold Brooklyn mortgages amounting to more than 700 million dollars for small homes and business owners. He was a leader in the real estate development of the Bensonhurst, Brownsville and Borough Park sections of Brooklyn and Long Beach in Nassau county.

Bailey was a director in more than 20 companies before he retired from active business at the age of 59. After that, he maintained a Manhattan office from which he managed the financial affairs of Union College.

When he became treasurer of Union College in 1901, it had an annual deficit of $25,000. He built its assets from $500,000 to more than 11 million dollars, and wiped out deficits. The college awarded him the degrees of doctor of laws and doctor of arts. In 1936 he received the first alumni medal for distinguished service. In 1945 he published his life story, titled "It Can't Happen Here Again."

Bailey was born in Chatham, N. Y., the son of a country doctor.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Marie Lambert Bailey; and a daughter, Mrs. Barbara B. Vanneck, of New Rochelle, N. Y. Private funeral services will be held tomorrow at the home here.

Set Gas Pressure

Albany, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Public Service Commission today fixed a maximum limit of 650 pounds on the pressure the Algonquin Gas Transmission Co. may carry in its new gas line across Rockland, Westchester and Putnam counties. The commission said the step was taken as a safety measure. The firm had asked to use pressures up to 750 pounds, the PSC added. The link links Lambertville, N. J., and Connecticut points. It has no outlets on its 40-mile route in New York state, the PSC said.

Held in Slaying of Girl

Eyes downcast, Mildred McDonald, 25-year-old Somerville, Mass., stenographer, waits behind bars for appearance in the lineup at police headquarters, New York, August 26. Later, on arraignment, she waived extradition and was turned over to Massachusetts authorities. She will be charged in the slaying of Mary Di Rocco in the Di Rocco home at Soverville, August 24. Miss McDonald was arrested in New York's Times Square the night of August 25, and according to police, confessed to the slaying.

Treasurer of Union College Dies at 88

Locust Valley, Aug. 27 (AP)—Frank Bailey, treasurer of Union College, Schenectady for the past 52 years, died yesterday at his Long Island estate here.

Bailey, 88, had presided Tuesday at a meeting of the finance committee of the college at his Manhattan office.

He was a philanthropist and former president of the Title Guarantee and Trust Co., New York ctiy.

A scholarship student at Union, Bailey later repaid the college with gifts totaling $1,500,000 for its $400 grant to him. Bailey made a fortune in real estate and banking, and credited Union College with giving him his start in life. He was graduated as an honor student in 1885.

After graduation, he started as a clerk for the Title Guarantee and Trust Co. at $10 a week at the age of 20. He retired as president in 1924.

As a banker, Bailey approved and sold Brooklyn mortgages amounting to more than 700 million dollars for small homes and business owners. He was a leader in the real estate development of the Bensonhurst, Brownsville and Borough Park sections of Brooklyn and Long Beach in Nassau county.

Bailey was a director in more than 20 companies before he retired from active business at the age of 59. After that, he maintained a Manhattan office from which he managed the financial affairs of Union College.

When he became treasurer of Union College in 1901, it had an annual deficit of $25,000. He built its assets from $500,000 to more than 11 million dollars, and wiped out deficits. The college awarded him the degrees of doctor of laws and doctor of arts. In 1936 he received the first alumni medal for distinguished service. In 1945 he published his life story, titled "It Can't Happen Here Again."

Bailey was born in Chatham, N. Y., the son of a country doctor.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Marie Lambert Bailey; and a daughter, Mrs. Barbara B. Vanneck, of New Rochelle, N. Y. Private funeral services will be held tomorrow at the home here.

New Paltz

New Dairy Bar Opens On Kingston Road

New Paltz, Aug. 26—Changes were made in New Paltz business with the opening of two new establishments and the loss of another. The firm which is leaving New Paltz is the C. M. Patella Clothing Factory, which closed its buildmg, known as the LeFevre Building but owned by Andradez.

On the Kingston road adjacent to the GLF, a dairy bar is ready for opening. David Jewett, manager, reports that this not a chain store and will be operated the year round. The style is similar to others seen by travelers, with a big ice cream cone on top, but is locally owned.

The old Gardiner house on Main street has been remodelled in a early American style by Ackerman. There are two store units on street level, offices and apartments in the rear and upstairs. A woman's specialty shop, to be run by a woman and her daughter, will open there and will be called Madam Pace.

Local students will resume their studies at Wallkill, New Paltz and Modena schools, Wednesday, Sept. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heroy of Poughkeepsie visited relatives here, last weekend.

Set Gas Pressure

Albany, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Public Service Commission today fixed a maximum limit of 650 pounds on the pressure the Algonquin Gas Transmission Co. may carry in its new gas line across Rockland, Westchester and Putnam counties. The commission said the step was taken as a safety measure. The firm had asked to use pressures up to 750 pounds, the PSC added. The link links Lambertville, N. J., and Connecticut points. It has no outlets on its 40-mile route in New York state, the PSC said.

Legion Official Favors Revision Of Aid Cutbacks

St. Louis, Aug. 27 (AP)—National Commander Lewis K. Gough of the American Legion advised President Eisenhower today that Congress should reconsider "hasty and drastic" appropriation cuts for information programs abroad.

Gough, here for the Legion's four-day national convention opening Monday, made public a report he sent to the President on his 23-day inspection trip of western powers' defense in Europe. He made the trip at the invitation of the President.

The Legion commander also recommended liberalizing the nation's tariff and immigration laws.

Gough reported that while in Berlin he was disheartened by a seven million dollar reduction by Congress which "cut the heart out of our information program just when we were starting to take the initiative."

Cites False Economy

"This," he added, "seems to be false economy when winning the battle for peace is essential if we are ever to curtail the tremendous expense of continued rearmament."

But Gough said he favored careful supervision of American money used to aid Europe, adding that he felt the time had come to get rid of the "donor-donee relationship."

Gough at a news conference yesterday said he would recommend "full partnership for West Germany and Spain in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization at the Legion convention.

Conditions Reported Of Highway Workers

The condition of Carl Simmons of 118 Glen street was listed as "fair," and that of Norman Kennedy, Route 4, Kingston, as "good," at Kingston Hospital this morning.

Both men were admitted on Wednesday and both are employes of the Ulster County Highway Department.

Unofficial reports indicated that Simmons suffered a fractured arm when a mechanical failure on a power shovel caused the boom to swing from its position and strike him, while he was working in the Lake Katrine area; and that Kennedy was struck by a large rock that rolled down an embankment along a highway in the Wawarsing area.

More Parents Seek GG

New York, Aug. 27 (AP) — The third group of agitated parents within a week to seek gamma globulin here for children exposed to polio swept into the city health department offices today and some picketed city hall. The group was composed of about 75 parents representing children who attended the Jewish Community House Day Camp in Brooklyn. Twenty of the parents split from the original group and picketed city hall with placards reading: "We want GG—our children were exposed."

Be economical! Use a rubber scraper or spatula to get every bit of batter from a bowl when baking cakes, cookies or quick breads.

Vic Damone May Marry Joan Benny

Jack Benny and his wife, Mary Livingston, right, stand with their daughter, Joan, and singer Vic Damone at a Mocambo night club party the Bennys gave, August 25, in Hollywood to celebrate Damone's return from two years in the army. The biggest star turnout of the year was on hand. The names of Damone and Miss Benny have been linked romantically, but he escorted Kathleen Hughes and she came with director Freddie De Cordova.

Ives Says . . .

plaint he received he believes there is widespread national support for Eisenhower and his policies.

Blasts 'Sniping'

Scott said in an American Magazine article that some Republicans are hampering the administrations's program by "grandstand plays" and by "sniping."

Scott criticized Malone and Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) as well as several House members. He said Rep. Mason (R.-Ill.) insists that Eisenhower is doing a fine job but "has opposed virtually every measure on the President's legislative program."

Scott said Malone was "a natural ag'in-er." He accused the Nevada senator of frustrating Eisenhower's request for action on a Hawaiian statehood bill. Democratic opposition to action was credited with helping to stall the bill in the Senate Interior Committee.

Cites Embarrassment

Scott said McCarthy's opposition to the confirmation of Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen as ambassador to Russia and the fight of Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) against extending the excess profits tax were particularly embarrassing to the President.

Agreeing with Scott in some of his criticisms, Sen. Hendrickson (R-NJ) said in an interview he thinks some Republicans "still are living in the past ages."

"They don't seem to realize that the world has moved on and new measures and new ideas are needed," Hendrickson commented.

However, Eisenhower has made allowances for differences of opinion within his party. He told a recent news conference that there is bound to be a difference of thinking on particular subjects, which has to be hammered out on the anvil of logic and fact.

He said it was his job to bring people together and to get gradual progress in the direction his administration is heading.

AWOL Is Given Ride, Admits Slaying Driver

Zanesville, Ohio, Aug. 27 (AP)—An AWOL soldier today admitted he shot and killed the assistant director of the Ohio Industrial Relations Department last night after the official had given him a ride in his car, the State Highway Patrol said.

Harold St. John, 25, of Dorchester, Mass., was captured by Highway Patrol Cpl. C. E. Wells a little over a mile from the scene of the slaying on U. S. 40 west of here.

Wells said St. John, AWOL from Camp Atterbury, Ind., since yesterday, admitted he shot Joseph W. Harding, 53, during a struggle in the car when he tried to rob the state official.

Harding was killed a short time after he left a farewell party for his retiring chief, Albert A. Woldman. Gov. Frank J. Lausche was reported considering Harding as successor to Woldman, who leaves today to assume a juvenile judgship in Cayahoga county.

St. John is held at Zanesville police headquarters.

Dies of Injuries

Liberty, Aug. 27 (AP)—Eugene McCubbins, 47, of Narrowsburg, a construction worker at the Neversink dam, died in Maimonides Hospital today of injuries suffered Monday night in an automobile collision at Bradley. John Moser, 32, of Narrowsburg, and Denzile Ross, of Neversink, injured in the accident, still are in the hospital. Both also were employed on the project, part of the New York Water Supply system. McCubbins and Moser were driving home from work, in an automobile, and Ross was driving to work in a jeep when the vehicles collided.

To Return to RPI Post

Troy, Aug. 27 (AP)—Dr. Jerome Mayo Greenberg, freed last month of a charge he had stated falsely that he never had been a Communist, will return to his post at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in September. Dr. Livingston W. Houston, president of the institute, announced today that Greenberg would resume his duties as an assistant professor of physics. Greenberg, 31, was indicted last Dec. 30 in Richmond, Va., on a perjury charge. The indictment said he had sworn to the FBI in 1945 that he never had been a member of the Communist party.

reason, adding that the carpenters were at the root of many of the troubles between AFL unions, anyway.

If the carpenters return to the AFL—and the skids seem greased for that as well as the elder Hutcheson's return as an AFL Council member—Meany's stock is likely to go up.

Pulling the carpenters out caused a stir among the union's members and local officials. They work hand in glove normally in local labor bodies with other AFL unions, particularly those in the construction field.

Fence to Keep Girls Out

Prestwick, Scotland, Aug. 27 (AP) — A 10-foot barbed-wire fence has been put up around a U. S. air force camp here—not to keep the men in, but reputedly to keep the girls out. Several airmen have been court martialed for smuggling girls into their quarters. But others complained the girls forced their way in at night.

Legion Official Favors Revision Of Aid Cutbacks

St. Louis, Aug. 27 (AP)—National Commander Lewis K. Gough of the American Legion advised President Eisenhower today that Congress should reconsider "hasty and drastic" appropriation cuts for information programs abroad.

Gough, here for the Legion's four-day national convention opening Monday, made public a report he sent to the President on his 23-day inspection trip of western powers' defense in Europe. He made the trip at the invitation of the President.

The Legion commander also recommended liberalizing the nation's tariff and immigration laws.

Gough reported that while in Berlin he was disheartened by a seven million dollar reduction by Congress which "cut the heart out of our information program just when we were starting to take the initiative."

Cites False Economy

"This," he added, "seems to be false economy when winning the battle for peace is essential if we are ever to curtail the tremendous expense of continued rearmament."

But Gough said he favored careful supervision of American money used to aid Europe, adding that he felt the time had come to get rid of the "donor-donee relationship."

Gough at a news conference yesterday said he would recommend "full partnership for West Germany and Spain in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization at the Legion convention.

Conditions Reported Of Highway Workers

The condition of Carl Simmons of 118 Glen street was listed as "fair," and that of Norman Kennedy, Route 4, Kingston, as "good," at Kingston Hospital this morning.

Both men were admitted on Wednesday and both are employes of the Ulster County Highway Department.

Unofficial reports indicated that Simmons suffered a fractured arm when a mechanical failure on a power shovel caused the boom to swing from its position and strike him, while he was working in the Lake Katrine area; and that Kennedy was struck by a large rock that rolled down an embankment along a highway in the Wawarsing area.

More Parents Seek GG

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—The third group of agitated parents within a week to seek gamma globulin here for children exposed to polio swept into the city health department offices today and some picketed city hall. The group was composed of about 75 parents representing children who attended the Jewish Community House Day Camp in Brooklyn. Twenty of the parents split from the original group and picketed city hall with placards reading: "We want GG—our children were exposed."

Vic Damone May Marry Joan Benny

Jack Benny and his wife, Mary Livingston, right, stand with their daughter, Joan, and singer Vic Damone at a Mocambo night club party the Bennys gave, August 25, in Hollywood to celebrate Damone's return from two years in the army. The biggest star turnout of the year was on hand. The names of Damone and Miss Benny have been linked romantically, but he escorted Kathleen Hughes and she came with director Freddie De Cordova.

Ives Says . . .

plaint he received he believes there is widespread national support for Eisenhower and his policies.

Blasts 'Sniping'

Scott said in an American Magazine article that some Republicans are hampering the administrations's program by "grandstand plays" and by "sniping."

Scott criticized Malone and Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) as well as several House members. He said Rep. Mason (R.-Ill.) insists that Eisenhower is doing a fine job but "has opposed virtually every measure on the President's legislative program."

Scott said Malone was "a natural ag'in-er." He accused the Nevada senator of frustrating Eisenhower's request for action on a Hawaiian statehood bill. Democratic opposition to action was credited with helping to stall the bill in the Senate Interior Committee.

Cites Embarrassment

Scott said McCarthy's opposition to the confirmation of Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen as ambassador to Russia and the fight of Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) against extending the excess profits tax were particularly embarrassing to the President.

Agreeing with Scott in some of his criticisms, Sen. Hendrickson (R-NJ) said in an interview he thinks some Republicans "still are living in the past ages."

"They don't seem to realize that the world has moved on and new measures and new ideas are needed," Hendrickson commented.

However, Eisenhower has made allowances for differences of opinion within his party. He told a recent news conference that there is bound to be a difference of thinking on particular subjects, which has to be hammered out on the anvil of logic and fact.

He said it was his job to bring people together and to get gradual progress in the direction his administration is heading.

AWOL Is Given Ride, Admits Slaying Driver

Zanesville, Ohio, Aug. 27 (AP)—An AWOL soldier today admitted he shot and killed the assistant director of the Ohio Industrial Relations Department last night after the official had given him a ride in his car, the State Highway Patrol said.

Harold St. John, 25, of Dorchester, Mass., was captured by Highway Patrol Cpl. C. E. Wells a little over a mile from the scene of the slaying on U. S. 40 west of here.

Wells said St. John, AWOL from Camp Atterbury, Ind., since yesterday, admitted he shot Joseph W. Harding, 53, during a struggle in the car when he tried to rob the state official.

Harding was killed a short time after he left a farewell party for his retiring chief, Albert A. Woldman. Gov. Frank J. Lausche was reported considering Harding as successor to Woldman, who leaves today to assume a juvenile judgship in Cayahoga county.

Lawn Wedding Held For Beatrice Booth And Robert Brooks

MRS. ROBERT BROOKS

Miss Beatrice Ann Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Booth of Kerhonkson, became the bride of Robert J. Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Brooks of the same place, at a double ring ceremony, Sunday afternoon on the lawn of the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Clarence W. Hunter of Katonah officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white linen suit trimmed with Chantilly lace, three-quarter length sleeves and a ballerina length skirt. Her corsage was of white gladioli.

Miss Ellen Booth was her sister's maid of honor and wore a powder blue rayon linen suit with a pink rosebud corsage and blue accessories. Carl Carlson of Napanoch was best man.

The bride's mother was attired in a beige summer suit of linen with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of navy blue shantung with red accessories. Both had corsages of summer flowers.

The lawn of the Booth home was decorated with an arch of white and pink gladoli and streamers of pink and white. Baskets of red gladioli flanked the altar.

Miss Beverly Brown, organist, played Because and Promise Me, with Richard Baker as soloist.

A reception for the immediate families was held at the home of the bride's parents with approximately 50 guests attending.

Bloomington Fire Co.

A card party will be held at the Bloomington Firehouse Saturday evening at 8:15 sponsored by the fire company. Refreshments will be served.

Local Serviceman Marries Miss Ebras At Rites in France

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Yvette Renne Ebras of La Rochelle, France, to Pfc. David H. Whittaker, stationed at St. Jean d'Angely, France, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David F. Whittaker of 293 Foxhall avenue. The double ring ceremony took place in St. Jean d'Angely July 20.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother and wore a white satin gown with mandarin neckline and full, floor length skirt. Her veil was finger-tip length and she carried white gladioli. For the wedding trip to Paris, she wore a blue suit with white accessories.

At the present, the couple will reside in St. Jean d'Angely, but will return to Kingston when Pfc. Whittaker is discharged.

Miss Lamouree Honored At 12th Birthday Party

Miss Sally Ann Lamouree was guest of honor at a party for her 12th birthday given by her parents August 19 at their home in Blue Mountain. Miss Lamouree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Lamouree.

Those who attended were Roger Myer, Roland Hommel, Karen Eckerlein, Steven Borner, Nancy and Karen Hommel, Mary and Janet Schoonmaker, Joyce and Mervin Hommel, Angela Isgro, Mary Hennegan, Arthur and Carolyn Falk, David and Ellen Sheeder, Judy Buchan, Mrs. Floyd Myer and Mrs. Adelaide Turtle.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Arthur Quimby of 373 Boardway and Mr. and Mrs. C. Franklin Pierce of 249 Washington avenue spent the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Dumm of Fishing Creek Road, Mackeyville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. John LeFevre and son, Jackie, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., spent their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Berryann of Lomontville. Mr. and Mrs. Berryann also entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. Van Buren and Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis Burnside Saturday evening.

Newcomers' Club Holds Picnic in Asbury Park

The Newcomers' Club held a picnic at Trnka's, Asbury Park, Tuesday for 24 members and their families.

The club's first meeting of the fall will be held September 22 at the YWCA. The guest speaker will be announced.

Clean an electric toaster with brush to remove crumbs and with soapy water to clean the outside. Never immerse in water.

New Paltz Art Show Sunday

Members of the New Paltz Art Association turn in paintings to Larry Argiro, chairman of the hanging committee for the outdoor art show. The show will be held Sunday afternoon, Aug. 30, on the grounds around Pine's store, Main street, from noon to dusk. Admission is free and refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

GETTING AN EYEFUL—Young love gets the once-over from an older couple who seem to be saying: "Why, we never acted that way when we were young did we?" The scene took place along the promenade at Torquay, Eng., where "honeymooner" double-deck chairs were being tried out for the first time.

Labor Minister Caught

Tehran, Iran, Aug. 27 (AP)—Secret agents have caught former Labor Minister Ibrahim Alami in the search for top lieutenants of ex-Premier Mohammed Mossadegh. The arrest Tuesday night was discolsed today. Alami was on the official list as one of eight wanted men. That list is headed by Mossadegh's right-hand man, Hossein Fatemi, former foreign minister.

They Were Wrong

In Napoleon's time, engineers thought the Red Sea was 30 feet higher than the Mediterranean, but the cutting of the Suez Canal between the two bodies of water proved them wrong.

Scheffel Injured

William Scheffel, 17, of Ruby, suffered a laceration of the back of the head and a slight laceration of the shoulder, when according to police, "he fell through a door window" at the Ertel building, North Front street and Clinton avenue last night. A report at 10:02 p. m., said Scheffel, who was with several other boys, told the police that he "blacked out" as he was passing the building. He was taken to Kingston Hospital by Officers Harold Bowers and William Ballard.

Lawn Wedding Held For Beatrice Booth And Robert Brooks

MRS. ROBERT BROOKS

Miss Beatrice Ann Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Booth of Kerhonkson, became the bride of Robert J. Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Brooks of the same place, at a double ring ceremony, Sunday afternoon on the lawn of the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Clarence W. Hunter of Katonah officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white linen suit trimmed with Chantilly lace, three-quarter length sleeves and a ballerina length skirt. Her corsage was of white gladioli.

Miss Ellen Booth was her sister's maid of honor and wore a powder blue rayon linen suit with a pink rosebud corsage and blue accessories. Carl Carlson of Napanoch was best man.

The bride's mother was attired in a beige summer suit of linen with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of navy blue shantung with red accessories. Both had corsages of summer flowers.

The lawn of the Booth home was decorated with an arch of white and pink gladoli and streamers of pink and white. Baskets of red gladioli flanked the altar.

Miss Beverly Brown, organist, played Because and Promise Me, with Richard Baker as soloist.

Bloomington Fire Co.

A card party will be held at the Bloomington Firehouse Saturday evening at 8:15 sponsored by the fire company. Refreshments will be served.

Local Serviceman Marries Miss Ebras At Rites in France

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Yvette Renne Ebras of La Rochelle, France, to Pfc. David H. Whittaker, stationed at St. Jean d'Angely, France, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David F. Whittaker of 293 Foxhall avenue. The double ring ceremony took place in St. Jean d'Angely July 20.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother and wore a white satin gown with mandarin neckline and full, floor length skirt. Her veil was finger-tip length and she carried white gladioli. For the wedding trip to Paris, she wore a blue suit with white accessories.

At the present, the couple will reside in St. Jean d'Angely, but will return to Kingston when Pfc. Whittaker is discharged.

Miss Lamouree Honored At 12th Birthday Party

Miss Sally Ann Lamouree was guest of honor at a party for her 12th birthday given by her parents August 19 at their home in Blue Mountain. Miss Lamouree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Lamouree.

Those who attended were Roger Myer, Roland Hommel, Karen Eckerlein, Steven Borner, Nancy and Karen Hommel, Mary and Janet Schoonmaker, Joyce and Mervin Hommel, Angela Isgro, Mary Hennegan, Arthur and Carolyn Falk, David and Ellen Sheeder, Judy Buchan, Mrs. Floyd Myer and Mrs. Adelaide Turtle.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Arthur Quimby of 373 Boardway and Mr. and Mrs. C. Franklin Pierce of 249 Washington avenue spent the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Dumm of Fishing Creek Road, Mackeyville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. John LeFevre and son, Jackie, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., spent their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Berryann of Lomontville. Mr. and Mrs. Berryann also entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. Van Buren and Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis Burnside Saturday evening.

New Paltz Art Show Sunday

Members of the New Paltz Art Association turn in paintings to Larry Argiro, chairman of the hanging committee for the outdoor art show. The show will be held Sunday afternoon, Aug. 30, on the grounds around Pine's store, Main street, from noon to dusk. Admission is free and refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

GETTING AN EYEFUL—Young love gets the once-over from an older couple who seem to be saying: "Why, we never acted that way when we were young did we?" The scene took place along the promenade at Torquay, Eng., where "honeymooner" double-deck chairs were being tried out for the first time.

Labor Minister Caught

Tehran, Iran, Aug. 27 (AP)—Secret agents have caught former Labor Minister Ibrahim Alami in the search for top lieutenants of ex-Premier Mohammed Mossadegh. The arrest Tuesday night was discolsed today. Alami was on the official list as one of eight wanted men. That list is headed by Mossadegh's right-hand man, Hossein Fatemi, former foreign minister.

Scheffel Injured

William Scheffel, 17, of Ruby, suffered a laceration of the back of the head and a slight laceration of the shoulder, when according to police, "he fell through a door window" at the Ertel building, North Front street and Clinton avenue last night. A report at 10:02 p. m., said Scheffel, who was with several other boys, told the police that he "blacked out" as he was passing the building. He was taken to Kingston Hospital by Officers Harold Bowers and William Ballard.

Frank Flanagan Day Is Observed By Rotary Club

Members of the Kingston Rotary Club together with other Rotarians throughout the Hudson valley paid tribute to E. Frank Flanagan at a testimonial dinner held Wednesday evening at the Twaalfskill Golf Club. The dinner followed the annual day of golf for Rotarians in the area and was sponsored by the local service club.

Some fifty Rotarians from Poughkeepsie, Newburgh, Nyack, Catskill, Rhinebeck, Red Hook and Kingston cheered the honored guest when he was presented with a handsome cup—a token of appreciation for his interest in Rotary activities. Each year at the annual Rotary day of golf here, which will be known as the Frank Flanagan Tournament, a similar cup will be awarded.

Samuel D. Scudder, Jr., who has been associated with Frank Flanagan in Rotary and in business for the past 33 years, paid tribute to the sterling traits of character as exemplified by Frank in his dealings with his fellowmen. He also recalled some of their early experiences in Rotary and banking affairs.

Frederic Snyder, lecturer and news analyst, in his laudatory remarks, emphasized the service Frank has rendered his club and the city. He interspersed his talk with anecdotes appropriate to golfers.

Responding, the honored local business man said it was one of the happiest days of his life as he always loved Rotary.

Augustus Modjeska, chairman of the annual Rotary golf day, presented the speakers.

Larry Bogert, president of the club, presided and Elliott Whitney, chairman of interclub activities, made the prize awards.

Nine U. S. Soldiers Die, 44 Hurt in Mine Shift

Seoul, Aug. 27 (AP)—Nine American soldiers were killed and 44 injured during the first 20 days of the Korean truce while picking up land mines and amunition, the U. S. Eighth Army disclosed today.

No figures were released for the remaining 11 days since the truce.

All but five of the casualties occurred the first 10 days of the cease-fire. Apparently the number of such accidents has been cut down by a swiftly instituted safety campaign.

Most of the explosions were land mine blasts. Almost every yard of the old 150-mile front had been mined with only secret trails left free for use of patrols.

Urge Free Travel

Bonn, Germany, Aug. 27 (AP)—The three western allies urged the Russians today to permit all Germans to travel freely between the Bonn republic and Communist-ruled East Germany. The request was made in three similar letters from the high commissioners of the United States, Britain and France to Soviet High Commissioner Vladimir S. Semyenov. The three western occupation powers took the action at the request of the West German government, which proposed free travel as a preliminary requirement, for national elections throughout all zones.

Floods Collapse Wall

Rome, Aug. 27 (AP)—Rome's heaviest rain storm of the year flooded streets today and caused the collapse of a 120-foot section of the wall around Vatican City. Firemen received 500 calls to buildings where basements or ground floors were flooded.

How to Save Time

Want to save yourself time in the kitchen? While you're cleaning up after one day's dinner, start some preparation for a following day's meal. You can boil potatoes, for instance, for salad; or you can prepare a quick gelatin dessert and put it in the refrigerator to set and chill.

Astounding!

Yesterday two young ladies queried me, "Do you have knitted suits — you know, those two-piece knitted dresses?" At once I answered, "Yes, Ma'am, we do." Well, do you know they both looked startled and happy at the same time! "Why we've looked all over," they chorused.

After selling one $22.95 and one $15.95 garment to them, I settled back and decided—isn't this small incident just typical? It happens every day. People drop in and see for themselves what a locally-owned and operated store can really do, because it's owner can stock it full of hand-picked items in the latest women's wear — through weekly trips to the New York fashion market.

Do you find size 10 coats too large? Scott's have the answer by stocking size 8's! Do you constantly shop around for something tailored but not too tailored in a dress for $8.95? Scott's have the answer by concentrating 200 different dresses in that price range. Do you have a mother or sister who wears above a size 44 in a coat or dress? Yes, Scott's stock size 46 to 52 in both dresses and coats.

Have you been looking for an all-lace dress to wear to that wedding coming up in the near future? Well, Scott's can provide the answer there, too — with lace dresses at $19.98, $24.98, and $29.98 to suit any budget.

How about that wool cardigan that needs replacing? We have a lovely selection of wool sweaters —especially one number—a $3.98 seller that looks like $10.98.

How can we give such variety and values, you ask? Pure and simple — it's the spirit of competition that keeps us on the go at all times — searching the market for better fashions at reasonable prices.

By the way, listen to me on Tuesday morning at 9:15 on "Coffee at The Clinton." Although Ernie Ward and I will be talking on one aspect of Civilian Defense, hear if I don't get in a plug about Scott's, 295 Wall street in Kingston.—Advt.

Designer Uses Velvet Details

By GAILE DUGAS
NEA Woman's Editor

New York — (NEA) — The drama of black and white — women know its value well. Electrifying against a satiny, bronzed skin. Sleek and citified when it's accompanied by little white gloves, shiny white jewelry and a big black hat.

It appears on stage for summer, 1953, in suits cut with the same diligent care that's lavished on woolens for wintertime. Some of these suits are lined in pure silk. For others, there's a streak of black velvet as trim. All are citified suits with lots of places to go and things to do.

We all know, by now, that fabrics are full of fashion tricks. That the old concepts about wool and cotton have gone out the window. That we have far more freedom and flexibility in putting together a wardrobe.

Designers are learning to create clothes for a way of life. For yours, your neighbors' and your relatives' in California or Florida or Minnesota. And so we all benefit from the new concepts. We do a little experimenting ourselvs to find what we like and what we don't.

We try black and white for summer drama. We consider the cotton suit, making it the mainstay of our wardrobe just as we do with a woolen suit in winter.

And we, as well as the designers, discover new horizons.

Pack 15 Cub Scouts Hold Pet Show

Among the exhibitors and their exhibits at the first pet show sponsored by the Cub Scouts of Pack 15 at the Reformed Church of the Comforter Hall were (l-r) Raymond Daniels, Den 5, chickens; Gregory Furman, Den 4, rabbits; Robert Tremper, district scout commissioner, holding the puppy given by the SPCA; Richard Stillings, cat and Edmund Yeager and Charles Hill, Den 4, birds. (Freeman Photo)

Ribbons Awarded For Animals, Fish In Seven Classes

A chicken won the ribbon for being the noisiest character, and the first pet show of the Cub Scouts of Pack 15 featured about 25 exhibits of various animals and fish. Many a cage left the show with a winning ribbon dangling from the decorations.

The pet show was the regular monthly meeting of Pack 15, with Den Mother Ruth Stillings and Den Dad Richard Stillings in charge of the event which numbered well over a hundred people in attendance along with the Cub Scouts.

Receive Ribbons

Ribbon winners were as follows: Class 1, Best Cared for Pet, went to a dog belonging to James Connelly and billed as the mascot of Den 2; cats belonging to Richard Stillings of Den 3 and Jeffrey Williams of Den 2 took second and third place in this event. In Class 2, The Most Unusual Pet, Robert Chipchase of Den 1 captured both the blue and red ribbons with a praying mantis and a crawfish, with Raymond Daniels of Den 5 taking third place with some Chinese chickens. The Longest Pet blue ribbon went to Gregory Furman of Den 4 who exhibited some gigantic rabbits, while the members of Den 1 received the top award in Class 4, Whitest Pet, for a pigeon. The Blackest Pet award went to Roger Murphy of Den 4 for his spaniel dog, while the Shortest Pet ribbon went to George Bilyou of Den 1 for his display of an ant. Class 7, The Smallest Pets, was taken by Richard Sims of Den 3 with some black mallies, and Raymond Daniels of Den 5 captured the "pet with the most spots" with some bantam roosters. Then came the Noisiest Pet with Henry Field of Den 1 taking the honors with a chicken who defied all attempts to quiet her down. The final awards for the Best Cage went to Den 1 for first place and Den 5 for second place.

An interesting highlight of the meeting was the award of a puppy to Den Chief Jay Delaney. This puppy was given to Pack 15 by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whipple, Jr., of Connelly through the SPCA.

The flag ceremony opening the usual Grand Assembly section of the pack meeting was presented by Den 2 and featured for the first time the participation of the "alumnae" of a Den taking part in a ceremony.

Other Awards Made

Advancements awards to Cub Scouts for achievements of the past month included: Den 1: Henry Field and Robert Chipchase, gold and silver arrow points each; Den 2: Jeffery Williams, Wolf badge, Douglas Eighmey, Wolf badge, John Fabiano, Lion badge and one year service star, Charles Rion, 2 silver arrows, Edward Sarkies, 2 silver arrows, John Gillen, silver arrow and one year service star, William Brennan, silver arrow and assistant Denner's stripe; Den 3: Richard Showers, Lion badge, gold arrow, 2 silver arrows; Richard Simms, Lion badge, Richard Stillings, silver arrow, William Bodenweber, silver arrow; Den 5: Robert Gillen, silver arrow.

Den Mother Lillian Rittie was awarded a one-year service star with Pack 15, and Vincent DeCicco of Troop 15 was received into the Pack as a Den Chief.

Announcements included the selection of the 1953-1954 monthly themes and the request for parent-participation in these themes, a hobby show planned for the regular Pack meeting of Sept. 30, a trip to Boice Bros. Dairy for all Dens, and the attainment of first place for the first half of the year by Pack 15 in the contest for advancements for Packs in the Rip Van Winkle Council. Plans also are being considered for the Cubs to attend the Marine Band Concert Sept. 26.

Verdict Is Given On Death in Pool

A woman vacationist who collapsed and died in the shallow portion of a swimming pool at Ulster Heights on Wednesday afternoon died of natural causes, authorities determined following an investigation.

State police of the Ellenville station were notified that Mrs. Ann Shapiro, 52, of St. Albans, a guest at the Central Hotel at Ulster Heights, collapsed as she was standing in two and a half feet of water in the hotel's swimming pool about 3:15 p. m. Wednesday.

She was immediately pulled from the water and Dr. David Wainapel of Ellenville was summoned. He pronounced Mrs. Shapiro dead when he arrived.

Dr. Charles Rosenstock, Uuster county coroner, investigated and ruled death was due to natural causes.

Mrs. Shapiro had been vacationing at the Ulster Heights resort with her husband, Joseph, state police said. Her body was taken to the Pulling Funeral Home, where funeral arrangements were to be made.

Kerhonkson

Mrs. Cora Wells has taken up residence in a trailer home on the Samsonville road.

Mrs. Harry Robinson and two children were in Highland Mills Thursday night to visit their husband and father who is employed there.

Ed Wilson of Poughkeepsie was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Osterhoudt and daughter, Dawn and son, Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weiner and daughter, Roselle, and son, Dan, and Miss Lee Kaha of the Bronx were weekend guests of the Pacht family.

Mrs. Sally Baron of Brooklyn is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Mary Pacht.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Sussman and daughters, Shelley and Myra, were Sunday guests at an outdoor roast at the home of the Pacht family.

Michael Osterhoudt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Osterhoudt, is spending the week in New York with the Weintroupt family. Last week, he visited his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Axtell Johannsen at Stone Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Quick of Silver Springs, Md., and Mrs. Gussie Rugar of Hoboken have returned to their respective homes after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard DeWitt.

Mrs. Fred Tator and sons, Joe and Paul, are visiting her mother, Mrs. H. B. Humiston.

Mrs. Mary Pacht entertained Monday night. Guests present for the social hour were Mrs. Edward Pomerantz, Miss Jacqueline Pacht, Mrs. David Pomerantz, and Mrs. Seymour Pacht.

Cooking Hazard

Bemidji, Minn. (AP)—A 71-year-old poet, Edward Gilfillan, Long Beach, Calif., started a canoe trip from the source to the mouth of the Mississippi river. When he gave up, after five days, he wanted it clearly understood that it wasn't the paddling that made him change his mind. "It wasn't the river that beat me," he explained. "I just couldn't stand my own cooking."

Have you been looking for an all-lace dress to wear to that wedding coming up in the near future? Well, Scott's can provide the answer there, too — with lace dresses at $19.98, $24.98, and $29.98 to suit any budget.

How about that wool cardigan that needs replacing? We have a lovely selection of wool sweaters —especially one number—a $3.98 seller that looks like $10.98.

How can we give such variety and values, you ask? Pure and simple — it's the spirit of competition that keeps us on the go at all times — searching the market for better fashions at reasonable prices.

By the way, listen to me on Tuesday morning at 9:15 on "Coffee at The Clinton." Although Ernie Ward and I will be talking on one aspect of Civilian Defense, hear if I don't get in a plug about Scott's, 295 Wall street in Kingston.—Advt.

Pack 15 Cub Scouts Hold Pet Show

Among the exhibitors and their exhibits at the first pet show sponsored by the Cub Scouts of Pack 15 at the Reformed Church of the Comforter Hall were (l-r) Raymond Daniels, Den 5, chickens; Gregory Furman, Den 4, rabbits; Robert Tremper, district scout commissioner, holding the puppy given by the SPCA; Richard Stillings, cat and Edmund Yeager and Charles Hill, Den 4, birds. (Freeman Photo)

Ribbons Awarded For Animals, Fish In Seven Classes

A chicken won the ribbon for being the noisiest character, and the first pet show of the Cub Scouts of Pack 15 featured about 25 exhibits of various animals and fish. Many a cage left the show with a winning ribbon dangling from the decorations.

The pet show was the regular monthly meeting of Pack 15, with Den Mother Ruth Stillings and Den Dad Richard Stillings in charge of the event which numbered well over a hundred people in attendance along with the Cub Scouts.

Receive Ribbons

Ribbon winners were as follows: Class 1, Best Cared for Pet, went to a dog belonging to James Connelly and billed as the mascot of Den 2; cats belonging to Richard Stillings of Den 3 and Jeffrey Williams of Den 2 took second and third place in this event. In Class 2, The Most Unusual Pet, Robert Chipchase of Den 1 captured both the blue and red ribbons with a praying mantis and a crawfish, with Raymond Daniels of Den 5 taking third place with some Chinese chickens. The Longest Pet blue ribbon went to Gregory Furman of Den 4 who exhibited some gigantic rabbits, while the members of Den 1 received the top award in Class 4, Whitest Pet, for a pigeon. The Blackest Pet award went to Roger Murphy of Den 4 for his spaniel dog, while the Shortest Pet ribbon went to George Bilyou of Den 1 for his display of an ant. Class 7, The Smallest Pets, was taken by Richard Sims of Den 3 with some black mallies, and Raymond Daniels of Den 5 captured the "pet with the most spots" with some bantam roosters. Then came the Noisiest Pet with Henry Field of Den 1 taking the honors with a chicken who defied all attempts to quiet her down. The final awards for the Best Cage went to Den 1 for first place and Den 5 for second place.

An interesting highlight of the meeting was the award of a puppy to Den Chief Jay Delaney. This puppy was given to Pack 15 by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whipple, Jr., of Connelly through the SPCA.

The flag ceremony opening the usual Grand Assembly section of the pack meeting was presented by Den 2 and featured for the first time the participation of the "alumnae" of a Den taking part in a ceremony.

Other Awards Made

Advancements awards to Cub Scouts for achievements of the past month included: Den 1: Henry Field and Robert Chipchase, gold and silver arrow points each; Den 2: Jeffery Williams, Wolf badge, Douglas Eighmey, Wolf badge, John Fabiano, Lion badge and one year service star, Charles Rion, 2 silver arrows, Edward Sarkies, 2 silver arrows, John Gillen, silver arrow and one year service star, William Brennan, silver arrow and assistant Denner's stripe; Den 3: Richard Showers, Lion badge, gold arrow, 2 silver arrows; Richard Simms, Lion badge, Richard Stillings, silver arrow, William Bodenweber, silver arrow; Den 5: Robert Gillen, silver arrow.

Den Mother Lillian Rittie was awarded a one-year service star with Pack 15, and Vincent DeCicco of Troop 15 was received into the Pack as a Den Chief.

Announcements included the selection of the 1953-1954 monthly themes and the request for parent-participation in these themes, a hobby show planned for the regular Pack meeting of Sept. 30, a trip to Boice Bros. Dairy for all Dens, and the attainment of first place for the first half of the year by Pack 15 in the contest for advancements for Packs in the Rip Van Winkle Council. Plans also are being considered for the Cubs to attend the Marine Band Concert Sept. 26.

Verdict Is Given On Death in Pool

A woman vacationist who collapsed and died in the shallow portion of a swimming pool at Ulster Heights on Wednesday afternoon died of natural causes, authorities determined following an investigation.

State police of the Ellenville station were notified that Mrs. Ann Shapiro, 52, of St. Albans, a guest at the Central Hotel at Ulster Heights, collapsed as she was standing in two and a half feet of water in the hotel's swimming pool about 3:15 p. m. Wednesday.

She was immediately pulled from the water and Dr. David Wainapel of Ellenville was summoned. He pronounced Mrs. Shapiro dead when he arrived.

Dr. Charles Rosenstock, Uuster county coroner, investigated and ruled death was due to natural causes.

Mrs. Shapiro had been vacationing at the Ulster Heights resort with her husband, Joseph, state police said. Her body was taken to the Pulling Funeral Home, where funeral arrangements were to be made.

Kerhonkson

Mrs. Cora Wells has taken up residence in a trailer home on the Samsonville road.

Mrs. Harry Robinson and two children were in Highland Mills Thursday night to visit their husband and father who is employed there.

Ed Wilson of Poughkeepsie was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Osterhoudt and daughter, Dawn and son, Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weiner and daughter, Roselle, and son, Dan, and Miss Lee Kaha of the Bronx were weekend guests of the Pacht family.

Mrs. Sally Baron of Brooklyn is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Mary Pacht.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Sussman and daughters, Shelley and Myra, were Sunday guests at an outdoor roast at the home of the Pacht family.

Michael Osterhoudt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Osterhoudt, is spending the week in New York with the Weintroupt family. Last week, he visited his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Axtell Johannsen at Stone Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Quick of Silver Springs, Md., and Mrs. Gussie Rugar of Hoboken have returned to their respective homes after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard DeWitt.

Mrs. Fred Tator and sons, Joe and Paul, are visiting her mother, Mrs. H. B. Humiston.

Mrs. Mary Pacht entertained Monday night. Guests present for the social hour were Mrs. Edward Pomeranttz, Miss Jacqueline Pacht, Mrs. David Pomerantz, and Mrs. Seymour Pacht.

Cooking Hazard

Bemidji, Minn. (AP)—A 71-year-old poet, Edward Gilfillan, Long Beach, Calif., started a canoe trip from the source to the mouth of the Mississippi river. When he gave up, after five days, he wanted it clearly understood that it wasn't the paddling that made him change his mind. "It wasn't the river that beat me," he explained. "I just couldn't stand my own cooking."

Council Is Formed For Aid to Schools

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—A council for financial aid to education was formed yesterday—not to raise or spend money but to get businessmen interested in providing funds for privately operated colleges.

Among council sponsors are Alfred P. Sloan Jr., chairman of the Board of General Motors, and Frank W. Abrams, board chairman of Standard Oil.

Support also will be sought from labor unions, foundations, other organizations and unions.

Texan Remains Silent On Treatment as POW

Freedom Village, Korea, Aug. 27 (AP)—A Texan who was captured the day after U. S. troops entered the Korean war broke down in tears today on being released by the Reds.

"I just don't want to talk about anything now," said Cpl. Alfonso T. Matera, Jr., 22, of Alpine, Texas.

"Come on fellow, let's go get a shower," a sympathetic officer told the corporal, a Red prisoner since July 6, 1950.

"You will feel better after that."

Asked by newsmen if his emotional breakdown meant he didn't want the folks back home to know what he had endured, Matera mutely nodded.

437 to Arrive

San Francisco, Aug. 27 (AP)—The army announced yesterday that 437 repatriated prisoners of war would arrive Saturday aboard the Transport General W. V. Hase including Cpl. Albert A. Gruarin, 132-07 82nd street, Ozone Park, N. Y.

Early Nazi Days Background of Playhouse Drama

Woodstock, Aug. 26—I Am A Camera, John Van Druten's drama which takes place on the fringes of the early days of Nazism in the city of Berlin, opened at the Woodstock Playhouse Tuesday night. A confused and not too successful young British writer in search of inspiration in the German capital assumes the eye of the camera and the story unfolds. Not always, however, is he the cold, emotionally detached lens, for frequently he steps into the picture himself, enough to be hurt and disappointed himself.

Once within the range of the camera eye, Sally Bowles becomes its paramount target and the shots are searching, relentless with all the details brought into sharp focus. Sally is revealed as a selfish, irresponsible, pleasure-seeking international juvenile delinquent. For a time she flashes brightly across the drab background of a cheap Berlin boardinghouse, a pathetic particle of fluff disturbed only when her well-being is threatened. She is not even vaguely aware of the sinster rumblings of war, the brutal street riots and the growing disturbance about her.

In Convincing Role

Jane Lloyd-Jones is completely believable as Sally. She keeps Sally's quick-silver emotions at a high pitch. Willard Sage turns in his best performance of the season as the troubled, groping Christopher, and Maude Schreerer contributes her share of highlights as Fraulein Schneider their landlady.

Jo Rabb is convincing as the forthright Natalia Landauer in stable contrast to the mercurical Sally. John Hallow as her suitor, Frijtz Wendel also contributes a sincere performance. Bess Johnson's brief moments on stage as Mrs. Watson-Courtneidge, Sally's mother help to focus the picture of Sally's background, and Joe Callaway as Clive Mortimer a bit of light and shadow to the print.

I AM A Camera is not a play that will bring a lift or inspiration—it's simply a picture of a girl on her way down, descending in the twilight of an era, yet never once aware of the shadows.

Captains Named For Scout Drive; Dinner Tonight

Woodstock, Aug. 26—The Rev. Harvey I. Todd, chairman of the drive for funds for the Rip Van Winkle Council of the Boy Scouts of America, in the Woodstock area, has announced that the following captains will be in charge of their designated areas for the solicitation of funds: Griffin Herrick, Ohayo Mountain road; Martin Comeau, Tinker street and the upper village; Fred Mower, the lower village; Frank Benson, the Woodstock-West Hurley and Maverick roads; Harold Mellin, Bearsville and the Bearsville road; Eric Wiltz, Rock City road and the lower Glasco Turnpike; Dudley Summers, upper Glasco Turnpike, Byrdcliffe and Mead's; Mrs. David Mellert, Mrs. Montcena DeWitt, Mrs. William Vogel and Mrs. Albert Holumzer, Zena; Clifford Carnright, Shady and Lake Hill; Edgar Baker, Wittenberg; Charles Timpson, Willow.

Each captain will be assisted during the drive, which starts with a kick-off dinner in the basement of the Dutch Reformed Church, at 6:30 tonight, by six volunteers in each area.

Village Notes

Woodstock, Aug. 26—Mrs. Syd Schlanger of Jamaica Estates, with her two daughters, Gail and Ellen, arrived today to spend a week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Leshen.

Fair Volunteers Are Guests at Tea

Woodstock, Aug. 26—Volunteers who served as chairmen of the various sections and tables at the Woodstock Library Fair, which took place on Thursday, July 30, were the guests at a tea Tuesday afternoon at the Town House. The group was welcomed by Mrs. Herman Oxhandler, president of the library, who asked for suggestions from the chairmen concerning the plans for next year's fair. Mrs. Oxhandler said that she hoped to have the staff pledged in the near future for next year's fair.

It was agreed that the new opening time for the fair, of 12 noon, instead of 1 p. m., which had been observed in previous years, had proved highly successful, as $82 worth of sandwiches and $52 worth of iced tea had been sold during the lunch hour, all of which had been donated. It was also agreed that next year the fair will close at 5 p. m.

Other Plans Discussed

It was suggested that each chairman obtain the assistance of one or two people who would set to work about 4:30 p. m., to help with the packing of left-over articles, to clear the tables and to assist with the cleaning up of the sections.

Plans also were discussed concerning a more workable arrangement of the magician's tent which is always located in the grounds to the rear of the library. Further plans concerning this project will be announced later.

A proposed plan also was discussed for a post-fair sale of articles left over from the fair, to probably be held in a vacant store in the village during the week following the fair. Mrs. Oxhandler will appoint a post-fair committee to handle the sale of articles.

Plans also were outlined for the purpose of obtaining more games and amusments for children at next year's fair. Mrs. Oxhandler said that there is ample room in the area next to the magician's tent where these games might be set up.

Engravings Show Is Opened by Bare

Woodstock, Aug. 26—An exhibition of wood engravings of pre-War Poland, by Alphonse Bare, opened Tuesday night in the lobby of the Woodstock Playhouse, arranged by Jerry Jerominek.

The engravings, which were made by Bare before the outbreak of World War 2, in and about the city of Cracow, Poland, include glimpses of the ancient city streets, portraits of the young and old inhabitants and scenes in the fields and buildings of near-by farms.

"They were putting up the barbed wire around the city before we left," Bare recalls, and although the city did not suffer devastation experienced in many of the Polish cities, he believes that some of the places he pictured have been destroyed.

"It's a city filled with history, and almost every building is an ancient one," the artist said.

Exhibit Opens Sunday

Woodstock, August 26—An exhibition of the work completed during the summer by the students of Frances Stein, will open Sunday, Aug. 30, at her studio on the Old Wagon road. The exhibition will continue through September 6.

Brings Good News

Seoul, Aug. 27 (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet, former 8th Army commander, called on President Syngman Rhee today and gave him the good news that South Korea is about to receive almost a half million dollars. Van Fleet, a member of the American-Korean Foundation Mission headed by Dr. Howard A. Rusk, presented his old friend with a report outlining 86 grants which the mission has handed over in the past seven days.

Loses $700 in Buttons

Westfield, Aug. 27 (AP)—Button, button, who's got the buttons, police here want to know. Harry Golding, an antique dealer from Belleview, Fla., reported he lost a suitcase containing more than 600 pearl buttons, valued at $700.

...here he will stay at the se...ded ranch of an old friend, ...el Neilsen, who was accom...ying the President. They may ...joined later in the week by ...r friends.

"This will be a complete vaca...," White House Press Secre... James C. Hagerty told news...

On Partial Vacation

...ince he arrived in Denver Aug. ...Eisenhower has been on a par... vacation, working in the ...rnings at his Lowry Air Force ...e office, golfing or fishing near...n the afternoons.

...he Neilsen ranch with swift-running St. Louis creek close by for trout fishing is one of Eisenhower's favorite vacation spots. He spent about 10 days there last year shortly after he won the presidential nomination.

The ranch is about 9,000 feet high in the Rockies and is rimmed by snow-capped mountains. The President will stay, probably through next Tuesday, in a two-bedroom log cabin which also has a comfortably furnished living room.

Another cabin nearby has a modern kitchen where Eisenhower specialized last summer in cooking flapjacks, trout and steaks. He and Neilsen plan to do their own cooking again this year.

Another hobby which probably will get a good deal of Eisenhower's attention again is oil painting. Last year he turned out several landscapes of the area around the ranch.

When the President leaves Fraser next week he will return to Denver and remain until after Labor Day, perhaps until about Sept. 15, before returning to Washington.

Mrs. Eisenhower is staying in Denver at the home of her mother, Mrs. John S. Doud, while the President vacations at Fraser.

Vishinsky Makes 'Master Race' Speech

Russia's Andrei Vishinsky raises his fist and looks over at U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., left, as he accuses United States and its allies of acting like a "master race." Between them at UN session is Britain's Sir Gladwyn Jebb. Referring to 15-power resolution backed by Lodge, Vishinsky accused the allies of trying to run through an ultimatum to the Reds on the makeup of the Korean peace conference. His bitter, angry speech came as UN 60-nation Political Committee continued debate on the peace conference question.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

Saugerties, Aug. 26—The visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile, which was scheduled for Wednesday, was canceled due to the lack of donors. The quota for the visit had been set at 150 pints or 215 donors. Since only about one-third of that number had been pledged, the New York office decided the trip would be too great an expense.

Freed PW Tells How Chinese Put Wounded to Death

Freedom Village, Korea, Aug. 27 (AP)—A freed American corporal told today how Chinese soldiers sprayed bullets into truckloads of wounded men and then tossed hand grenades into the midst of the screaming men.

Cpl. Gerard A. Francois, 23, of Jersey City, N.J., said:

"There were about 20 of us guarding a convoy of wounded. There were about 300 wounded. They were stacked in trucks three deep.

"Suddenly, the Chinese overran us. We fought but they were all over us. Chinese soldiers jumped up on the backs of the trucks and sprayed burp guns into them. They were screaming and hollering and crying for their mothers and everything.

"Some Chinese soldiers climbed under the trucks and sprayed bullets up to make sure they got everybody. Then they threw hand grenades into the trucks.

"I kept yelling for an officer and yelled that the men were wounded, but the Chinese wouldn't stop."

Francois was led away with 18 other men "while the wounded were still screaming and the shooting was going on."

Letter Saves Life

Mount Dora, Fla. (AP)—Paul H. Johnson figures a letter he hadn't mailed may have saved his life, like this: He was driving to the postoffice when a windstorm felled a tree on his car. He grabbed the door handle but received a severe shock from live wires the tree had pulled on to the automobile. He used the letter as an insulator, opened the door and stepped out just as the car roof caved in from the tree's weight. He escaped with a sprained back and minor cuts.

Water for Ike's Birthplace

Denison, Tex. (AP)—The Denison house where President Eisenhower was born will get running water for the first time. The city council agreed to extend a line from a hydrant in the yard to the kitchen sink. This was asked by women serving as hostesses of the home—now a showplace. The ladies hope some day a restroom will be installed. The Eisenhower birthplace plumbing is of the outside variety.

Wooden Spoons Useful

Wooden spoons are so useful in cooking because their handles do not get hot and they never leave marks on bowls, skillets or saucepans.

"Suddenly, the Chinese overran us. We fought but they were all over us. Chinese soldiers jumped up on the backs of the trucks and sprayed burp guns into them. They were screaming and hollering and crying for their mothers and everything.

"Some Chinese soldiers climbed under the trucks and sprayed bullets up to make sure they got everybody. Then they threw hand grenades into the trucks.

"I kept yelling for an officer and yelled that the men were wounded, but the Chinese wouldn't stop."

Francois was led away with 18 other men "while the wounded were still screaming and the shooting was going on."

Letter Saves Life

Mount Dora, Fla. (AP)—Paul H. Johnson figures a letter he hadn't mailed may have saved his life, like this: He was driving to the postoffice when a windstorm felled a tree on his car. He grabbed the door handle but received a severe shock from live wires the tree had pulled on to the automobile. He used the letter as an insulator, opened the door and stepped out just as the car roof caved in from the tree's weight. He escaped with a sprained back and minor cuts.

Water for Ike's Birthplace

Denison, Tex. (AP)—The Denison house where President Eisenhower was born will get running water for the first time. The city council agreed to extend a line from a hydrant in the yard to the kitchen sink. This was asked by women serving as hostesses of the home—now a showplace. The ladies hope some day a restroom will be installed. The Eisenhower birthplace plumbing is of the outside variety.

Wooden Spoons Useful

Calls Lawyer Guild Red Mouthpiece

Boston, Aug. 27 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell today described the National Lawyers Guild as the legal mouthpiece for the Communist party and announced he proposed to put it on his list of subversive organizations.

Brownell made the announcement in an address prepared for the American Bar Association, (ABA) in convention here.

He said he had, earlier in the day, served notice on the Guild of its proposed inclusion on the list which the government uses in checking the affiliations of federal workers in relation to their loyalty and security.

The notice means the Guild has 10 days in which to ask for a hearing, if it desires to present evidence on why the organization should not go on the list.

Would Bar Communists

The Brownell announcement followed adoption by the ABA house of delegates of a resolution declaring that Communists should be barred from the legal profession in this country.

It was included in a speech devoted to broad policy pronouncements in which the new attorney general said:

1. The lawyer who leaves government service to join up with "the other side" in pending litigation against the United States with which he is familiar "commits a crime," and he has instructed the U. S. district attorneys to start a program of prosecutions in this field. Brownell asserted the law forbidding such activity within two years after leaving the government has never been enforced.

2. The Justice Department will continue a vigorous crackdown on the underworld through denaturalizations of racketeers with acquired citizenship, deportations of alien criminals, and stricter interpretations of the income tax laws designed to punish the syndicated hoodlums.

3. The department will seek legislation requiring communications companies to refuse telephone or telegraph service to those using these facilities for gambling purposes.

Of the National Lawyers Guild, long under the fire of the House Un-American Activities Committee, Brownell said:

"It has been clear that at least since 1946 the leadership of the Guild has been in the hands of card-carrying Communists and prominent fellow travelers.

"On every major issue since then it has steadfastly followed the party line and its programs and actions have been consistent with it, excepting only those issues so notorious that their espousal would too clearly demonstrate the Communist control. It has become more and more the legal mouthpiece for the Communist party and its members and it has consistently opposed all laws or investigations which have sought to curb or expose Communist activity in the United States.

"It is because the evidence shows that the National Lawyers Guild is at present a Communist dominated and controlled organization fully committed to the Communist party line that I have today served notice on it to show cause why it should not be designated on the attorney general's list of subversive organizations."

The Guild, which has headquarters in New York, was organized in 1937. In 1944, it was described by the Un-American Activities Committee as a Communist front, and more recently as "the legal bulwark of the Communist party."

Garge Not Pressed In Williams Arrest

Clarence Williams, 23, of 20 Ann street, who appeared in city court yesterday morning and drew a suspended sentence on a petit larceny charge, was arrested in the afternoon on a third degree assault charge.

Officers Edward Edwards and John Frasch were sent on a call to 20 Ann street yesterday afternoon and Williams was arrested by Nina Delanoy, of that address. She failed to appear against him this morning before City Judge Raymond J. Mino and the charge was dismissed.

The arrest yesterday morning by Detectives Clarence Brophy and Frank Sammons was on a warrant. He was charged with the theft of an automobile radiator from Dean's junk yard and was given a suspended sentence of 30 days in jail.

George Ennist, 49, also of 20 Ann street, was arrested by Myra Watts at 4:58 p. m., yesterday on a third degree assault charge. Officers Edwards and Frasch answered a call for police to the Ann street address. Ennist pleaded guilty before Judge Mino today and sentence was postponed until tomorrow.

Dulles Tells Bar UN Paper Obsolete

Boston, Aug. 27 (AP) —The American Bar Association, having Secretary of State Dulles describe the United Nations Charter as "obsolete," turns over its rostrum today to Atty. Gen. Brownell and Lord Simonds, lord high chancellor of Great Britain.

Dulles told the lawyers at their 75th anniversary convention yesterday that the charter is a pre-atomic age charter and "in this sense it was obsolete before it actually came into force."

"If the delegates (at San Francisco in 1945) had know that the mysterious and immeasurable power of the atom would be available as a means of mass destruction," he said, "the provisions of the charter dealing with disarmament and the regulation of armaments would have been far more emphatic and realistic."

Favors Conference

He said the United States will favor holding a conference to review the charter when the question comes before the General Assembly in 1955.

On another topic, the secretary declared that the need has passed for a constitutional amendment limiting the executive's treaty-making powers, such as Sen. Bricker (R.-Ohio) has proposed.

As the convention entered its next to last day, the mineral law section unanimously approved a resolution proposing that federal lands be sold to private interests once they have served the purposes for which the government purchased them.

In particular the resolution mentioned grazing lands now held by the Department of the Interior.

'Freedom Under Law'

Atty. Gen. Brownell's topic this afternoon before the Assembly—the same body which heard his cabinet colleague Dulles—was "Freedom Under Law."

A few hours later Lord Simonds, who has been present at all the principal convention sessions, is scheduled to address the bar's annual dinner on "Liberty Within the Law."

Brownell told a news conference yesterday that the Justice Department will give prompt attention to a bar association report, adopted by the House of Delegates, calling upon the attorney general to determine whether Communist and pro-Communist lawyers should be allowed to practice.

"We'll have to give it pretty careful study before we have anything to say about it," Brownell said. "We'll have to study the legal authority of various officials, state, legal and judicial, before we know what we're doing. But we will do so promptly."

John Crosson, Veteran Political Writer Dies

Yonkers, Aug. 27 (AP)—John Crosson, 53, veteran political writer and columnist of the New York Daily News, died today in St. Joseph's Hospital, Yonkers.

He had been under medical treatment for about six months, and was taken to the hospital last night.

Crosson wrote a Sunday column, "City Hall," concerning city politics. He also had conducted a WPIX television panel show of the same name, consisting largely of interviews with New York city political personalities.

Crosson, who lived with his family at 21 Haddon road, Greenburgh, near Scarsdale, joined the News April 4, 1927, as a city desk telephone assistant. He became a staff reporter in 1936.

He had worked his way through Fordham University and had attended Fordham Law School for two years.

Crosson was president of the Innter Circle, an organization of New York political writers, and a member of the Greenwich Village Council, Knights of Columbus, and the American Legion. He served in the navy in World War 1.

THE RUMINATOR

By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

A Column of Contrary Opinion

You can take current economic statistics and come up with about any forecast you choose to make.

What forecast you finally settle on, however, will be about as cloudy as President Coolidge's famous statement concerning the 1928 Republican nomination: "I do not choose to run."

You may choose to say that the boom is blowing itself out, as countless forecasters are saying today.

But you cannot be sure of your reasons for thinking the boom is about finished because you haven't the foggiest notion what events may occur to change your reasons. For example, did you foresee the coup d'etat in Iran which overthrew Premier Mohammed Mossadegh and brought back the Shah to his throne? The Shah now says his nation is "broke" and that he'll accept aid from any source coming forward with offers. How will this end up? Will the United States be the one to bail out Iran, or will Russia offer to be an affectionate brother who comes across with funds? There is a big stake, you know: Oil.

I merely throw in the Iranian upset to illustrate the thought that you can go haywire with predictions under present world conditions.

Let me emphasize a contrary idea that is not given any consideration.

And yet this may be the keystone in building up your forecasts.

Have you noticed that offensive moves on the part of Russia, instead of throwing us into an economic tailspin, tend to stretch out our boom?

The Ruminator thinks this is significant and that you ought to think about it.

We are repeatedly told—and there are good reasons to accept supposition—that Russia's long-run strategy is two-fold: (1) To split the western nations so they will not pull together smoothly in their opposition to the Soviet; and (2) to force an economic slump and depression in the United States.

Note that this is a long-run strategy; not a quick play.

At this writing it may be said, I think, that Russia has made considerable progress in the first part of her program. There is undoubtedly a wider division of policy toward Russia today, among the western nations, than has been the case since the cold war commenced. This will become more apparent as the UN discussions on far-eastern problems become more heated.

When you consider the second phase — economic depressants in the United States—you have to hold constantly in mind, as I see it, three factors:

a. That Russia continually misjudges the economic strength of America, and is therefore away off in her "timing" of an economic smash-up here.

b. That her various offensive moves are counterbalanced by our expedients, which in turn—

c. Act to stretch out the boom in the U. S.

But we have to look further ahead. It is not enough simply to appraise what has happened, and is happening today.

The torturing thought (if I may use such a word) is that in the long-run Russia is certain to win out in the second phase, as well as in the first. She can cause an economic bust in this country if she wishes to pay the price. You and I know that Russia is unmindful of costs.

By paying costs, I mean that Russia can upset the economic apple-cart in the United States (and in other "non-cooperative nations") by forcing us to continue a stupendous arms build-up and additionally to pour out funds to bolster other weaker nations. Russia can demonstrate that she is building armies, armaments, and A- and H- bombs; she can make offers to trade with nations on highly favorable terms; she can offer Iran (for instance) and other backward countries both monetary and technical aid. What if these programs "cost" Russia huge sums? So what? Russia calculates social welfare at zero. She is not interested in a standard of living; only in the standing of communism.

So I say that any short-run prediction is guessing on events, rather than on facts. But as things stand now the short-term looks brighter than the long, merely on the basis of the foregoing ruminations.

Bounty on Emu

Although the emu was once threatened with extinction, it has come back to the point where it is a pest with a bounty on its beak in parts of Australia.

Haymes Will Take Deportation Case To Highest Court

Los Angeles, Aug. 27 (AP)—The deportation blues piled up on crooner Dick Haymes today as he surveyed the discordant score: A second exportable charge by the government, and three subpoenas.

The harried Haymes sweated through a 5½-hour preliminary hearing yesterday at which he admitted filing an application for relief from military service during World War 2 as a citizen of a neutral country. He said he thought the application was only for temporary deferment and "never realized what the effect would be."

His attorneys said they'll fight the crooner's battle with the Immigration Service to the Supreme Court, if necessary.

The hearing also brought out that Haymes had a previously undisclosed marriage—his first—to Edith Harper, also a singer, in Chicago in 1939. It lasted only two or three weeks, he said.

Haymes admitted owing Uncle Sam an income tax bill, but said he didn't know offhand just how much. He was told to bring exact figures to a subsequent session.

Gets Subpoenas

Before the day was over three process servers handed the singer subpoenas. In one his second wife, Joanne Dru, says he's behind in alimony payments. The second was notification of a divorce filed by current wife Nora Eddington. The final subpoena claimed he owes a department store $415.

Born in Argentina, Haymes came to the United States in 1937 and has not become a citizen. The government charges he was ineligible to reenter the Continental United States last June after visiting actress Rita Hayworth, who Hollywood gossip says will become wife number 4.

Immigration officers contend the law forbids citizenship to any alien who has sought exemption from military service, and forbids entry into this country of any alien who can never become a citizen.

Second Charge

At the end of the hearing, the government added a second deportable charge — that Haymes failed to notify immigration authorities of his 1953 address during January. Haymes said he gave the information on Feb. 2 after being informed he had failed to comply with the law.

Attorney David C. Marcus, who with Robert E. Eaton represented the singer before hearing Officer Joseph A. Dummel of the Immigration Service, objected to much of the questioning and to the additional charge.

"We will take the case to the Supreme Court of the United States if necessary," Marcus told reporters. He gained a continuance of the hearing until Sept. 28 after the second charge was filed by examining officer Thomas J. Nolan.

Next legal move in the case will be a hearing Friday before U. S. Judge Peirson Hall on Haymes' petition for an injunction to halt the deportation proceedings.

Ancient Language

Sanskirt is the language of the ancient Hindus, no longer spoken and understood only by Brahmins. Among the oldest of Sanskrit writings are the Vedas, which are believed to be as old as 2000 B.C.

Dutch Oven Useful

A Dutch oven is a practical kitchen buy because it may be used four ways: For roasting in the oven, for roasting or braising on top of the range, for casserole dishes, and as a saucepan.

Arrives for Deportation Hearing

Crooner Dick Haymes (left), accompanied by attorney David Marcus, arrives for his Immigration Service deportation hearing in Los Angeles. The government proposes to deport him to his native Argentina because he asked for exemption from military service during World War 2 as a neutral alien. Haymes says he twice tried to enlist in 1945 and was rejected as physically unfit.

Baskets Prey

The dragonfly feeds on insects which it catches in the air. The prey is seized by the six legs, all of which can be brought forward, forming a basket. Insects are caught in this basket and quickly transferred to the mouth.

Cover Large Area

It is estimated that if all U. S. forests were in one plot they would cover an area equal to all states east of the Mississippi plus Kansas and Louisiana.

Dulles Tells Bar UN Paper Obsolete

Boston, Aug. 27 (AP) —The American Bar Association, having Secretary of State Dulles describe the United Nations Charter as "obsolete," turns over its rostrum today to Atty. Gen. Brownell and Lord Simonds, lord high chancellor of Great Britain.

Dulles told the lawyers at their 75th anniversary convention yesterday that the charter is a pre-atomic age charter and "in this sense it was obsolete before it actually came into force."

"If the delegates (at San Francisco in 1945) had know that the mysterious and immeasurable power of the atom would be available as a means of mass destruction," he said, "the provisions of the charter dealing with disarmament and the regulation of armaments would have been far more emphatic and realistic."

Favors Conference

He said the United States will favor holding a conference to review the charter when the question comes before the General Assembly in 1955.

On another topic, the secretary declared that the need has passed for a constitutional amendment limiting the executive's treaty-making powers, such as Sen. Bricker (R.-Ohio) has proposed.

As the convention entered its next to last day, the mineral law section unanimously approved a resolution proposing that federal lands be sold to private interests once they have served the purposes for which the government purchased them.

In particular the resolution mentioned grazing lands now held by the Department of the Interior.

'Freedom Under Law'

Atty. Gen. Brownell's topic this afternoon before the Assembly—the same body which heard his cabinet colleague Dulles—was "Freedom Under Law."

A few hours later Lord Simonds, who has been present at all the principal convention sessions, is scheduled to address the bar's annual dinner on "Liberty Within the Law."

Brownell told a news conference yesterday that the Justice Department will give prompt attention to a bar association report, adopted by the House of Delegates, calling upon the attorney general to determine whether Communist and pro-Communist lawyers should be allowed to practice.

"We'll have to give it pretty careful study before we have anything to say about it," Brownell said. "We'll have to study the legal authority of various officials, state, legal and judicial, before we know what we're doing. But we will do so promptly."

Cops' DP Rubs Out Lawyers' Rally in Last Inning for 14-13 Win

1,500 Fans Jam Park For Arclight Thriller

The Lawyers had the Police on the run when Bud Culloton (of all people!) hit into a game-ending double play last night at municipal stadium.

That gave the youthful and harried patrolmen a 14-13 decision over the baseball representatives of the Ulster County Bar Association in probably the most interesting game ever staged by the Kingston Patrolmen's Association.

More than 1,500 fans, the largest crowd in many stadium moons, crowded into the uptown park to see a game filled with unrehearsed comedy, some surprisingly professional baseball heroics and a few real Durocher-Magerkurth exchanges between Judge Harry E. Schirick and plate umpire William "Pie" Murphy.

Judge Is Reversed

For the first time in his long and distinguished career as a jurist, Judge Schirick was reversed on every appeal.

A sudden streak of wildness by Francis Loeffler, the second Police pitcher, enabled the Lawyers to score three runs in the sixth and reduce the Police lead to 14-12.

Judge Schirick then started masterminding like a two-headed Durocher. He inserted Abe Molyneaux, the skier, as a pinch hitter and Abe drew a walk. Bob Carnright looped a single to center and that put runners on first and second. This called for the sacrifice bunt and Charlie Gaffney, one of the Lawyer standouts, dropped a beauty to move both runners a notch.

Bob Ortale rapped to shortstop George Dougherty who went for the DP but got only one man. Sherwood Davis, who had run for Molyneaux, came home with the 13th run. That left runners on second and third and Culloton at the plate. But the former Colonial great just didn't get the pitch he wanted. He grounded sharply to Loeffler, who tossed to Bill Slover and the DP was completed at first.

That terminated the seven-inning contest 14-13 in favor of the cops and sent the large crowd home satisfied.

Police 'Steal' Game

Actually, the Police (shame on them!) stole the ball game from the barristers. Every base hit, walk or Lawyer safety became an automatic double or triple. Bob Ortale the catcher looked like Roy Campanella but, alas, he didn't throw as well.

Loeffler's relief pitching carried the Cops through. He experienced only one rough inning after taking over from Manager Len Ellsworth in the third. Schirick's crew had gotten real chummy with the Police starter in the first two innings, scoring two runs in the first inning and six in the second to lead 8-2. The Cops made it 8-6, then 8-7 and didn't take the lead until the fourth when a four-run rally moved them ahead, 11-9.

Schirmer Cracks Homer

Ernest Schirmer, the Saugerties barrister, furnished a professional touch in the early moments of the game. With two outs and Fritz Bruhn on first base, big Ernie lined a terrific home run shot to left field. The ball landed inside the foul line and rolled over the embankment.

Press Box Observations — The Cops scored in every inning off starter Bud Culloton and reliefer, DA Jack St. John. Matty Weishaupt, who opened at shortstop, turned in a neat relief chore for the Lawyers. Why didn't they start him as a pitcher? "We didn't have anybody who could make the throw from shortstop," said Leo Schirick. The young men of the KPA slugged the three Lawyer pitchers for 14 hits, a million stolen bases and a few errors. Bill Slover, who played left field and second, slammed three hits. Lou Sapp had a nice triple. Lou Berger, Lawyer first sacker, played like a pro, collected a double and single and hit every ball with authority. Charlie Gaffney handled two hot shots to left in the first inning, got a couple hits, one a bunt, to qualify as one of the Lawyer standouts. Every time Judge Schirick and "Pie" Murphy engaged in a rhubarb, some guy in the press box played a record that related about the misfeasances, malfeasances and indiscretions of all umpires in general. However, the platter did not affect Murphy's decisions or cause him to reverse himself. Johnny Crespino came up with a dazzling stop at third base. Assistant DA James Abernethy gave Judge Schirick an assist with the lineup and pre-game chores, while Judge John M. Cashin did a brief whirl as first base coach. Acting Mayor Joe Kelly tossed out the first ball and borrowed that "phantom pitch" from the Georgia Chain Gang. The laughs started early. Outfielder Bill Hanley stumbled and fell near the running track as the Police trotted out to take their positions. Gaffney took a header chasing Lou Sapp's triple to the left field corner. Lou landed at third base like a sack of flower. Dick Overbagh relieved Judge Cashin as first base coach but had little luck trying to move some of the Lawyers' short-winded runners. Considering the fact it was played under lights, a new experience for most of the participants, the contest was remarkably free of ludicrous errors. It was more eye-catching than anything in recent KPA history and should call for repeat in 1954.

Subway Grill moved a step closer to the 1953 City Softball League pennant by shutting out VFW, 4-0, behind Joe Amato's three-hit pitching.

The victory gave the Grills a 19-2 record for the season and they need only two out of their next three games to stand off the Hilltop Rest challenge.

In other action, Sickler's Delivery had two big innings—six in the first and five in the fifth—to outlast Esopus Legion, 14 to 12. The Esopus tossers scored five runs in the sixth and were stopped after three more in the top of the seventh.

Amato restricted the Vets to singles by Watts, Ausanio and Undven, the opposing pitcher, who gave eight hits, including a pair of doubles by Vince Peck and a double and single by Frank Spada. Subway garnered its four runs in the fourth.

Jack Kozolowski of Sickler's lost a grand slam homer when Leo Wells failed to touch second base after Jack's long smash in the fifth. It was the third out and prevented the Deliverymen from piling up a more decisive margin.

In the 24-hit slugfest, Hinkley, Sickler shortstop, slugged two homers and a single. Don and Jim Ferraro had homers for Esopus. Bob Graves pounded a single and triple and Bill Prendergast hit three solo swats.

The Elks, newly-crowned champions of the Fraternal Youth League—merely went through the paces to notch their 10th success of the 1953 campaign Wednesday night in the first half of the double-header at municipal stadium as they defeated the KPA by 2 to 0.

The FYL contest preceded the big clash of the night between the Cops and Lawyers.

Then in the top half of the fifth, the champs broke the scoring famine with a pair of runs and the ball game.

Pitcher Starts Rally

Tom Van Etten, who hurled for the Elks, started the uprising with a walk and then pilfered second. Dick Hornbeck also walked but Dick Kearney whiffed for the first out. Bob Pratt moved both runners up with a sacrifice. The Elks countered with their first run when Van Etten streaked for home on a wild pitch by Lorenzo Gianuzzi as Hornbeck tood third. Hornbeck tallied when Tony Turck hit to Bob Raible at short. Raible's throw to first went astray as Hornbeck came in with the second and final run of the ball game.

The Elks were held to two hits by Giannuzzi who walked five and struck out six. Van Etten issued three passes and fanned five.

Torch Key Takes Race

Yonkers, Aug. 27 (AP) — Torch Key, owned by William J. Alberg of Glen Head, withstood a powerful stretch drive by Bengazi last night to win the $5,800 Central Trot by a half length at Yonkers Raceway. Saratoga Hanover took the lead at the start and was on the front end until the far turn when he stumbled and went into a break. Torch Key, with Warren Dennis in the sulky, took the lead and battled off Bengazi. Algerine was third. The time for the mile was 2:07.3. Torch Key, second in the betting, returned $8.40 for $2.

Schryver Pinmen TripHVBLChamps In First Block

The Hudson Valley Bowling League will have a new and powerful Kingston entry to contend with in the 1953-54 season that gets under way shortly after Labor Day.

The new combine, sponsored by Schryver Lumber Company, unloaded a dazzling 3167 Saturday night to gain a 62-pin lead over the former Miron Lumber combine in the first half of a home and home series for a steak dinner.

Second block is scheduled next Saturday night at the Central Recs where the Schryver keglers will select alleys for the forthcoming HVBL campaign.

Captain Virgil "Whitey" Crispell set the pace for his trundlers with a 665 blast as they reeled off games of 1083, 1085 and 999. The defending champions shot 1056, 994 and 1055.

Crispell soloed for 224, 257 and 184. Every member of the Schryver squad was over the "600" mark. George Shufeldt toppled 214-211-621, Larry Petersen, Jr., 202-235-633, George Robinson 242-202-200-644 and Fred Rice 219-216-604.

Charlie Manfro paced the champs with 223-217-215-655, while Harold Broskie powered 237-222-642 and Ken Joseph socked 212-210-211-633.

Subway Grill moved a step closer to the 1953 City Softball League pennant by shutting out VFW, 4-0, behind Joe Amato's three-hit pitching.

The victory gave the Grills a 19-2 record for the season and they need only two out of their next three games to stand off the Hilltop Rest challenge.

In other action, Sickler's Delivery had two big innings—six in the first and five in the fifth—to outlast Esopus Legion, 14 to 12. The Esopus tossers scored five runs in the sixth and were stopped after three more in the top of the seventh.

Amato restricted the Vets to singles by Watts, Ausanio and Undven, the opposing pitcher, who gave eight hits, including a pair of doubles by Vince Peck and a double and single by Frank Spada. Subway garnered its four runs in the fourth.

Jack Kozolowski of Sickler's lost a grand slam homer when Leo Wells failed to touch second base after Jack's long smash in the fifth. It was the third out and prevented the Deliverymen from piling up a more decisive margin.

In the 24-hit slugfest, Hinkley, Sickler shortstop, slugged two homers and a single. Don and Jim Ferraro had homers for Esopus. Bob Graves pounded a single and triple and Bill Prendergast hit three solo swats.

Schryver Pinmen TripHVBLChamps In First Block

The Hudson Valley Bowling League will have a new and powerful Kingston entry to contend with in the 1953-54 season that gets under way shortly after Labor Day.

The new combine, sponsored by Schryver Lumber Company, unloaded a dazzling 3167 Saturday night to gain a 62-pin lead over the former Miron Lumber combine in the first half of a home and home series for a steak dinner.

Second block is scheduled next Saturday night at the Central Recs where the Schryver keglers will select alleys for the forthcoming HVBL campaign.

Captain Virgil "Whitey" Crispell set the pace for his trundlers with a 665 blast as they reeled off games of 1083, 1085 and 999. The defending champions shot 1056, 994 and 1055.

Crispell soloed for 224, 257 and 184. Every member of the Schryver squad was over the "600" mark. George Shufeldt toppled 214-211-621, Larry Petersen, Jr., 202-235-633, George Robinson 242-202-200-644 and Fred Rice 219-216-604.

Charlie Manfro paced the champs with 223-217-215-655, while Harold Broskie powered 237-222-642 and Ken Joseph socked 212-210-211-633.

The Elks, newly-crowned champions of the Fraternal Youth League—merely went through the paces to notch their 10th success of the 1953 campaign Wednesday night in the first half of the double-header at municipal stadium as they defeated the KPA by 2 to 0.

The FYL contest preceded the big clash of the night between the Cops and Lawyers.

Both clubs went through the first four innings in scoreless fashion.

Pitcher Starts Rally

Tom Van Etten, who hurled for the Elks, started the uprising with a walk and then pilfered second. Dick Hornbeck also walked but Dick Kearney whiffed for the first out. Bob Pratt moved both runners up with a sacrifice. The Elks countered with their first run when Van Etten streaked for home on a wild pitch by Lorenzo Gianuzzi as Hornbeck tood third. Hornbeck tallied when Tony Turck hit to Bob Raible at short. Raible's throw to first went astray as Hornbeck came in with the second and final run of the ball game.

The Elks were held to two hits by Giannuzzi who walked five and struck out six. Van Etten issued three passes and fanned five.

Torch Key Takes Race

Yonkers, Aug. 27 (AP) — Torch Key, owned by William J. Alberg of Glen Head, withstood a powerful stretch drive by Bengazi last night to win the $5,800 Central Trot by a half length at Yonkers Raceway. Saratoga Hanover took the lead at the start and was on the front end until the far turn when he stumbled and went into a break. Torch Key, with Warren Dennis in the sulky, took the lead and battled off Bengazi. Algerine was third. The time for the mile was 2:07.3. Torch Key, second in the betting, returned $8.40 for $2.

Jones Dairy Out to Clinch Second Half League Title Tonight

Dairymen to Pin Hopes on Hinkley

League Standings

Kingston Indians	2	4

Last Night's Result

Indians 9, Colonial Merchants 0 by forfeit.

This could be wrap-up night in the City Baseball League for the front-running Jones Dairy aggregation.

On the strength of their stunning 7 to 2 victory over Wiltwyck Motors Tuesday night, the Dairymen can nail down the second half title tonight when they collide with the second place Doblers. A victory for the Dairymen will given them the second half crown.

Bruce "Red" Hinkley is the choice of Manager Daisy Schatzel for tonight's vital tilt while Joe Hoffman of Doblers is scheduled to open with Gerry Bechtold.

Another Bechtold, this one Bruce, who toils for Jones Dairy, moved his club to within striking distance of the second half flag when he pitched his mates to the 7-2 victory over Wiltwyck Motors Tuesday night.

Bruce was a surprise starter for Manager Schatzel's crew and the decision proved to be a smart one. With Bechtold turning in the big triumph, Schatezel still had Hinkley primed for tonight's clash.

Game Is Forfeited

Last night's schedule league tilt between the Colonal Merchants and the Indians went down the drain as a forfeit as ruled by Secretary Jack Misasi.

The loop official ruled a 9-0 forfeit awarded to the Indians over the Merchants, their fourth loss in seven starts in the second half of play. For the Indians it was their second victory in six contests.

Little Mo Ready

East Hampton, N. Y., Aug. 27 (AP)—There need be no fear. Maureen Connolly is in tip top shape for defense of her National Singles tennis crown in the championships starting at Forest Hills Saturday. Little Mo passed up the singles of the Maidstone Invitation tournament this week, electing to sharpen up her strokes in the doubles with Julie Sampson of San Marino, Calif., as her partner. She showed that her strokes are right on edge yesterday as she and Miss Sampson eliminated Lolly Goodrich of Southampton, and Anne Cook of Quogue, 6-1, 6-1.

Kingstons, Vets Score In Rec League Contests

Unearned Runs Help Former Bolster Lead

Recreation League

	Won	Lost
Kingstons	3	1
VFW	2	2
Hercules	2	2
Recreations	1	3

The Kingstons scored two unearned runs in the bottom of the seventh to shade the Recreations 5-4, in the Recreation League to gain a length on VFW and Hercules. They won the game with only two hits off Joe Gardiner.

With the Recs leading 4-3, Johnny Johnson's error at third base permitted Jim Woods to reach first. Woods promptly stole second and went to third on a passed ball, a fourth ball to Frank Cannon who reached second on the play.

Frank Secreto then bounced a grounder through Dick Nagel's legs for a two-base error to score Woods and Cannon.

In the companion game, VFW scored six runs in the first inning and outlasted Hercules, 7 to 6, to create a tie for second place between the teams at 2 wins and 2 losses. The Kingstons have won three out of four.

Jansen Hits Homer

Singles by Bob Fay and Frank Secreto were the lone safeties allowed by Gardiner, who walked six and fanned six. Ron Jansen slugged a homer and single for the Recs and knocked in two runs. Frank Secreto was touched for six hits and four runs in less than three innings, but southpaw Frank Reis blanketed the Recs on only one hit in 4 1/3 frames. He fanned six.

Ronnie Van Steenberg gave the VFW a flying start when he walked the first four batters in the opeaning frame. Jack Houghtaling relieved but before the inning was over the Vets had chased six runners across.

Houghtaling then settled down to pitch five-hit ball the rest of the way, striking out 10. Hercules made 5 hits off 3 VFW pitchers and had the benefit of 10 walks but failed to hit in the clutches. Joe Amato, the starter, was credited with the victory, although he needed help from Vince Ward and John Woolsey.

Tony Altamore, John Godwin and Bob Shelightner clouted triples and Jim Jackson had a double. No player on either side had more than one hit.

Sluggish Gavilan Scores Unanimous Victory Over Jones

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—Although he weighed a hefty 154 pounds in scoring a warmup victory over middleweight Ralph Jones, welterweight champion Kid Gavilan said today he didn't expect to have any trouble making the 147-pound limit on Sept. 18.

That's when the Cuban flash defends his welter crown against Carmen Basilio in Syracuse.

"Me make it easy," said the champ. "After I beat Jones I finish weighing 147 pounds. Monday I start training again at Summut. N. J., don't you worry I make it."

The champ seemed somewhat sluggish at the weight — second heaviest of his career—through the first three rounds of his ten-rounder with the Yonkers Negro last night. But he gave the pro-Jones crowd of 5,063 (gross gate $16,620) a dazzling exhibition the rest of the way to earn the unanimous decision in Madison Square Garden.

Loser Hurts Thumb

Gavvy, who outweighed the middleweight by two pounds, elected to slug it out with the sturdy Jones for three rounds and trailed. In the fourth he switched to boxing—jabbing and circling—although the fans booed. He boxed through the middle rounds and then handed the Westchester tiger a good thumping with solid smashes the rest of the way.

Jones said he hurt his right thumb in the sixth and had to stop pressing. Dr. Vincent Nardiello said the thumb was dislocated and possibly fractured. X-rays were taken at St. Clare's Hospital.

Gavilan said he decided to slug it out with Jones in the early rounds "to give the fans a show."

The votes, all favoring Gavilan, were: Referee Al Berl 5-4-1; Judge Arthur Susskind 6-4 and Judge Jack Gordon 7-3. The AP scorecard had Gavilan 6-3-1.

Jones Dairy Out to Clinch Second Half League Title Tonight

	W	L
Jones Dairy	5	1
Doblers	2	2
Colonial Merchants	3	4
Wiltwyck Motors	3	4
Kingston Indians	2	4

Last Night's Result

Indians 9, Colonial Merchants 0 by forfeit.

This could be wrap-up night in the City Baseball League for the front-running Jones Dairy aggregation.

On the strength of their stunning 7 to 2 victory over Wiltwyck Motors Tuesday night, the Dairymen can nail down the second half title tonight when they collide with the second place Doblers. A victory for the Dairymen will given them the second half crown.

Bruce "Red" Hinkley is the choice of Manager Daisy Schatzel for tonight's vital tilt while Joe Hoffman of Doblers is scheduled to open with Gerry Bechtold.

Another Bechtold, this one Bruce, who toils for Jones Dairy, moved his club to within striking distance of the second half flag when he pitched his mates to the 7-2 victory over Wiltwyck Motors Tuesday night.

Bruce was a surprise starter for Manager Schatzel's crew and the decision proved to be a smart one. With Bechtold turning in the big triumph, Schatezel still had Hinkley primed for tonight's clash.

Game Is Forfeited

Last night's schedule league tilt between the Colonal Merchants and the Indians went down the drain as a forfeit as ruled by Secretary Jack Misasi.

The loop official ruled a 9-0 forfeit awarded to the Indians over the Merchants, their fourth loss in seven starts in the second half of play. For the Indians it was their second victory in six contests.

Little Mo Ready

East Hampton, N. Y., Aug. 27 (AP)—There need be no fear. Maureen Connolly is in tip top shape for defense of her National Singles tennis crown in the championships starting at Forest Hills Saturday. Little Mo passed up the singles of the Maidstone Invitation tournament this week, electing to sharpen up her strokes in the doubles with Julie Sampson of San Marino, Calif., as her partner. She showed that her strokes are right on edge yesterday as she and Miss Sampson eliminated Lolly Goodrich of Southampton, and Anne Cook of Quogue, 6-1, 6-1.

Kingstons, Vets Score In Rec League Contests

Unearned Runs Help Former Bolster Lead

Recreation League

	Won	Lost
Kingstons	3	1
VFW	2	2
Hercules	2	2
Recreations	1	3

The Kingstons scored two unearned runs in the bottom of the seventh to shade the Recreations 5-4, in the Recreation League to gain a length on VFW and Hercules. They won the game with only two hits off Joe Gardiner.

With the Recs leading 4-3, Johnny Johnson's error at third base permitted Jim Woods to reach first. Woods promptly stole second and went to third on a passed ball, a fourth ball to Frank Cannon who reached second on the play.

Frank Secreto then bounced a grounder through Dick Nagel's legs for a two-base error to score Woods and Cannon.

In the companion game, VFW scored six runs in the first inning and outlasted Hercules, 7 to 6, to create a tie for second place between the teams at 2 wins and 2 losses. The Kingstons have won three out of four.

Jansen Hits Homer

Singles by Bob Fay and Frank Secreto were the lone safeties allowed by Gardiner, who walked six and fanned six. Ron Jansen slugged a homer and single for the Recs and knocked in two runs. Frank Secreto was touched for six hits and four runs in less than three innings, but southpaw Frank Reis blanketed the Recs on only one hit in 4 1/3 frames. He fanned six.

Ronnie Van Steenberg gave the VFW a flying start when he walked the first four batters in the opeaning frame. Jack Houghtaling relieved but before the inning was over the Vets had chased six runners across.

Houghtaling then settled down to pitch five-hit ball the rest of the way, striking out 10. Hercules made 5 hits off 3 VFW pitchers and had the benefit of 10 walks but failed to hit in the clutches. Joe Amato, the starter, was credited with the victory, although he needed help from Vince Ward and John Woolsey.

Tony Altamore, John Godwin and Bob Shelightner clouted triples and Jim Jackson had a double. No player on either side had more than one hit.

The SCOREBOARD

(By The Associated Press)

(By Associated Press)

Want to know one of the big reasons why the Chicago White Sox are languishing 10½ games back in second place today instead of fighting it out with the New York Yankees for the American League pennant?

The answer is none other than the poor, old Philadelphia Athletics, now managed by the long-time White Sox manager, Jimmy Dykes, and loaded with a bunch of ex-pale hose players who are coming back to haunt Paul Richards and his hirelings.

The A's have won 12 games against the Sox this season and lost only eight. On the other hand, they've won only five from the Yanks and dropped 15. If the White Sox had been able to do as well against the A's as the Yanks, they'd be just 3½ games out of first place.

Nellie Alverson Hits 157 Average In BYA Summer

Nellie Alverson averaged 157.28 for 39 games to capture individual honors in the BYA Summer League, according to final statistics released today by Mrs. Jessie Burnett, secretary.

Two others crashed the 150-bracket, Elizabeth Bruck with 156.26 for 42 sets and Mrs. Burnett with 155.17 in 40 games. Faye Horne 144.21 and Kay Brodhead 144.3 rounded out the top five.

Ann Guido pounded 217 for high single and Elizabeth Bruck's 534 was high series. Kay Brodhead had a 212 solo. Marcia Clark bettered her average 13.4 points to lead in that department. Other leaders were Cleo Rodden 9.23, Florence Bonesteel 6.38 and Jackie Kean 5.4.

Rainbow Inn No. 2 captured the team championship with 28½ wins and 13½ losses. Rainbow Inn No. 1 trailed with a 27 and 15 record. Members of the championship squad were Emma Pratt, Kay Brodhead, Lillian Bloomer, Pat Pearson and Mrs. Burnett.

Vernon Hanover Cops

Vernon, Aug. 27 (AP) — Vernon Hanover covered a mile in 2:01 2/5 last night to win the featured George R. Story Pace at Vernon Downs. The 9-year-old son of Billy Direct is owned by Mrs. Virginia Nottingham of Cape Charles, Va., and was driven by Henry Clukey. Patrick Primrose placed second and Lucky Fingo third.

Bowling Supplies Arrive

New supplies for league bowling secretaries within the jurisdiction of the Kingston Bowling Association are now available locally. League secretaries are requested to contact Irwin J. Thomas, KBA secretary, at The Freeman, 5000.

Castoffs Ruin Sox

Yesterday, the A's beat the Sox 10-8.

Who did the bombarding? Eddie Robinson, traded for Ferris Fain during the winter, hit a home run and Dave Philley, who put in four campaigns with the Sox, hit a home run and two triples to knock in two runs.

The day before yesterday, the A's beat the Sox, 4-2. Gus Zernial, who once labored for the Sox, hit two home runs and Philley hit one.

Starter Mike Fornieles was knocked out in the fifth yesterday and took the loss, while Alex Kellner, who went eight innings for the A's got the credit for the triumph.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Yanks nipped the Detroit Tigers 5-4 and the Cleveland Indians polished off the Washington Senators 9-5. The St. Louis Browns and the Boston Red Sox were not scheduled.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs pummelled the Brooklyn Dodgers 13-4; the New York Giants clobbered the St. Louis Cardinals by an identical 13-4 count and the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Milwaukee Braves 6-5 in the only night game. The Pittsburgh Pirates and Cincinnati Redlegs had the day off.

Vic Raschi made his second relief appearance of the year in the Yanks' victory over the Tigers and fought his way out of three late-inning jams. The Yanks were leading 4-2 in the seventh when Raschi took over for Tom Gorman, who had relieved Johnny Sain, the winner.

Home runs by the Indians' Harry Simpson, Jim Hegan, Larry Doby, and George Strickland made the task of Dave Hoskins and Art Houtteman easy against Washington.

Rhodes Blasts Three

The Cub-Dodger game was fairly close until the Bruins erupted for six runs in the eighth. Turk Lown, who held the Dodgers in check after relieving Bubba Church in the fifth, was the winner. Hal Jeffcoat contributed a pair of home runs for the winning cause.

Jim (Dusty) Rhodes was the big slugger for the Giants. The utility outfielder hit three home runs—the first time this season a major leaguer has been able to accomplish the feat. Al Dark collected five hits in the massacre of five Card pitchers.

Rhodes came up in the eighth with a chance to equal the major league record of four home runs in one game, but struck out on a 3-2 pitch.

Karl Drews and Jim Konstanty teamed to tame the Braves for the Phils. The winners collected 16 hits, including a two-run homer homer by Del Ennis.

Hutchins, Waterous, Gonzales In Exhibition With Sarazen

Famous Golfer Due Sept. 2 at Woodstock

Club professional J. Carson Hutchins, 1952 champion Boyer Gonzales and Allen Waterous will make up the foursome with Gene Sarazen in the exhibition match scheduled on Wednesday, Sept. 2, at the Woodstock Country Club.

Proceeds of the 18-hole exhibition will be turned over to the Woodstock Library Fund and the Recreation Fund of the village.

One of golf's all-time greats, the fabulous Sarazen, who now operates a large dairy farm at Germantown, will be making his first appearance on the Woodstock links.

A few years ago, the former U. S. Open, PGA, British Open and Masters champion carded a 65 in an exhibition with Alex Gerlak at Twaalfskill. Last year he toured Wiltwyck in 32 for nine holes.

Now 52, Sarazen still is regarded as one of the greatest players in the game over the 18-hole route.

The ticket sale opened in Woodstock yesterday and the committees in charge expect the largest attendance in the country club's history. All persons on the course will be required to show donation tags.

The SCOREBOARD

(By The Associated Press)

(By Associated Press)

Want to know one of the big reasons why the Chicago White Sox are languishing 10½ games back in second place today instead of fighting it out with the New York Yankees for the American League pennant?

The answer is none other than the poor, old Philadelphia Athletics, now managed by the long-time White Sox manager, Jimmy Dykes, and loaded with a bunch of ex-pale hose players who are coming back to haunt Paul Richards and his hirelings.

The A's have won 12 games against the Sox this season and lost only eight. On the other hand, they've won only five from the Yanks and dropped 15. If the White Sox had been able to do as well against the A's as the Yanks, they'd be just 3½ games out of first place.

Castoffs Ruin Sox

In the last two days, White Sox castoffs have taken care of their former mates very emphatically.

Yesterday, the A's beat the Sox 10-8.

Who did the bombarding? Eddie Robinson, traded for Ferris Fain during the winter, hit a home run and Dave Philley, who put in four campaigns with the Sox, hit a home run and two triples to knock in two runs.

The day before yesterday, the A's beat the Sox, 4-2. Gus Zernial, who once labored for the Sox, hit two home runs and Philley hit one.

Starter Mike Fornieles was knocked out in the fifth yesterday and took the loss, while Alex Kellner, who went eight innings for the A's got the credit for the triumph.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Yanks nipped the Detroit Tigers 5-4 and the Cleveland Indians polished off the Washington Senators 9-5. The St. Louis Browns and the Boston Red Sox were not scheduled.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs pummelled the Brooklyn Dodgers 13-4; the New York Giants clobbered the St. Louis Cardinals by an identical 13-4 count and the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Milwaukee Braves 6-5 in the only night game. The Pittsburgh Pirates and Cincinnati Redlegs had the day off.

Vic Raschi made his second relief appearance of the year in the Yanks' victory over the Tigers and fought his way out of three late-inning jams. The Yanks were leading 4-2 in the seventh when Raschi took over for Tom Gorman, who had relieved Johnny Sain, the winner.

Home runs by the Indians' Harry Simpson, Jim Hegan, Larry Doby, and George Strickland made the task of Dave Hoskins and Art Houtteman easy against Washington.

Rhodes Blasts Three

The Cub-Dodger game was fairly close until the Bruins erupted for six runs in the eighth. Turk Lown, who held the Dodgers in check after relieving Bubba Church in the fifth, was the winner. Hal Jeffcoat contributed a pair of home runs for the winning cause.

Jim (Dusty) Rhodes was the big slugger for the Giants. The utility outfielder hit three home runs—the first time this season a major leaguer has been able to accomplish the feat. Al Dark collected five hits in the massacre of five Card pitchers.

Rhodes came up in the eighth with a chance to equal the major league record of four home runs in one game, but struck out on a 3-2 pitch.

Karl Drews and Jim Konstanty teamed to tame the Braves for the Phils. The winners collected 16 hits, including a two-run homer homer by Del Ennis.

Nellie Alverson Hits 157 Average In BYA Summer

Nellie Alverson averaged 157.28 for 39 games to capture individual honors in the BYA Summer League, according to final statistics released today by Mrs. Jessie Burnett, secretary.

Two others crashed the 150-bracket, Elizabeth Bruck with 156.26 for 42 sets and Mrs. Burnett with 155.17 in 40 games. Faye Horne 144.21 and Kay Brodhead 144.3 rounded out the top five.

Ann Guido pounded 217 for high single and Elizabeth Bruck's 534 was high series. Kay Brodhead had a 212 solo. Marcia Clark bettered her average 13.4 points to lead in that department. Other leaders were Cleo Rodden 9.23, Florence Bonesteel 6.38 and Jackie Kean 5.4.

Rainbow Inn No. 2 captured the team championship with 28½ wins and 13½ losses. Rainbow Inn No. 1 trailed with a 27 and 15 record. Members of the championship squad were Emma Pratt, Kay Brodhead, Lillian Bloomer, Pat Pearson and Mrs. Burnett.

Hutchins, Waterous, Gonzales In Exhibition With Sarazen

Famous Golfer Due Sept. 2 at Woodstock

Club professional J. Carson Hutchins, 1952 champion Boyer Gonzales and Allen Waterous will make up the foursome with Gene Sarazen in the exhibition match scheduled on Wednesday, Sept. 2, at the Woodstock Country Club.

Proceeds of the 18-hole exhibition will be turned over to the Woodstock Library Fund and the Recreation Fund of the village.

One of golf's all-time greats, the fabulous Sarazen, who now operates a large dairy farm at Germantown, will be making his first appearance on the Woodstock links.

A few years ago, the former U. S. Open, PGA, British Open and Masters champion carded a 65 in an exhibition with Alex Gerlak at Twaalfskill. Last year he toured Wiltwyck in 32 for nine holes.

Now 52, Sarazen still is regarded as one of the greatest players in the game over the 18-hole route.

The ticket sale opened in Woodstock yesterday and the committees in charge expect the largest attendance in the country club's history. All persons on the course will be required to show donation tags.

The Weather

THURSDAY, AUG. 27, 1953

Sun rises at 5:03 a. m.; sun sets at 6:28 p. m., EST.

Weather, fair.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 67 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 86 degrees.

Weather Forecast

New York city and vicinity: Hot weather will continue this afternoon and again Friday with highest temperatures both days in the 90's but the humidity will remain fairly low. Temperatures tonight will be much the same as last night with lowest about 75 in the city and between 65 and 70 in the suburbs. Fair skies with gentle northeast winds. Gentle to moderate west to northwest winds this afternoon, tonight and Friday with fair to good visibility except poor to fair for a short time early Friday morning in fog and haze.

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT

Eastern New York: Fair tonight and Friday; lowest tonight 58 to 64. Little change in temperature Friday.

The city engineer's weather instruments showed a high temperature of 83 degrees at 10 a. m. today, barometric pressure of 30.00 inches and humidity of 75 per cent with winds from the east at two MPH. High temperature yesterday was 91 degrees at 3 p. m. and 66 at 5 a. m., relative humidity 95 per cent at 2 a. m. and 49 at 5 p. m. and barometric pressure 30.02 inches at 9 a. m. and 29.95 at 4 p. m. There was a trace of rain. Winds were SE at 4 MPH.

Be sure to vacuum the tacked edges of a carpet, for these are favorite nesting places for moths.

Sunny Warmth Is Forecast for East

(By The Associated Press)

Sunny skies and high temperatures were in prospect again today in most of the eastern two thirds of the nation. Not much immediate relief was in sight from the hot, dry weather.

The midwest baked yesterday in one of the hottest days of the summer season. Temperatures were in the 90's and soared above 100 degrees in some areas. It was 103 in Philip, S. D., hotter than in the southwest desert region. Charon, Neb., reported a sizzling 101.

Record readings for the date were reported in many cities, including 97 in Chicago and 96 in Milwaukee.

Skies were fair today from the midwest eastward to the Atlantic coast except for showers in western Pennsylvania, sections of New York and the New England states. Other shower areas were in central and northern Florida, sections of the Dakotas, Minnesota and Nebraska, the Pacific Northwest eastward through Montana and in the central Rockies.

Polio Cases Continue To Increase, Is Report

Washington, Aug. 27 (AP)—Infantile paralysis continued to increase last week but the total of 2,253 new cases reported to the Public Health Service was 35 per cent below the 3,501 in the corresponding 1952 week.

Last week was the first time this year in which the weekly total of new cases has exceeded 2,000, the health service said today.

For this year, since the seasonal low point about April 1, there have been 14,464 cases compared with 18,637 in the similar 1952 period. For the calendar year 1953 there have been 15,978 cases, compared with 19,830 in the similar period a year ago.

A record 57,626 cases were listed in preliminary reports for 1952.

The health service said new cases reported last week in New England exceeded those in the previous week by 50 per cent and in the mountain states there was a 40 per cent increase.

Traffic through the Suez Canal is about twice that through the Panama Canal.

Reunion in Minnesota

Baudette, Minn. (AP)—Forty-six years ago the village of Baudette voted to spilt into two parts. The part on the east side of the Baudette river became Spooner and the portion on the west side kept the old name. Now, in the interests of better municipal operation, they have voted to consolidate again and the name Spooner will be dropped.
